Two hundred years ago a tea like "SALADA" would have cost $50.00 a pound—but such tea was then unknown—today millions enjoy the fragrance and satisfaction of "SALADA" for a small fraction of that cost.

spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Will Greenwood of Zion.

Darkies' Corners

(Our Own Correspondent) The young people of the neighborhood have organized a softball team.

Mr. Ben Whitmore is sporting a new Ford car. Mr. and Mrs. John McEachern have moved to Mrs. Seely's house on Lambton street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamilton and Miss Ethel Hargrave were among those who attended the graduation exercises held recently in Owen Sound, when Miss Margorie Firth was one of the graduates.

A few from this neighborhood were at Mr. Harry Gray's barn raising on Thursday last. Congratulations to Mr. William B. Patterson and Miss Jean Floyd of Chesley who joined heart and hand on Saturday last. We welcome Mrs. Patterson into our neighborhood.

Little Lawrence Atchison has been a sufferer the past week with inflammatory rheumatism. We hope for a speedy recovery.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. John Gray and family in the tragic bereavement of husband and father.

Speaking of automobiles, it has inspired the worst pun of the season. It is awful. "So you've nick-named your car 'Ben,' have you? Chevrolet any eggs?"

IN MEMORIAM

Backus—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mary Ann Backus, who passed on at her late residence, Durham, June 7, 1927. One year has passed since that sad day.

The dear one we loved was called away; God took her home, it was His will. But in our hearts she lingers still. —Sadly missed by Husband and Children.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the members of the fire department, and all neighbors and friends who assisted in saving property at the fire on my property last Thursday which resulted in the destruction of my barn and other loss.—Herb Murock.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

The minimum charge for In Memoriam notices in The Chronicle is 50 cents; with poetry the minimum charge will be $1.00 for not more than 8 lines, with a charge of 10 cents for each additional line. Cards of Thanks are charged for at a minimum of 50 cents, with extended notice, $1.00 minimum. As this class of reading matter is of no news value except to the parties interested we would ask that cash accompany the order. 5.3 tf
