BAPTIST MISSION CIRCLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist Women's Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. William Moore with a good attendance of members and friends.

The meeting opened with a hymn, "Sound the Battle Cry," followed with prayer by Mrs. C. Brown. The roll call, minutes of the last meeting and business was transacted after which the Scripture lesson was read by Miss Grace Ritchie.

A solo by Mrs. Giles, "Thy Grace is sufficient for Thee" and a duet by Mrs. Browne and Miss Ada Browne were much appreciated.

An instrumental by Miss Browne was well rendered and enjoyed. Mrs. Thomas McComb gave a splendid idea of the important part played by our denomination in the west in the early days as well as at the present, the topic being "Early days in Western Missions."

A sermon was given by Mr. Moore, asking for God's blessing on all mission work in foreign and home fields and on the activities of the home church, after which the meeting closed by all repeating the Lord's prayer.

The Ladies Aid meeting followed and after all business had been transacted, Mrs. Moore was called on and an address was read by Miss Redford.

Durham, May 6 1928 Dear Mrs. Moore:

It is with deep regret that we learn of your intended removal from our midst. We shall greatly miss you. Words are a poor substitute for what our hearts feel on this occasion.

You have ever been faithful and lovingly devoted to the many duties which have come to you in every department of our work; a helpful friend in time of need is a wise counsellor at all times.

There is only one thing to make us glad and that is you will not be so far away but what you can come amongst us and we can go to you, and now on behalf of the Mission Circle and the Ladies Aid, we ask you to accept this rose bowl and flowers as a slight token of our love to you and hope it will remind you day by day that your friends are always loyal and true and wishing for you and yours every success and blessing in your new home.

Mrs. Knisley, on behalf of the Mission Circle; Mrs. J. Ritchie, Eva Redford, on behalf of the Ladies Aid.

A verse of "Blessed be the tie that binds" was then sung. Mrs. Moore made a very fitting reply.

SHOWERED BRIDE-TO-BE

On Friday, June 15th, a pretty shower was given for Miss Gladys Corlett when Miss Allie Smith and Miss Annie Morrison entertained at the Smith home, Dornoch.

Some fifty friends greeted the bride-to-be when she arrived and was ushered into the living room to the music of the wedding march played by Miss Mayme Sullivan.

The guest of honor was given a central seat beneath a wedding bell and white streamers while Miss Allie Smith unwrapped the parcels from a basket decked in white and Miss Annie Morrison read the verses which were attached. The gifts consisted of pyrexware, silver, aluminum, china, household linens and wicker. Though very much surprised Miss Corlett gracefully expressed her appreciation of the kindness of her friends.

Afternoon tea was daintily served at the close of the social hour and the company dispersed with many expressions of cordial good wishes for the bride of this week.

HAD GOOD PICNIC

The Priceville picnic held in High Park, on Saturday, June 9th, was in point of numbers "the best yet". Though threatening earlier in the day, the weather, towards evening, was all that could be desired.

After a bountiful supper, novelty races were much enjoyed by onlookers as well as by those taking part.

A baseball game was indulged in earlier in the day. Many of the older people were glad of the opportunity of renewing old friendships. The wish was expressed by many present that an Association be formed, in order that the event be made an annual one. It is hoped that a meeting will be held later in the year of all those interested.

Celebrate the Glorious Twelfth in Flesherton.

Sir Leo Money, shown here, merely "pecked" at her, and it was by no means a "passionate kiss" Miss Irene Savidge declared in the famous Hyde Park case, into which a parliamentary tribunal has just concluded an investigation following charges that Scotland Yard used third degree methods in dealing with the young woman. The report of the tribunal is to be published shortly.
