Barn Burned Near Teeswater

Just at noon on Wednesday, fire of unknown origin broke out in the barn of Bert Armstrong on the 2nd concession west, and totally destroyed the building. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong were away and the oldest boy, Hugh, was away on the other farm till morning. As far as is known, no one was near the barn since early in the morning, so they are at a loss to understand how the fire got started.—Teeswater News.

Cycling Youths Struck by Car

While cycling along Hume St., two youths, Fred Brock and a friend of his from Toronto, Donald Goff, were suddenly startled by the sounding of a motor horn and at the next instant were struck from behind by a car driven by Mr. John Peterman. Brock was knocked over and he fell under the auto, which passed over his leg and dragged him and his bicycle some little distance before it came to a stop. The lad was badly bruised on the leg over which the car passed. He also has a bad cut on the right arm. Goff, who was thrown to one side, escaped injury except a bruise on the leg. Medical aid was summoned and the lad's injuries attended to. They were taken to their home in the doctor's car. Both bicycles were completely demolished.—Collingwood Bulletin.

Hurt Shoeing Horse

While Mr. Eugene Russell, a local blacksmith, was shoeing a Clydesdale on Wednesday afternoon, the plug jerked away its foot and a nail that was about to clench tore a deep fissure through the palm of his left hand, causing a most painful wound that bled profusely. A hurried trip to the doctor's was necessitated by the mishap, and although the wound is mending satisfactorily, he will be off duty for several days with the injury. Two years ago he had his left arm broken by a kick from a Clyde that looked like a twin brother of the one that injured him on Wednesday.—Walkerton Herald-Times.

Much Paid out for Sheep

At the last meeting of Adala council $523 was paid out to farmers who had their sheep killed by dogs. This year has been one of the most disastrous in this respect for some time, and the township officials are inclined towards taking drastic action in an effort to prevent the depredations. County Constable Watson, who is making a tour of inspection of the township this week, is leaving no stone unturned in an effort to ascertain a complete census of the dog (tagged and untagged) population of that that municipality.—Beeton World.

Attempt to Burn Property Fails

The fire department received a call at one a.m. Saturday morning at Hume Street, where two cottages, situated next to the property of John McNabb were on fire. The flames had not reached an advanced stage however, due to Mr. J. Foulis, who lives in that locality, turning in the alarm. The brigade was able to extinguish both conflagrations by the use of chemicals, little damage being done. Fire Chief McAllister investigated and found that the downstairs floors of both dwellings had been saturated with coal oil, which clearly demonstrated that the "job" had been planned and executed by parties unknown.

The cottages have not been occupied for several months, the property being purchased last year by a Mr. Tindale, who resides in Toronto. Inspector Burnett of the Fire Marshall's Department came to Collingwood on Tuesday for the purpose of investigating the con-

Man Arrested is Not Murderer

Albert Archie Eicheldinger, 38 years of age, the man arrested near Southampton by Chief Murray, and brought to the County Jail here last Thursday, is not the man wanted in Eastern Ontario for murder. He resembles the description broadcasted to the Provincial Police of Roaul Laflamme, who is alleged to have murdered a man in Glengarry County recently. His small moustache and height were identical. Provincial Constable Joseph Nelson took impressions of this man's finger prints and sent them to the Criminal Investigation Department at Ottawa. The reply stated that they matched those on record of Albert Archie Eicheldinger, who has the following record: 1925, at Estevan, Sask., sentenced to six months for vagrancy; March, 1927, at Swift Current, Sask., a second term for vagrancy; November, 1927 at Stratford, Ont., another term on a vagrancy charge. Eicheldinger was hanging about farms in the Southampton section, it is understood. His actions gave rise for suspicions. He is being held here on a vagrancy charge.—Walkerton Telescope.

Strawstack Burned

On Sunday afternoon about three o'clock a motorist driving along the Durham road noticed a fire beginning to burn at a straw stack on the farm of Mr. William McConnell, lot 26, N. D. R. Driving into the house he notified Mr. McConnell, who was sitting in the house talking to his brother, Mr. Robert McConnell. Neighbors gathered and kept the fire in hand until the arrival of the Kincairdine fire truck when streams were secured that got the blaze under control. The barn and other buildings would have undoubtedly gone if it had not been for the fire truck. How the blaze started is a mystery.—Kincairdine Review-Reporter.

Lady Editor at Chatsworth

Grey County will now have a lady as editor of one of its weekly newspapers, Miss May Wilson having been appointed editor of the Chatsworth Banner, which is published by A. E. Colgan & Son, of the Standard, Markdale. G. W. Collins, who last week wrote his valedictory address, will move to Dundalk. With Mr. Collins as editor, the Banner has been a bright and well-edited paper, and a paper which could be read with much thought and interest. Miss Wilson has had considerable literary experience and will, no doubt, uphold the Banner's good reputation.—Dundalk Herald.

Pigeon Visits Station

Shortly after the baggage master Mr. Switzer, had opened the baggage room at the C.N.R. station last Friday morning, he was surprised to see a pigeon alight on the platform and walk into the baggage room.

The bird was a pure bred carrier and is owned by a fancier in Cleveland, this information being gleaned from tags which were fastened to its legs. Mr. Switzer whistled softly and the bird, after circling the room once or twice, landed on his outstretched hand.

and submitted to having the tags examined without fright. The C. N. R. employees are taking good care of their visitor having advised the owner in Cleveland of the arrival, and in the meantime are awaiting instructions from the American city.—Collingwood Enterprise.

Athlete Is Injured

Art Lane, a member of the Swinton Park senior-intermediate W. F. A. team met with an accident which may incapacitate him for some time. Lane was kicked in the stomach by a fractious horse while trying out the speed of the animal, which he recently acquired on a farm in the Southampton section, it is understood. His actions gave rise for suspicions. He is being held here on a vagrancy charge.—Hanover Post.

Death of Mr. A. Himmelspach

A highly esteemed settler of the Township of Normanby passed away on Monday morning last in the person of Mr. Anthony Himmelspach at the age of 72 years. Death was the result of heart trouble, with which he had been afflicted for ten years or so. Deceased was born in the township of Carrick, where he lived until 27 years ago when he moved to Normanby. He married Miss Margaret Ruetz of Carrick, who predeceased him on May 19, 1917. They had five children, four still living. Jack, on the homestead, Hanover; and Susan, (Mrs. P. P. Grub) of Detroit. One son was killed on the farm on June 10, 1916. The funeral took place yesterday morning to the Carlsruhe cemetery. Rev. Father Hoffarth had charge of the obsequies.—Hanover Post.

Death of Miss Nora A. Tanner, R.N.

In Hamilton Mountain Sanatorium, on Saturday morning, June 16 Miss Nora A. Tanner, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tanner, passed away after an illness of six months, at the age of twenty-eight years, six months and ten days. Deceased graduated from Bruce County Hospital on May 8th, 1925, then practiced in Great Barrington, Mass. General Hospital, for fourteen months as night supervisor, also for nine months in Wyandotte Mich., General Hospital. The late Miss Tanner was a nurse who fulfilled the Florence Nightingale pledge by giving up her life to her work. Her sweet disposition endeared her to each and every one she so carefully and successfully

Fire at Cedarville

A serious fire took place at Cedarville early on Wednesday morning last when the home of Mr. William Wilkie was totally destroyed. Mr. Wilkie, after rising, had put on a fire of cedar and had gone out for a pail of water. Returning, the house was discovered to be on fire, probably from the hot pipes. Mrs. Wilkie, formerly of this town, and her two children, escaped from the blazing building in their night attire. Mr. Wilkie was somewhat burned.

The house and all its contents were completely destroyed with very little left to mark its site. There is insurance of $500 on the building and $600 on the contents, but this will not nearly cover the loss.—Mount Forest Confederate.

cared for. The funeral service took place from her late home, concession 11, Elderslie, on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hallowell, rector of the Anglican church, of which congregation the deceased was a member. Interment took place at Salem cemetery, Rev. Mr. Wilson assisting at the graveside. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tanner, three sisters, Aileen, Bessie and Ida, and two brothers, Wilfred and Harold.

The bereaved family, also Mr. Wilfred Inglis, of Walkerton, to whom the deceased was engaged to be married, have the sincere sympathy of a very wide circle of friends in their deep affliction. Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were, Dr. Leeson, Mr. and Mrs. James Petty, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mc-Niece of Normanby; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tanner of Millbank; Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown of Riversdale; Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of Clinton, and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Saunders of Owen Sound.—Paisley Advocate.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who shared with us our sense of loneliness and loss on the occasion of the death of our beloved wife and mother, and rendered such kindly ministrations of service and strength. Also our deepest gratitude to the singers in their ministry of song, and to Revs. Fiddes and Smith for their messages of comfort and of hope. —Thomas Greenwood and Family.
