

DISTRICT HYDRO MET AT MEAFORD

Enthusiastic Meeting of Eugenia System Commissioners Held at Lakeside Town Two Weeks Ago, According to Meaford Mirror, Whose Report Appears Below

The Eugenia Hydro District Association met in Meaford Friday, June 29. Bad weather with occasional rain all day interfered with the program of entertainment...

The question of greater publicity received considerable attention and a committee was appointed to proceed immediately with a scheme for greater advertising of the municipalities in the Georgian Bay System.

The officers were all re-elected and Mr. Godfrey of Meaford and Mr. Kalle of Hanover were added to the executive in place of men from these towns who are no longer members of local hydro commissions.

Traverston (Our Own Correspondent) Growth has been marvellous during the past ten days, owing to the frequent downpours and the hot sunshine. Crops are going to be heavy. Mr. James Banks has sold his fine farm on the 6th concession to Mr. James Watson and purposes going out to his brother, Will, in Alberta. Many will regret Jim's departure, as he has ever been a most obliging neighbor and a man of honor and honesty. Rev. Mr. Pineo, who was pastor of North Glenelg Baptist church twenty-eight years ago, was back on Sunday last and conducted service. Mr. Peter McNair and sister May of Dyer's Bay, Mrs. Neil McFarlane, daughter Isabel and Mr. Walter James of Hamilton were visitors at Mrs. John McArthur's over the week-end. Word has come to the Beaton family of the death of Mr. Robert Book in King township. He was wedded to Miss Mary Fallaise, formerly of the 4th concession. Quite a number from different points in the province and United States spent the week-end and holiday in the neighborhood: Mr. Ellison Baker of Toronto at the parental home; Miss Lizzie McDavid of Galt and Mrs. Philip Harrison and baby Aileen W. at Nelson homeshead; Mrs. J. McCahey of Punslich at your scribe's home; Mr. Frank McAssey engineer in the Department of Highways at Councillor Malcolm Black's; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elliott, Misses Bessie and Jean and Mr. Kett of Caledonia at Mr. J. J. Pearl's; Misses Thelma and DeLores Mullen of Toronto and Miss Nellie Dulan at Mr. Jas. Murphy's; Mr. and Mrs. S. Beddo and the late sister, Miss Henry at Mr. and Mrs. M. Quillinan's. Cecil Patterson of Chesley is holidaying a fortnight at J. R. Edwards' and helping "Buster" to thin out the groundhogs. Misses Evelyn and Marcella Connor arrived from Toronto on Saturday evening to spend the summer at the old home. Mr. Arthur McClain of town is regaining his old vim and vigor at the old homeshead on the 5th concession. He was a pretty lively youth in bygone days. After being happily wedded in Detroit the early part of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown are spending a few days at the bride's old home, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook. The fair bride, nee Miss Evleena Cook, is the youngest daughter of the home and for the past few years has been stenographer with a big concern in Detroit. The best wishes of the neighborhood go out to the happy young couple. Miss Nellie Sweeney is home from Windsor for a fortnight's holidays. Mr. and Mrs. John Cushnie of Toronto visited at her brother's, Mr. W. R. Jack's. They have a kindly feeling for old Zion and were present at Sunday's services. Congratulations are being extended to Miss McGarry of Sep. S. No. 5 on the success of her Entrance pupils, Ernest O'Henley and Clara McCarthy, the latter winning honors. Miss McGarry has been re-engaged for her fifth year. She is spending the vacation at her home in Perth. Miss Kathleen McMillan, teacher in No. 7, Sep. was also successful with her pupil, Margaret Quillinan, having passed. Mrs. John Graham and children, Mr. Joe Black of Toronto, Master John S. Black of Fort William are visiting at Mr. John S. Black's. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Curren of Toronto are holidaying at Mr. James Hastie's and Mr. George E. Pear's. He donated a magnificent hat to be competed for at Zion's big picnic on Saturday afternoon. Never a more social gathering or a better one has ever attended Zion's annual picnic gathering than on Saturday afternoon. The day was delightful, the woods wonderful in their dense foliage and the people came from far and near to participate in what was partly an "Old boys' and girls' reunion". For among the crowd was McWilliams (Our Own Correspondent) The beautiful showers and warm sunshine have caused a wonderful advancement in all lines of grass and grain crops. The recent dry spell having left plenty of warmth in the ground, everything is growing at a gratifying rate. Mr. Samuel Black of Pontiac, Mich. is at present visiting relatives and old acquaintances. Mr. Black lived in this neighborhood some forty-five years ago and he sees many wonderful changes in all these years. He finds the men of his day have all passed on and a new generation has sprung up and taken possession. Mr. Ben Whitmore has been under the weather for some time but we are glad to report him on the mend. Mr. and Mrs. William Moore purpose motoring to Toronto to spend the latter end of the week. Mr. C. W. Arnett makes his daily trips East to near Maxwell where he is again engaged as assistant foreman to Mr. Thomas Nichol. It is another evidence of good men always being in demand. There passed away in Mount Forest hospital on June 27, Mrs. Margaret McKenzie, relict of the late John McKenzie, in her eighty-first year. Deceased had been an intense sufferer for some four of five weeks from heart trouble and complications which doctors nor kind friends could do nothing to allay. It was simply the gradual wearing out of a once strong, robust constitution. Deceased was born at Dundas and in early childhood moved with her parents to Egremont, her father being the late Joseph Camp, who conducted a saw-milling business near Dromore. In the year 1872 she was married to the late John McKenzie, who predeceased her seventeen years ago. Seven of a family blessed the union, namely, Aggie (Mrs. R. Grezor, Mount Forest); James, at South Bend; Lizzie (Mrs. J. Johnston, Dromore); Mary (Mrs. Ben E. Woods, Toronto); Maggie (Mrs. G. A. Watson, McWilliams); Jennie (Mrs. J. Long), Durham and John on the old homeshead. When in health deceased was an ardent and consistent member of Amos Presbyterian church, Dromore, and was ever ready in the advancement of every good cause. She was a busy, well spent life, having endured the trials and hardships of pioneering. The funeral was held on Friday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. Grezor, Mount Forest, the remains being conveyed to Amos church by motor, where an impressive service was delivered by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Purnell. From here the beautiful casket which was covered with beautiful floral tributes, was conveyed to the family plot near the church and was lowered amid a large gathering of friends and neighbors who had assembled to pay a last tribute to this faithful and kind-hearted mother and friend. The pallbearers were all old neighbors, namely, William Moore, David Hooper, Joseph Lawrence, John Scott, James Snell and Major Eccles.

Calderwood (Our Own Correspondent) Mrs. Theodore Schenk spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Kuhl near Clifford. A number from this vicinity spent a very pleasant time in Aytun on Friday evening with the Rev. Langloiz before his departure from Aytun. Road work is the order of the day. Mr. and Mrs. George Leibold spent Sunday in Aytun. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fischer on the arrival of a little boy.
