SMOOTHNESS and ENDURANCE never before known at the price

WITH its sound basic design and its background of scientific development on General Motors Proving Ground—with its production advantages provided by the vast facilities of General Motors with its score of engineering advancements, including the famous G-M-R cylinder head—

—Pontiac Six offers a combination of smooth six-cylinder performance and high-speed endurance, the equal of which is found in no other car in the world selling for so low a price.

Its smooth, silent performance, combined with the beauty and luxury of its Fisher bodies, provides a measure of owner satisfaction unequalled in its field. And its tremendous endurance results in unparalleled length of life, which in turn, is expressed in consistently high resale value.

More important reasons for the selection of any car have never been found. That's why ever-increasing thousands are choosing the Pontiac Six . . . why Pontiac sales for 1928 are far ahead of previous records.

Ask your dealer about the G.M.A.C. Deferred Payment Plan which makes buying easy.

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS OF CANADA, LIMITED

Mrs. M. Davis and daughter, Jennie and son Basil and Miss Gladys Firth spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Haws of Meaford.
Mr. and Mrs. R. McCrae visited early in the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edward.
Mrs. John Whitaker of Flint, Mrs. Robert McCrae and sons, are visiting at the Edwards' home this week. Mrs. Henry Moffat and Mrs. Cecil Moffat of Edge Hill visited with them at the same home on Tuesday afternoon.
Miss Clara Greenwood of Owen Sound had a brief visit with her parents the first of the week. Members of the family motored her back to the scenic city.
Mr. Vincent Morrison is visiting at his brother's, Mr. James Morrison's, before leaving for Germany where he will complete his studies.
Mrs. Victor Fairweather and son of Toronto are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook.
"Better than the best" could be said of Zion's garden party held on Thursday evening of last week. The August night was a perfect one. The crowd, a big one from village, town, city and countryside. They met and mingled in most genial mood. The tables were laid with finest of cookery and the local law is—help yourself; while attentive maidens deftly supplied the extras.
Mr. John A. Graham of town, being unable to attend the gathering to act as chairman, Reeve Bell of town most graciously consented and we've never heard him to a greater advantage as he was in wittest and most genial moods.
Music was supplied by Messrs. J. Teeter and J. Peart with Miss Margaret Greenwood as accompanist. The soloists are all noted for their gift of song. Those taking part were, Mrs. Mark Wilson of town, Mrs. J. E. Walker of Markdale and Mrs. R. McCrae (nee Rita Whitaker) of Toronto. Those widely known reciters, Misses Lily Black and Miss Katie May Firth had each most taking numbers and the crowd showed their appreciation. Miss A. C. Macphail made her first appearance at a Zion social function and gave a well-thought-out address on the efforts being put forth for World Peace.
After hearty votes of thanks was tendered the chairman, those who contributed to the program and the fair ones for their excellent supper, all joined in the National anthem and made merry for an hour or so.
Gate receipts were over $110 and the booth over $80.
The ball game between Edge and Waudby was a most enthusiastic one, the former winning.
The whole affair was a splendid success and the officials of the League are deeply grateful to all.

HYMENEAL

MARSHALL—McNALLY
On Thursday, August 2, a quiet marriage was solemnized at the Queen Street parsonage when Miss Irene McNally, daughter of Mr. J. McNally, was united in bonds of matrimony to Mr. William Marshall, both of Glenelg. The bride was becomingly attired in her travelling suit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Fiddes. The happy couple intend taking a trip through the Western Provinces in the near future after which they will reside in Durham.

LEWIS—MARSHALL

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Dromore Manse on Wednesday, August 8, at 11 p.m., when Miss Florence A. Marshall, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall, and Mr. William H. Lewis, son of the late Mr. George Lewis and Mrs. Lewis were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. F. J. Purnell.
The bride was most becomingly dressed in a cocoa brown crepe back satin with blonde shoes and stockings and wore the groom's gift, a rope of pearls. After the ceremony the young couple motored to Kitchener, Guelph and other points, the bride travelling in a open georgette dress with navy coat and sand hat.
On the following Friday evening a reception was tendered them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Carson when about 200 friends and relatives gathered together to wish them much joy. The beautiful and costly presents which they received go to show the high esteem in which they are held.

Those attending the reception from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. A. Phernborough, Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer and family, Mr. Christopher Smith, all from Kitchener, Mr. and Mrs. John Chesson and son John and Miss Margaret Lewis, from Guelph and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knisley from Chesley.
The young couple will commence home making on the groom's farm on concession 2, Normanby.

CROSKEN—CUSHNIE

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Thornhill Ave., Toronto, when Gladys Mildred only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cushnie was united in marriage by Rev. A. P. Addison to William Henry Crosken son of Mr. W. T. Crosken and the late Mrs. Crosken of Toronto. Under a canopy of white streamers and bells banked with pink and white carnations and ferns, the ceremony took place. The bride, who was given away by her father, entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin march played by her aunt, Miss Millie Cook of Geylon. She wore a simple frock of white silk lace with shoulder and corsage flowers, white roses edged with silver. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Her only attendant was Miss Maude Crosken, sister of the groom, who wore a powder blue georgette dress and hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and baby's breath. The groom was attended by his friend, Mr. Sydney Allard. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served from the diningroom, which was prettily decorated with white bells and streamers. Mrs. Page poured tea assisted by the bride's cousins, Rev. Dr. A. P. Addison proposed a toast to the bride, bridesmaid and parents. The groom's gift to the bride was a turquoise pendant, to the bridesmaid a ring, and to the organist, an umbrella. The groom's gift to the best man was a ring. Later the bride and groom left by motor for Montreal and other points, the bride travelling in a blue crepe de chine with lemon yellow crushed straw hat.

MCCALLUM—BOYD

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. H. Banks, Glenelg, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Victoria Maud Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Boyd of Leader, Sask., was married to Mr. Laverne Clinton McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCallum of Elmwood. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Crickington, pastor of the Mulock and Waudby Baptist churches. Following the ceremony and wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left on a honeymoon trip to the West, where they expect to remain for a couple of months, after which they will take up their residence in Detroit.

PRICEVILLE CHURCH CONCERT

The garden party and concert under the auspices of Priceville Presbyterian church, held on the school grounds in that village Wednesday night of last week, has been pronounced the best yet. From the standpoint of attendance all records were broken, and the excellent supper served from 6 to 8 o'clock was, if possible, better than on any former occasion. With a programme of softball, football, and horseshoe pitching in the early hours of the evening, the big crowd was well entertained until dark, when the concert programme commenced.
The concert this year, as last, was put on by the Brunswick Trio, and this excellent company of entertainers needs no commendation here.

ABERDEEN INSTITUTE HAD GOOD CONCERT

Fulp House Attended Benefit in Clarke's Schoolhouse Friday Evening—Proceeds Went to Durham Hospital.

The concert held in Clarke's schoolhouse north of Aberdeen last Friday night was well attended, when a lengthy, but very interesting programme was put on by local talent. The concert was under the auspices of the Aberdeen Women's Institute and the proceeds which would amount in the whole to around $40, went to the Durham Red Cross Hospital.
The first part of the entertainment consisted of readings by Miss Ada Chapman, Mrs. H. Hopkins, Archie McLean, Gordon McLean and Billie Davey, club-swinging by Miss E. Lamb, and organ instrumental by Miss Betty Watt, a humorous monologue by James Langrill, an instrumental by Miss Inez Twamley and Mrs. D. Lamb, violin instrumental by David Burns, and a five-minute talk by The Chronicle editor. There were also selections by the Edge Bros., and the Aberdeen orchestra which were very much enjoyed.
The next 45 minutes was spent in the presentation of a farce comedy. We failed to catch the name of it, but it was good and kept the crowd in a merry humor during the whole of its rendition and was a fitting climax to a very pleasant evening.

Miss Fletcher, the president of the institute, was in the chair and at the close announced that the door receipts were in the neighborhood of $35 which, with the sale of home-made candy, would be a nice contribution to help along the work of the local hospital.
Most of the suggestions on how the Minister of Highways can improve traffic conditions sound as though they came from the back seat.—Border Cities Star.
