

and their sorrows great are not up on we are down on.
 y motto some people seem is, "If something ain't right."
 e sermons were as broad are long we would all be t own any more than you
 l.
 eople grow with responsi-
 hers swell.
 eople are absolutely punc-ing late.
 re we possess the more we essed by our possessions.

Obituary

MISS IRENE DUNN

After a brief illness of only a few days, Irene, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunn, 302 Milverton Boulevard, Toronto, and formerly of Bentinck, died on Tuesday, the 21st inst., at Sutton Hospital, Sutton, and the funeral was held from the parental residence, interment being made in Norway cemetery. The services were attended by many friends and relatives, the deceased being sincerely mourned by all who knew her best.

The late Miss Dunn was about 30 years of age, and was well known in Bentinck Township, especially in the Mulock district. Besides her parents, she leaves six brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss, Wesley, in Honolulu in the U.S. army; Harry, Gordon, Harold, Leonard and Sidney, of Toronto; Miss Gertrude, at home and Mrs. Alex. Morton of Durham.

Amongst the beautiful floral offerings were those from: Mrs. Vine, Mrs. Hinks, and sisters May and Lillian, Messrs. T. E. and Miss L. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Turney and family, officers and members Queen City Chapter Ladies of Justice No. 5, Mr. and Mrs. Caley, Mrs. J. Weir, Mr. and Mrs. May, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. E. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Fetterly, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Bown and family, Miss E. Sanguins and the immediate family.

MRS. HARDY HARRISON

After an illness of something over a year from bowel trouble, Mrs. Hardy Harrison passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gordon Geddes, in Bentinck, on Wednesday of last week, and the funeral was held on Friday afternoon, interment being made in the McNeil cemetery at Priceville. Mrs. Harrison had come here from Detroit last March and underwent an operation and was a patient in Durham hospital for a time, subsequently being removed to the home of her sister, where she gradually sank until death ended her sufferings. From the first little of no hope was held out for her recovery, and her death, while deeply regretted by all, could not be said to have been unexpected.

The late Mrs. Harrison was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hooper of Glenelg and was 32 years of age. She was born in Glenelg on the homestead and with the exception of three years spent in Detroit, had been a lifelong resident of this neighborhood. Of a cheerful disposition, even through her past serious illness of several months, she was a favorite with a wide circle of friends, all of whom express regret for her death and sympathy for her sorrowing husband and young family of two daughters, as well as to parents and remaining brothers and sisters. Of a family of ten children, she is the first to pass on. The late Mrs. Harrison was married in December of 1916 to Mr. Hardy Harrison. After their marriage they lived on their farm on the 22nd of Egremont until three years ago, when they went to live in Detroit, where Mrs. Harrison was taken ill about a year ago. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Misses Eva and Lyla, to mourn her loss. She also leaves to mourn her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hooper, Glenelg, and five sisters and four brothers; Mrs. Gordon Geddes of Bentinck, at whose home she died; Mrs. Thomas Harrison and Mrs. Victor Adams in Egremont; Mrs. Thomas Bothwell of Islay, Alberta; and Miss Eva at home. The brothers are Messrs. Isaac and William Hooper in Egremont, and Joseph and Almer at the home in Glenelg.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon to the McNeil cemetery in Priceville, the service at the home and grave being conducted by Rev. Mr. Sullivan of Priceville, and Mr. McLean, student supply for Durham Presbyterian church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Tucker, H. Greenwood, W. Greenwood, P. Harrison, C. Harrison, and A. Hooper. The sorrow of the community was expressed by the numerous beautiful floral tributes laid on the casket by friends and relatives.

MRS. ROBERT TROTTER

Mrs. Zenus Clark received a telegram Wednesday afternoon of this week informing her of the death in Toronto of her sister, Mrs. Robert Trotter, nee Polly Abbott, who died that day very suddenly, presumably from stroke. There were no particulars of the cause of death in the message, but as the deceased had suffered a stroke last December and had contemplated visiting with Durham friends this summer, it is inferred by Mrs. Clark that her passing was the result of the recurrence of paralysis. The late Mrs. Trotter was 70 years of age and had been a resident of Toronto for the past 50 years or more.

She was born in Eramosa Township, where she grew to womanhood, and then removed to Toronto where she was married to the late Robert Trotter, who predeceased her by about 15 years. Mrs. Trotter was a frequent visitor here and was very well known by many of our older residents by whom she was held in the highest regard and who will regret to learn of her demise.

Surviving, besides Mrs. Clark, are one daughter and two sons, all married, and also two brothers, Messrs. Robert and Albert Abbott, the former living in Thessalon and the latter in Alberta.

The deceased was a member of the Brethren church, and interment is being made Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Bert Saunders of town, a niece, will attend the funeral.

THE LATE MISS A. McCALLUM

The funeral of the late Miss Annie McCallum, whose death was reported in these columns in our last issue, was held from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Barbara Austin, native of Ontario and Canadian prime donna, who in private life is known as Miss Gwladys Jones, was recently the guest of Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, Britain's war-time premier at his home in Churt, Surrey. The visit was a sequel to a previous meeting in Canada when Miss Jones sang with Dame Clara Butt at a mass meeting where Lloyd George was the speaker.

afternoon. There was a large attendance of sorrowing friends and relatives. The funeral service at the home and grave was taken by Malcolm McCallum, on Thursday the Rev. W. Spencer of the Baptist church, and was most impressive. The pall bearers were five cousins, Messrs. James and Dougald Smith of Chatham, John Clark of Owen Sound, Howard McCallum of Bentinck, Stanley Ledingham of Dornoch, and Hugh Thompson of Durham.

The casket was banked with beautiful floral offerings, among them being those from the Family Baptist church, B.Y.P.U., Durham Masonic Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Clark and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Catton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pust, Mr. Alf Redford and Eva, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leakey, Edith and Percy Willis and Vern Elvidge, Alma Hunt and Lila Werth, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. MacIntyre and family, Mr. Orel MacIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. George Huggill, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bohzener and family, Mr. and Mrs. McGirr, Miss Belle Ferguson, Mrs. Ed. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Roseborough, Miss Estella Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mervyn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Habermehl, Miss Amelia Blair, Mrs. James Ledingham.

One should always be appropriately dressed for dinner, but how, we ask, should one be dressed for blue-berry pie?—Galt Reporter.

Next to touring country roads in an automobile, there is nothing more dangerous just now than clapping a returned vacationist on the back.—Chicago Evening Post.

Marriage is a game of give and take. What you don't give, she takes.

Medicine Chest Necessities

First Aid Necessities which no Household Medicine Chest should be without. Also be sure to carry them on your camping trips.

GAUZE

Gauze that may be used for covering burns, cuts, etc. It has many other uses and may be purchased in 1 oz. and in 5 oz. packages.

LISTERINE

Listerine, a disinfectant no home should be without. Good for a mouth wash or any disinfecting, in three sizes, small, medium and large.

ASPIRIN

Aspirin, these tablets are excellent for Headache, and Neuralgia, etc. It is put up in pkgs. of 12 and 25 and in bottles of 50 & 100.

ADHESIVE TAPE

Adhesive Tape, useful for holding pads on cuts, etc., also for mending hot water bottles, rubber gloves, etc. 1/2", 1", 1 1/2" and wider.

VASELINE

Vaseline, a soothing remedy for sunburned skin, other burns, skin diseases, etc. in white or yellow, and large or small sizes.

COTTON

Absorbent Cotton, a perfectly sterile absorbent, useful to clean wounds and to apply iodine and disinfectants, etc., in 1, 2 and 4 oz. packages.

MacBeth's Drug Store

BAPTISMAL SERVICES HELD ON SUNDAY

Largo Crowd Gathered to Witness Second Service of Its Kind under Pastorate of H. H. Caswell, Apostle of Almee Sempie McPherson.

On Sunday last, August 26, another baptismal service was held at the river under the ministry of Rev. H. H. Caswell from Los Angeles Bible School, who has been conducting evangelical meetings for some weeks past and who has been instrumental in God's Hands of leading many to openly profess their faith, and be baptized in obedience to the Lord's command. Others have reconsecrated their lives to his service. Almost two thousand witnessed the service from the river's bank. This is the second service of this kind.

Four weeks ago, a service was held and eleven were baptized from the town and surrounding country, namely Elva Greenwood of Zion, Ruby Matthews of St. Paul's, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kellar and T. E. Byers from Knox Normanby, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vessie and John Caswell from the Rocky and Christine and Elsie Goodchild and Joe Davison from town.

At last Sunday's service ten were baptized: Mrs. Vessie Sr. and Mrs. McKechnie from the Rocky, Amanda Matthews of St. Paul's, James Langrill, Hutton Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chapman of Glenelg, Ruth Clark, Velma Dean and Mrs. Goodchild of town.

On Sunday evening the tent was crowded and many outside to hear Mr. Caswell speak on the signs of the times and he surely preaches the Word of God and the real old-time gospel.

A musical programme was also given, consisting of violin selections by Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Davison accompanied by the trombone and organ, a duet by Mrs. J. A. Greenwood and Mrs. Kellar, solo by Christine Goodchild and a duet by James Langrill and Joe Davison.—Com.

Traverston

The farmers are making strenuous efforts these days in garnering in the harvest.

Mrs. Quinsy and Mrs. Nelles of Caledonia spent a few days last week at Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. King and two daughters of Normanby spent Sunday at the Nelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Capt. J. F. Wright of Durham and Mr. William Firth of the States spent Thursday evening with Mrs. W. R. Firth.

Dr. Bert Cook and daughter, spent Friday with the Cook, McArthur and Edwards families.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lawrence of Egremont spent the first of the week with the Davis family.

Mrs. Geo. Peart and son Jim and Mrs. H. Beaton and two children and Mr. Fred Cooke spent the latter part of the week at Toronto Exhibition.

Mr. Keith Edwards of Detroit arrived home Tuesday evening to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cook of Detroit arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook and are in attendance at the Cook-Allen wedding in Chesley on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McClocklin, Mr. S. MacBeth, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Durham were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClocklin.

Miss Florence Ewen of Aberdeen is holidaying with her cousin, Miss Catherine Timmins.

Mrs. C. W. Rutledge of Markdale and Misses M. A. and E. E. Edge of Edge Hill spent last Friday at the Edwards homes.

Mrs. R. T. Edwards, Mina M. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards spent the first of the week with the Irwin family south of Lucknow. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tufts and sons Francis and Spencer Edwards of Detroit also spent the day at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tory and sons spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Timmins and family.

The Robson and Greenwood families attended the funeral of Mrs. Hardy Harrison last Friday.

Mr. Brock Grant of Welland and Miss Althea Grant of Toronto and Mr. Stanley Clark of Edmonton were recent visitors at the Robson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bryans of Varney were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryans.

Edge Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Orchard and son Orion of London visited at Mr. Joe McNally's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison and son of Owen Sound visited his brother, Mr. William Morrison.

Mr. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Sparling and Mr. Nolan of Owen Sound were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glencross.

Mrs. McCrae and two children and Mrs. Whittaker, Toronto, spent over the week-end with the Moffat family.

Mrs. Havens, Portland, Ore., and Mrs. J. Schutz, Durham, called on the Misses Edge one day last week.

Messrs. J. W., J. G. and W. G. Firth and Thomas Glencross motored to Hawkestone on Sunday. Miss Christine Anderson returned home with them.

The Misses Edge visited with Mr. R. T. Edwards, the first of the week.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the estate of Charles Cosens, late of the Town of Durham, in the County of Grey, Gentleman, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of Charles Cosens, late of the Town of Durham, Ontario, who died the Twenty-Sixth day of June, 1928, to send or deliver to the under mentioned Solicitor for the executors full particulars of their claims duly proved.

After such date the executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the estate, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice, and will not be liable for said assets to any persons of whose claim notice shall not have been received at the time of such distribution.

Dated at Durham this 18th day of August, 1928.

J. H. McQUARRIE, Durham.
(Solicitor for the Executors.)

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of James Ritchie, late of the Township of Glenelg in the County of Grey, Farmer, who died on or about the Fifth day of July, 1928, in the Township of Glenelg in the County of Grey, are hereby required to send to the undersigned Administrators, or their Solicitor, particulars of their claims, duly proved, on or before the 18th day of September, 1928, and after such date the estate will be distributed, having regard only to the claims of which notice shall then have been received.

Dated at Durham this 18th day of August, 1928.

MURRAY RITCHIE and HERBERT RITCHIE, administrators of estate of James Ritchie, by their Solicitor,
J. H. McQUARRIE,
Durham, Ont.

A Contented Cow gives more milk. Use Dr. Williams' Fly Oil on all your cows. It will pay for itself in increased milk yield. Only $1.25 per gal.

We have a LARGE SPRAYER with a glass fount for use with this oil. Each 75c.

We have a large stock of Harvest Tools, Binding Gloves, Pulleys, Machine Oil and Greases. Special attention given to Threshers' Supplies.

Let us quote you prices on your season's supplies

Cross & Sutherland Hardware Co.

PHONE No. 1 DURHAM, Ont.

st!

With Mason

at'll put Built for you the design group

our lead-tan calf; lift.

th Durham

Saturday Sales

Summer Clearance values:

ESSES

any time. low prices. 69c. to $2.98 $1.79

SE

rs 45c.

aki, a real $1.00

SOCKS

le, per pair 29c. s 39c.

WINGS

10c. 19c. 63c.

LIES

c.; quarts, $1.10 35c. 15c. 29c. er gal. 40c.

S LIMITED

COMING!

The English production you have been waiting for

Roses of Picardy

with John Stuart, Lillian Hall-Davis and Jameson Thomas to the

Veterans' Star Theatre

Three Days, Sept 6, 7, & 8

A challenge to the film goer to leave for a moment the conventional love romance of the screen and to study awhile the characters of a few unimportant people and the effects of war on them.

Also two reels of laughs in Wild and Wozy A JIMMY ADAMS COMEDY

One show only on Thursday and Friday nights, and two shows Saturday.

Admission 33c. + 2c. and 25c.