Death of Irene McLean

A deep gloom was cast over the village of Priceville and vicinity last Saturday evening when it became known that Irene Euphemia, daughter of Hector R. McLean and the late

Mary McLean had passed away at her father's residence north of Priceville at the age of 29 years, 2 months.

Although Irene had not enjoyed the best of health for a number of years it was not until the last few weeks that she became seriously ill and her early passing will be mourned by many intimate friends who admired her bright sunny disposition and received inspiration from her beautiful Christian character.

Irene was born in the village of Priceville and received her public school education in the village, later attending Durham High School from which she graduated. Her health, however, did not permit her following the teaching profession.

The funeral service conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Corry in the Presbyterian Hall, Tuesday afternoon was very largely attended and was very impressive and beautiful. Six girl friends of the deceased robed in white gowns acted as pall bearers. They were Mrs. D. McArthur, Mrs. Earl McLeod, Misses Annie Shortreed, Gladys Hincks, Mary McKinnon and Mary Carson. Six other girl friends acted as flower girls carrying the many beautiful floral offerings. The flower girls were Donalds Nichol, Alice Reiley, Rebecca Nichol, Sadie Carson, Erma McLean, Jessie Nichol.

Floral offerings were given by the family, Mr. Gordon McLean, Saskatchewan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ramage, Sunday school and Willing Helpers, Neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan and son Alex, Mr. and Mrs. I. Hooper, Dorothy and Eva Carson, Flora B. and Marjorie McLean, Colin H. McLean and family, Mrs. McLean, Durham, Mrs. H. Falkingham, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLean, Mrs. Ramsdell, New York, May Stewart, Mr. and

Mrs. R. McRae, Bridgeburg, McKinnon family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Reiley. The sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McLean, brothers, Gordon of Saskatchewan, and Gilvary of Durham and sister Jean of Priceville, also to the other bereaved relatives and friends who will always cherish the memory of her beautiful Christian life. "It is not death, what seems so is transition." "Blessed are they that do His commandments that they may enter in through the gates into the City."

A Cross Examiner

"I hear your son has taken up a profession, Mr. O'Casey," remarked the visitor to the host.

"He has, indeed," rejoined the host. "He's phwat they call a 'cross-examiner'."

"This was too much for the stranger.

"And what's a 'cross-examiner'?" he asked.

"For a minute or two Casey was at a loss, but eventually he pulled himself together.

"Sure, it's a fellow who asks you questions, an' you answer the questions, an' then he questions the answers," he returned easily.

A very bored Englishman, attended by his valet, was travelling from New York to California.

On the first day of the railway journey both were mildly interested, though critical. On the second both were restless. On the fourth they were faintly impressed but limp with weariness.

"So this is America, sir," said the valet. "Fancy their having made such a stir about Columbus discovering it. My word! I don't see how he could have avoided it!"—London Tit-Bits.

THE NEW COLORS

New names for various tints are found. Each week by enterprising drapers. These often have a pleasant sound; I read about them in the papers. Such words are legion—and then some. And yet the cry is still they come.

From Mexico to far Cathay. Are drawn the phrases they are using. And candor forces me to say. Who scarce have got upon the tracks. Of "nigger", "powder-blue" and "saxe."

How shall I sing of some fair maid, Recounting all her beauties duly. And telling of sweet eyes whose shade I possibly set down as "coolie". When they are really likely "ching". Or "nekkoo"—quite a different thing?

If I describe her "toltec" hair. In order to be in the fashion. Perchance I drive my love to fear. Her "Maya" locks in sudden passion. Yet, ere we learned this alien stuff Auburn and blue were good enough!

SCHOOLBOY STUFF

A deacon is the lowest kind of Christian. Marriage is a Sacrament where a priest unites a man and woman in fatal union. The Bible is against bigamy when it says no man can serve two masters. False doctrine is when a doctor gives wrong stuff to a man. America was discovered by the Spaniard. In 1658 the Pilgrims crossed the ocean, and this was known as Pilgrims' Progress. An appendix is a portion of a book, which nobody yet has discovered of any use. An ibex is where you look at the back of a book to find out anything you want. A grass widow is the wife of a vegetarian.

"MY TOWN"

R. W. Fisher, editor of the Walla Walla (Washington Union), says that most every town just happened at the start.

That growth depended on faith. That when a man has faith in his town he is proud of it.

That when a man is proud of his town he is proud of his community, his state, his nation.

That when he is proud of his town he will fight for it, just as he will fight for other things he considers as his.

That one of the biggest assets is the man who says it is "My Town". That when you get a whole group to look upon it as "My Town" you cannot stop the growth of that town, for other folks will want to cast their lots with a place of that sort.

The sooner it becomes "My Town" to all the people the sooner it will grow.

The best angle from which to approach any problem is the try angle. It never rains on the unjust if he can find an umbrella belonging to the just.
