The annual Christmas Tree in connection with the Sunday school will be held in the church on Saturday afternoon.

The U. F. W. O. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. McKechnie. The day was fine and there was a good crowd in attendance. The president, Mrs. Arthur Edge, was in the chair and opened the meeting with singing and repeating the Woman's Creed in unison. We had community singing with Mrs. Stewart McArthur presiding at the piano. The delegate, Mrs. L. McLean gave a report of the convention. After the usual routine of business was transacted the meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem, after which Mrs. McKechnie and helpers served lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Turnbull, on the second Friday in January.

Miss Jessie Ledingham, Durham, was a guest this week with Miss Corinne Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caswell were visitors the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webber.

The school concert will be held in the school on Thursday evening of this week. A good program has been prepared by the teacher and pupils. Lunch will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and family were visitors with the former's mother, Mrs. Hepburn, Durham.

We wish the Editor of the Chronicle and all the readers, a very merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Miss Annie Schaefer of Owen Sound spent the week-end with her mother who, we are sorry to say is not improving as fast as we would like her to.

Mr. Ed. Cook and Miss Kathleen F. spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crutchley.

The Separate School at Dornoch held their annual Christmas tree on Friday, December 14th, in the school. The programme consisted of recitations, songs and dialogues. Santa Claus and the teacher, Miss Margaret Vasey, distributed the presents and candies off the tree. Lunch was served by the ladies of the section. Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely and much credit must be given to teacher and pupils for their splendid evening's entertainment.

The Fuller brush travelr called on the people in the locality last week. Everything should be spick and span for Christmas now.

Mr. George Jones of Kitchener, accompanied by Mrs. George Hay, visited in Owen Sound over the week-end.

Latona Presbyterian church Sunday School will hold its annual Christmas tree on Saturday afternoon, December 22, at 2 p.m.

The Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry McCracken, Sullivan township on Wednesday last. This was one of the best meetings held this year as the attendance was 23, there being 19 members and 5 visitors. We had 3 new members join.

After the business part of the meeting was over several splendid papers were given and these were discussed. There was also community singing. Following this there was the usual exchange of Christmas presents. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Mrs. McCracken, assisted by Misses Vera and Florise served a very dainty lunch. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Miss Margaret McIntosh.

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. Lorne Allan's sale on Friday was a success. A very fine afternoon made everybody in good humor and bidding was good. Auctioneer Duncan put forth his best efforts.

Our school teacher, Miss Reta Barbour has extended invitations to the grown-ups of the section on Thursday afternoon to spend a couple of hours socially with teacher and pupils at the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawrence entertained a jolly party of friends and neighbors in their home on Friday night. The program consisted of music, dancing and games.

There is considerable sickness in this part of the country at present. It is something resembling the flu.

The Rev. Mr. Hayes announced a Christmas service to be held in St. Paul's church next Sunday afternoon. In fact his sermon last Sunday was bearing on the Christmas tide, when all turn for the time from selfish pursuits of the year and show the Christian spirit of thinking about making all mankind happy and giving of their bounty to that end.

The Egremont Council held the last meeting of the year on Saturday. At the conclusion they expressed their pleasure with the co-operation of the rate payers and officials in helping them to discharge their duties and their friendly relations with each other, also the pleasure it was to know that the taxes were so nearly all paid.

The telegram that announced the death of Mr. Robert Lennox of Elbow Sask., on December 16, aged 42, caused sadness in this neighborhood where he was born and spent some of his boyhood days. About thirty-eight years ago he moved with his parents, the late William and Alice Lennox, to Glenelg township, where he resided until going to the Prairie Provinces with his brother, William, some twenty-odd years ago, where they have made many friends and also much money. Two years ago he underwent an operation for internal trouble and although able to resume business for a few months afterwards, never fully recovered and a complication of diseases finally caused his removal to the spirit world. His brother, Joe, who resides on the old homestead here, reached Elbow in time for the funeral, on Sunday, December 9. Many old friends from Glenelg were in attendance.

Mr. Archie Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams spent a few days in Glenelg last week taking in the Fat Stock Show there.

Mr. Reginald Carter of England who has been staying at Mr. Alex Milne's for some time, left for Winnipeg last Thursday.

Mrs. William Hay, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. W. Thompson, of Ithica, U. S., are staying at Mrs. Hay's home here for some time.

Rev. F. G. Purnell and Irving Geddes motored to Toronto last week and made a couple of days' business visit there.

Miss Doris Purnell visited for a few days in Normanby last week.

The children are busy preparing for the School concert in Russell Hall on Friday night next and for the Sunday school Christmas Tree in the church on Monday night.

The W. M. S. of Amos church held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, 13th, at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Renwick. The Christmas spirit was emphasized in every part of the program of this meeting. Mrs. Hopkins took the study book "Work Among the Jews in Canada". A ladies quartette sang "Holy Night". The president, Mrs. Purnell gave an address "The Joy of Giving". During the business part of the meeting all the officers were re-elected.

Snow has come and gone again. The roads at first of week were almost impassable for trucks on the side lines. It looks as if the cream trucks could be stored now for another season.

The Executive of both the Men's and the Ladies' Bowling Clubs met on Friday evening at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Nelson McGuire. They purpose holding a banquet sometime later on in the winter.

A pleasant little gathering took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Ross, when a few ladies of the W. M. S. and Rev. Mr. Graham of the Presbyterian church met and presented Miss Ross with a Life Membership in the W. M. S. After the short ceremony, tea, sandwiches and cake were served by the visiting ladies. Owing to Miss Ross' illness, only the Executive of the Society were present.

Mrs. Arnill received word on Saturday that her mother, Mrs. Parr had passed away that day at her home in Toronto. Mrs. Parr had not been in good health but the end came as a shock to her family. Mr. and Mrs. Arnill motored down on Sunday morning. Interment was at Blackstock on Monday. This is the third death in the family inside two years, father, mother and brother. Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Arnill and family.
