Distance, so far as the Canadian Pacific is concerned appears to be measured no longer in miles. Time is the important factor and, at least in respect of package goods, the Canadian Atlantic and Pacific coasts are drawing closer each year. Here, Captain Brintnell is signing for Canadian Pacific express packages to be carried over the airway between Winnipeg and Calgary. For several months the Company has operated an air service between Rimouski, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto. The new link in the air chain was forged under auspices of Premier Bracken of Manitoba.

Traverston

(Our Own Correspondent)

Very few families have escaped having a dose of the flu and quite a number were seriously ill. However, all are recovering.

January usually puts on a thaw; but it's not often it is followed by such a furious blizzard as raged Sunday and Monday.

Since his father took ill, Master Murray Twamley, of Bentinck, has been renewing the youthful spirits of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin.

Misses Evelyn and Marcella Connor left for Toronto during the past week. After enjoying a most merry time at the Dunbar home, the Misses Eddy have returned to Chicago.

Miss Mollica Culliton of Toronto was a guest the past week at Mrs. William Arrowsmith's.

Mr. Walter Dunbar has returned to Toronto to resume his studies at St. Michael's College; Will Edwards to Varsity and Mr. Ed. Burke to his position in Detroit.

A wag has said "There is always some fun going on in the country, if one is only keen enough to discern it." This applies to the following incident.

Bill Dowds does in the city dwell, Henny is a Hespeler swell,
Who to the country came At Christmastide, to have a spree,
To see a pal take 3rd degree,
We dare not tell his name.

Next to the dance of the D. E., Where youths and maids whirled merrily
To two a.m. of morn:
Then, auto headed for the home All hearts were happy, friends had come,
And joy anew was born.

Yet o'er their spirits hung a dread, Ere they'd be safe at home in bed—
It was that swampy road—
For had they not been warned before,
That danger lurked there, all galore,
No matters what the load.

"O! hold her steady," Henny cried When he the danger spot espied;
"I'll do my best," said Bill.
At first, she gently southward curved Then, instant slid and over-swered
And gave them all the thrill.

'Twas full two miles the nags to get, Through mud and slush, it made them sweat;
Ere the old team was hitched;
The greenhorns had them wrong side on
And there was sure to be some fun
Where the Pontiac was ditched.

"Now, all is ready, let them go," But Barney thought 'twas time to show
That he was out for fun;
Over his mate, his head he threw,
But Jim is always staunch and true,
He fetched it on the run.

Now, as to class-rooms, they parade Smile and think of the escapade
Of that eventful trip.
Dowds to Henny doth slyly say,
"We'll go back there again, some day And into that swamp we'll slip.

News has just come to hand of a very happy union that took place on December 5th, 1928, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ellison, Loreburn, Sask., when the second youngest daughter, Miss Sarah, was united in marriage to Mr. Manley Wankel, a successful, young farmer of the same vicinity, Rev. L. A. Muttitt officiating. A bounteous feast followed the ceremony after which the young couple took the train for Victoria and Vancouver, to spend a month or more of the honeymoon tour.

A message has just been received of the very sudden death of Mr. Robert English of "Deer Park Farm", town-line Glenelg and Holland. He was seized with a paralytic stroke and never regained consciousness, passing away soon after. Mr. English was one of the earliest pioneer sons of that vicinity and knew all of its hardships.
"Glascott P. O." was held at the home and the deceased carried the mail from "Griffen's Corners" now Dornoch, to the home on horse back and sometimes on foot. He was a most tidy, progressive and successful farmer, as his buildings, home and farm would amplify. We do not know Mrs. English's maiden name; but of the marriage was born one son, Carter, on the homestead, and two daughters, Mrs. W. C. Ritchie of Zion City, and Mrs. Isaac Beatty on the adjoining farm. One brother, Richard, resides in Markdale.

Another beloved member of the same neighborhood, Mrs. Mary Vasey daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs.
Moran and sister of the Moran Bros., townline Glenelg and Holland, died on Sunday morning after an illness of some time, not being in very good health for some years. Three children survive, Joseph, millman at Lauriston, John on the homestead, and Flossie, Mrs. — of Toronto.

Rocky Saugeen
(Our Own Correspondent)
We are having a real cold snap at present which we hope will help to clear up the flu. Our school is closed at the present time on account of so many cases in the section.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vessie have taken up residence in Owen Sound.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laughlin, Waud-by, were New Year visitors at the home of Mr. Duncan McArthur.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCrie and family, Swift Current, were recent visitors with the former's aunt, Mrs.

J. W. McKechnie.

Master Sammy Hepburn, Chesley, spent a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. A. Symon.

Mrs. Eliza Tiffany is a visitor with her sister, Mrs. Jerry Allord at present.

Miss Belle Lauder, Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Lauder.

Mr. Norman Thompson is engaged with Mr. Alex. Fletcher.

The United Farm Women of Ontario monthly meeting at the home of Mrs.
Thomas Turnbull on Friday afternoon of this week has been cancelled.

McWilliams
(Our Own Correspondent)
Those fellows who have been predicting such a fine open winter will have a busy time these snappy days keeping their cars covered.

Mr. John McFarlane of Toronto is at present holidaying at home.

Mrs. Donald Watson is suffering from an attack of blood poisoning in her hand.

We regret that Mr. A. McCuaig is not recovering from his present illness as speedily as his many friends would like.

This neighborhood has had its share of the prevailing malady, la grippe, grip, flu, or whatever the deuce you might call it.

Mrs. D. A. Watson and son Norman have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. Alfred Watson was chore boy for Mr. James Brown for a few days while he was under the weather with the flu.

Messrs. E. Baxter and R. J. Matthews have been assisting Mr. Farr Lawrence with bush work.

Mrs. William Moore is at present under the doctor's care suffering from injuries received from a fall. Strange to say, one year ago on the same date she was unfortunate in meeting with a similar accident.

Messrs. T. J. Moore and H. Eckhardt have had radios installed recently.
