This Monday morning is very stormy and it will be hard to get out to vote.
Mr. William McMillan spent New Year at Mr. Frank Reilly's.
Mr. Jim McLeod, Tilbury, visited with Priceville friends recently.
Miss Lottie Whitaker of Flesheron spent the week-end at her home here.
The stormy week-end made the church attendance small on Sunday.
Mr. N. R. Shortreed, Manager of the Bank of Commerce, Keswick, returns to his duty the first of the week after being laid off for a month owing to his recent operation.
Mr. Ed. Wright spent the week-end at his home at Salem.
We welcome Mr. Cook and Miss Harret to our village.
Miss Anna Mary MacLean spent the week-end at her home.
Mrs. A. MacLachlan, we are glad to report is improved.
On New Year's eve the Priceville Presbyterian Young People's Guild entertained the Young People's Guild of the church who were home for the holidays. Rev. J. Corry presided and in a few words welcomed all to the entertainment. The following program was contributed: reading, Miss Esther McLean; music by Miss A. M. McLean and Mr. Innis McLean; reading by Miss Sadie Carson; skit "Sambo and Rastus" by Messrs. A. and C. Hincks; reading, Miss Beth Hincks; comic reading by Mr. W. McKenzie; song, Miss H. McVicar; Irish jokes, Mr. Neil-burt McKenzie; music, Miss A. M. McLean and Mr. Innis McLean; reading by Mrs. A. Hincks; reading, Mr. Murray Nichol. Lunch was served and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close. The next meeting of the Guild will be held on Wednesday evening, January 9th, when the election of officers for the year 1929 will take place.

The services at the Presbyterian Hall were poorly attended last Sabbath due to the inclement weather also the great amount of sickness in the community. There was no service at Swinton Park church last Sabbath owing to the great amount of sickness in the community and the weather being so blustery.
We regret to hear that Mrs. John Aldcorn is unable to be out of bed at time of writing.
Rev. J. Corry and family spent a very enjoyable afternoon on Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hincks. Afterwards the company had a sleigh ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. McLaughlin and spent the evening in a friendly visit.
Mrs. McLaughlin is not showing much sign of recovery. The whole community regrets her continued illness.
Mr. A. McCuaig, Sr., is confined to bed and is feeling very poorly at time of writing.
The watchnight service in McKinnon Hall was well attended, notwithstanding the great amount of sickness. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Corry who gave an address entitled "The handwriting on the wall." Everyone present enjoyed the service. There were over 70 present which goes to show that the good old days of the past when fathers and mothers gathered for a watchnight service are not past.
Rev. J. Corry went to Orangeville on Tuesday morning to attend meeting of Presbytery.

In motoring home from Toronto on Saturday evening, Rev. Mr. Graham was obliged to leave his car on the road near the highway a mile and a half from here and walk the rest of the way. The storm made the road impassible.
We extend sympathy to the parents, brothers and sister of the late Nelson Adams, who died Saturday of pneumonia following the flu. The grim reaper is no respecter of persons. Last week we made mention of an aged person, Mr. C. McKinnon, who passed away after a short illness. This week it is a bright young life that is taken.
Our councillors for Egremont all went in this year by acclamation except the reeve.

The contest was between John A. Ferguson and William Hunter. The latter was elected by a majority of 65. The Council for 1929 is as follows: Reeve, William Hunter; Deputy Reeve, James Mack; Councillors, W. J. Philp, Erwin Robb and Neil McEachern.

Mulock
(Our Own Correspondent)
Intended for last week.
S. S. No. 6 held their school concert on Friday afternoon and was well attended showing the interest of the section in the work of the pupils and their teacher. The school house was nicely decorated for the occasion. Mr. John McDonald was chosen by the pupils to act as chairman. The programme consisted of choruses, dialogues and recitations. At the close of the programme Santa Claus arrived and distributed the numerous gifts each pupil had to give a gift to the name they drew. The teacher also gave each pupil a useful gift, pencil box and pencils. The teacher was also remembered by her pupils with various gifts and a well worded address read by Erma Mighton and gifts presented by Albert Bieman showing the sentiments of love and respect the pupils had for their teacher.
Miss McQuarrie and pupils deserve the highest praise for their afternoon's entertainment. Lunch was served at the close.
Mrs. S. Vickers, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Derby of Hampden, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Green, Paisley, last week.
Miss Lolita Mighton, a student of Toronto business college and Mr. Gerald Brunt, student of McMaster University, Toronto, spent the holiday with their parents here.
Quite a number in this section are and have been laid up with the flu. Almost every day fresh victims are added to the great majority of sufferers until we wonder who will be fortunate enough to escape.
Mrs. William Brown was a welcome visitor in the neighborhood last week.
Mr. and Mrs. James Sumpton visited their many friends in this section over the holiday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Porter attended a euchre party and dance at Mr. Whitmore's Durham, New Year's night.
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. James Langrill and daughter, Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Allan and family, were New Year's visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spence Hopkins.
The Sunday School of the Baptist church held their annual Christmas concert on Christmas eve. The weather was ideal and a splendid crowd attended.
The different numbers on the programme were very interesting and well rendered, each child from the tiniest beginner to the adult classes taking part. The musical part of the programme consisted of 3 choruses by the school and solos by Mrs. J. P. MacLean and Miss Elsie Boyce. A humorous dialogue, "Waiting on the Train", by senior boys and girls was well given. The pantomime "Silent Night" by five young ladies showed the training given by Miss MacQuarrie, our public school teacher and was followed by the same girls with little Bernice Wise and Phyllis MacGregor in a tableau entitled "Christmas Star". An impressive Christmas pageant entitled "Bethlehem" at the close was well presented. Rev. H. Crickington, the pastor, was chairman of the evening and as well at the close gave 12 special prizes from himself for regular attendance, to the following: Edna Porter, James Porter, Bobbie Mighton, Gordon MacLean, John MacLean, Bessie Adlam, Ulva MacDonald, Loletta Mighton, Sarah MacLean and George Brown. Also five special prizes were given by Superintendent McDonald from the Sunday School to one boy or girl in each class for repeating by memory verses of scripture. These passages were chosen by the Pastor. Miss Nora Walker repeated 482 verses of scripture. Others who received this special prize were George Brown, Gordon MacLean, Erma Mighton, and Donald Walker. In all over 90 presents were given and a bag of candy with each. The Superintendent also treated the large gathering to candy sticks and thanked the teachers and officers of the Sunday school and the parents and children for their co-operation during the year and requested continued co-operation during 1929. All singing "God Save the King" closed a most enjoyable entertainment.

The regular meeting of the Y. P. U. was held Thursday evening. The meeting was under the leadership of Mr. Elton Adlam and Mrs. Sarah McLean. Meeting opened by singing of hymn and prayer by the pastor. The scripture lesson was read by Miss Nora Walker followed by the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Miss Lenora Reay. Miss Catherine MacLean gave a fine paper on "Great Things" which was much enjoyed, also an interesting reading by Mr. Clifford Adlam and a recitation by Master Gordon MacLean. The meeting was closed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. A contest was enjoyed at the close of the programme. Groups were formed and eight lines of poetry was made up by each group on any subject chosen. The captain of each group read the verses.

Swinton Park
(Our Own Correspondent)
We had our January thaw on Saturday night, but it soon caught a bad cold and was real wintry on Sunday and a lot of bare ground is showing up so sleighing is very poor.
The flu has been taking its usual rounds here and nearly every one in most of the families were down with it at once. Dr. Sneath of Dromore was a very busy man attending to the sick both day and night. The M. O. H. closed the Swinton Park school till Monday the 7th.
Today is election in Proton township and there will be a small vote cast as a good many people are on the sick list.
Miss Smith of Listowel returned to take charge of the school here, but the school is closed and she is on a holiday.
Mr. George Haw is very busy these days as he is the man that sees that the farmers are supplied with chop.

Mr. William Lane returned to his duties at Berkeley, having spent the last two weeks here attending to the farm duties for Mr. J. H. Richardson. Mrs. R. J. McNaulty spent last week visiting friends at Dromore.
Lorne McMurdo of Dromore was a holiday visitor at his grandfather's, Mr. R. Knox, and had an attack of the flu while there.
Mr. E. Ferguson of Toronto was a visitor here for a week. He has a big notion of starting farming again.

YOUR LITTLE WIFE
Who plans to make your future bright? Your little wife. Who cooks to tempt your appetite? Your little wife. Who tells her women friends that you are one grand husband through and through? Who's the best girl you ever knew? Your little wife. Who pats your cheeks when you get home? Your little wife. Who smooths the thin hair on your dome? Your little wife. Who looks at you, her brown eyes clear, and, snuggling to you, extra near, says: "This is pay day, isn't it, dear?" Your little wife.

A VERSATILE ENTERTAINER
In the three parts of her triple roll, Miss Lennox seemed equally at home, her deep contralto voice charming her audience in her vocal numbers, her piano selections showing exceptionally fine execution and expression, and her readings covering a wide range from grave to gay, from tenderness to tragedy.—Sudbury, Ont.
Miss Lennox appears in Durham Town Hall on Thursday, January 17, under auspices of Durham Women's Institute.

Four New Faces On 1929

Only Two of Last Year Returned in Monday Whitmore Headed the Stormy Day for Ball Only Fifty Percent Exercised Franchise

Monday's voting for Durham Council table year resulted in no new members being re-elected, this was quite a majority, as while it was there was every likelihood last year's councillors on the wayside, it was not the broom was to sweep old members into the dust.

Elections, like some are very funny. You can't times just how the axe and the vote Monday's result in a contest of the year's Council was what considered quite an around town little or heard against the nomination night had any bad things to say.

Evidently the people to have a few new ones object in view set out it was no issue this year, the paving of our front before the people and the big questions to determine, but to date we have who is openly against providing it can be done reasonably. Even with available at present, against paving. With which the contestants only solution for the people wanted a change.

A Stormy Day

Voting day for 1929 stormy a one as we All day long the storming up for a few minutes return with increased wonder is that such a polled at all.

Following is the list of contestants by wards six elected:

Whitmore, R. ...	50
Hunter, W. S. ...	54
McLean, P. J. ...	52
Stonehouse, B. ...	45
Noble, A. ...	46
Howell, C. ...	90
Noble, A. D. ...	45
Henderson, T. ...	31
McLean, R. ...	24
Murdock, H. ...	11

A curious result of that with the exception Noble, there is no rep the Council south of I and as Mr. Noble lives dividing line, the candidate, Murdock and R to have so split up the southern part of the town out.

But this kind of vote style on Monday and seemed to vote for the rather than for which opened to reside in.

The 1929 Council will Mayor—J. N. Murdock Reeve—A. Bell (accl.) Council—R. Whitmore P. J. McLean, B. Stone C. Howell.
