CHURCHES

QUEEN STREET SERVICES

The services in the Queen Street church, morning and evening, are to be taken next Sunday by the Rev. S. L. Houch of Toronto, a brother-in-law of Mr. Fiddes, the pastor, who is ill. Mr. Houch will also take the services at Zion in the afternoon.

ANGLICAN SOCIAL

Rev. and Mrs. Hayes entertained the Young People of the Anglican church Tuesday evening at the Rectory. Although the night was disagreeable and stormy, about thirty turned out. Games of different kinds were played and there was also a musical programme given. Mrs. Hayes served lunch.

HELD SNOWSHOE PARTY

The Auxiliary of Knox United church planned for a snowshoeing party Tuesday evening, but owing to the bad weather only about half a dozen went snowshoeing, while the rest of the number of about thirty-five remained in the church where they spent a pleasant evening playing games. Lunch was served when the snowshoeing party arrived back.

SWINTON PARK

Service next Sabbath at 2:30 when it is hoped that all will be back to normal and that the sickness will have passed away.

Rev. Corry made his way to Swinton on Sabbath but was unable to have a service owing to no one being able to be present.

The annual Congregational meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 30 at 2 o'clock. Everyone plan to be present at the meeting.

PRICEVILLE PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. J. Corry
"And He (Jesus) entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day." Luke 4:16.

Services next Sabbath at 11 o'clock and 7:30. Everyone invited. Sabbath school at 10 o'clock.

The annual congregational meeting will be held on Thursday, January 31, at 2 o'clock. Everyone interested in the welfare of the church should endeavor to be at the meeting.

The Willing Helpers will hold a "Parlor Social" at the manse next Friday evening the 25th, at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

We had fine services last Sabbath notwithstanding the weather conditions. Rev. J. Corry took for his subject in the morning, "The Cost of Discipleship" and in the evening "God's Care for His Children". The services were enjoyed by all present.

QUEEN STREET MISSION CIRCLE

Mrs. Rev. H. S. Fiddes entertained the Young Ladies' Mission Circle of Queen St. United church at the parsonage on Tuesday, January 8. The president, Mrs. Rees Padfield occupied the chair. The meeting opened with hymn 94, followed by prayer offered by Mrs. Rev. Fiddes. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Miss Mary Metcalfe; being correct it was voted that they be adopted. Mrs. Padfield read the Bible lesson, 2nd Corinthians, 8th chapter. The Devotional reading, taken from the 5th verse was read by Miss Eunice Moon. After hymn 284 was sung, Miss Etta Twamley gave a reading on "Not Yesterday, nor Tomorrow, but Today". Mrs. Fiddes had a splendid New Year message for the Circle. Consecrating our lives to Christ's service brings joy and peace to us and great happiness into foreign lands. Mrs. Bert Farrell and Miss Emily Smith sweetly sang "Jesus Calls us". Hymn 191 and repeating the mizpah in unison closed the meeting. January collection $7.60.

Refreshments and a social evening followed.

Treasurer's report for 1928:

Annual members' fees, 23 $ 11.50
Gifts by envelopes 99.50
Other sources 84.75

Total amount raised $195.75

Expenses 23.70

Total amount remitted $172.05

Allocation for 1928 was $135.00.

KNOX MISSION CIRCLE

Knox Mission Circle held their first meeting of the new year on Tuesday evening, January 15, in the schoolroom of the church, with an attendance of 19. The President, Miss Mary Brown was in the chair.

The meeting was opened by singing hymn 734 after which Miss Edith Hunter led in prayer. The scripture lesson, Romans 12: 1-10, was read by Miss Jean Grant. The first chapter of the study book, "Black Treasure", was given by Miss Jean Renwick. The meeting was closed in the usual way by repeating the Lord's prayer and class text in unison.

QUEEN ST. W. M. S.

The January meeting of Queen street W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. McCrae. Attendance was not large due to inclement weather, but there was a very fine program. The ladies face the new year with an optimistic outlook, encouraged by the success of the past year and feeling that interest in the work is increasing.

Leaders for the meetings for the year were appointed, also a committee to meet with the Knox ladies to arrange for the day of prayer.

Mrs. Hopkins invited the society to meet at her home in February.

Mrs. McCrae having made herself a life member was presented with a life membership certificate.

Mrs. Wolfe read the scripture lesson which was followed by a very fine devotional leaflet, "Stewardship is the Soul of Religion," read by Mrs. McCrae. The main item on the program was an intensive review of the annual report, which was interesting and very instructive. Those taking part in the devotional exercises were Mrs. McCrae, Mrs. Fiddes and Mrs. Wolfe. The meeting was closed by the consecration hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be."

B. Y. P. U. OFFICERS ELECTED

The annual meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held in the church last Monday night. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. Spencer, and Miss M. Moffet. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Pres., Miss E. Schaefer; 1st Vice-Pres., W. Erwin; 2nd Vice-Pres., Miss M. Beaton; 3rd Vice-Pres., Miss E. Moffet; Secy.-Treas., Miss Thelma Bell; Asst., Miss Ada Holmes; Organist, Miss Bell; Assistants, Miss E. Redford, Mrs. W. Thompson.

The reports from the committees showed a very satisfactory year's business. There was a very good attendance and Miss Schaefer, who was also the President last year, was highly commended for the work she had done in the interests of the society.

HELD VESTRY MEETING

The annual Vestry Meeting of Trinity church was held in the church on Monday evening. The various reports received showed that the Woman's Guild and the A. Y. P. A. were in a particularly flourishing condition, and that 1928 had been a good year. The meeting went into the matter of ways and means to raise funds for the various schemes of the church and it was resolved that this year there will be a canvass of the congregation to raise funds for the general and missionary funds. Considerable discussion took place that will doubtless be of much benefit during the coming year. The following officers were elected:

Wardens, J. Crutchley, F. Irwin; Lay Delegate to Synod, R. Burnett; Sidesmen, T. G. Hutton, P. Lawrence, E. Hutton, T. Tucker. Select Vestry, O. Hahn, F. Irwin, J. Schutz, E. Kress, R. Moorhead, J. Kelly, Secy.-Treas., O. Hahn.

HYMENEAL

ECCLES-AITKEN

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Saturday, January 19th, at 2:30 o'clock in the Presbyterian manse, Holstein, when Emma, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aitken, was united in marriage to Frank Eccles, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Eccles of Egremont. Rev. Gerard Graham officiated. The bride was attractively gowned in pale blue georgette with pearl trimmings and gold metallic embroidered hat to match. The attendants of the bride and groom were Miss Margaret Watson, cousin of the bride and Mr. Alex. Eccles, brother of the groom. Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Toronto. After their return they will take up residence in their new home on the 16th concession of Egremont.

VISITED HERE FROM WEST

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Tucker of Welwyn, Sask., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKechnie and family for two or three days the first of the week, and left yesterday morning for Toronto on their way to their home in the West. Mr. Tucker, who is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker, was born on the farm on the second of Egremont now owned by Mr. William Jacques. When but a lad, his family moved from this vicinity some 36 or 37 years ago and he has not since been here. He is on the staff of the Bank of Toronto at Welwyn and came East to attend a shareholders' meeting in Toronto. We were pleased to have a short call from him on Tuesday.

The teacher had explained to the class that the Indian women are called squaws. Then she asked what name was given to the children.
"Porpoises," came one eager answer.
But a little girl whose father bred pigeons called excitedly:
"Please, teacher, they're squaws."

MEETING APPARENTLY FAVORED PAVING

centre of the street to their own property, and any repairs or rebuilding of sidewalks would be extra.

The plan called for the construction of a 20-foot pavement with flush curbs and shoulders from the South street corner to approximately 145 feet south of Saddle street. From here there was to be a 46-foot pavement north to the south bank of the Saugeen river, then a 30-foot pavement across the bridge and up to the C. P. R. tracks, with a 28-foot pavement up the hill and on to the Durham Road corner.

The pavement was to be of 6-inch concrete base with asphalt top, with the exception of the hill, which would be of concrete and ribbed for easier navigation by horses.

In the 46-foot area there was to be a complete drainage system that would take care of all the surface water, and the sewer was to be deep enough to thoroughly drain all the cellars in the paved area. The balance of the pavement was to be properly drained with flush sewers, the whole to be taken care of by a sewer down the centre of the street which was to be so constructed that when the time came that Durham installed a proper sewage system there would be nothing to do but connect up with the stub sewers in front of each property.

The Basis of Cost

Mr. Proctor went into the different ways in which the pavement could be put down. If it were erected as a wholly municipal work the cost would be an extra tax rate of nine mills over the whole town. This, however, was a manner of laying pavement that had never yet been adopted by the Ontario towns. The proper manner in his opinion and the one generally used was under the local improvement plan.

Under this plan a certain percentage of the cost was levied on the general rate, the balance being paid for by those whose properties were effected under the frontage tax system. His firm had submitted a proposed schedule of charges as follows:

Those living adjacent to the 20-foot strip would have to pay frontage tax of 23c.; in the 46-foot area it would be 53c.; the 30-foot area 43c., and in the 28-foot area 36c. This meant that the owners of the property would pay a total of $27,650, while the rest of the town would pay through the general rate a total of $14,950. For the construction of the sewers, the property owners paid $7,800 and the town's general rate $4,900. The total increased taxation under this plan over the whole town would be 3 mills.

Should Commence Early

The speaker went into the matter of early construction and said that if the town was desirous of going ahead this year with the work and wanted it completed in early summer, say in the month of July, an early start should be made. There was no reason why the sewers could not be laid this winter. This would give the ground a chance to settle when the frost came out in the spring and was much ahead of waiting until the break-up of winter and attempting to get the completed work all finished up at once.

There was quite a lot of preliminary work to be done before any move could be made. The sewer plans would have to be taken up with the Provincial Health Department, the Government should be approached and the 50 per cent grant requested, the advertising of the proposed work would have to be inserted for three weeks, the bylaws prepared, and the contract let.

May Protest to Railway Board

Mr. Proctor was eminently fair in his address and explained everything to his audience. Should the Council decide to go ahead under the local improvement plan, there was still a chance for those opposed to state their case. If 50 per cent of the rate-payers in the area affected be opposed to the scheme they could petition the Railway Commission against the work being gone ahead with. The Commission would investigate and if they found the petitioners had a good case they might rule against it if they saw fit.

Frontage Tax Only Drawback

In the discussion of the paving scheme, which is quite a prominent topic of conversation just now, there has been very little opposition from any part of the town. During the time since the scheme has been introduced and talked of, The Chronicle has heard but very little argument against it.

Since the receipt of the engineers' plans, the main topic of discussion has centred around the method of paying for the work. At first glance many property owners on the front street favored a fairly stiff frontage tax. At the time this looked the proper method, but as the matter was gone into more fully other phases have arisen which make it imperative that this part of the scheme be given the fullest consideration.

A reasonably heavy frontage tax in the business section might work out all right, but along the whole front of the street there are many residents who own property with a large frontage and as the matter is more fully discussed, it is pretty generally admitted that the assessing of these properties on a heavy frontage tax basis would be a real hardship. Some private residences have frontages of upwards of 100 feet.

So far as the pulse of the people indicates, there are few who are not in favor of improving our front street, and if this work is to be gone ahead with there are even fewer who will not admit that a permanent pavement is the only solution. As the matter stands at present it is not a matter of whether or not a pavement shall be laid, but rather, on what basis it is to be paid for.

MOODY, DUNDALK, GREY'S NEW WARDEN

Elected Unanimously At Session of County Council Held Tuesday Evening.—Taylor and Lemke With-drew.

For the first time in 42 years the village of Dundalk is to have the honor of having the County Warden chosen from her representative at the County Council. There were but three nominees for the position, Reeves Lemke of Sullivan, and Taylor of Osprey, but both withdrew in favor of the Dundalk man, making his election to the exalted position unanimous.

Those who know Reeve Moody have no fears that he will efficiently perform his duties at the head of the Council table. We are not good at guessing but we would think Dundalk's representative is around 55 years of age. He has a pleasing manner, is well up in parliamentary procedure, mixes well, and should have little trouble in keeping the county fathers in their right places.

It is a good many years now since any urban municipality has had the honor of seeing her representative elected Warden, so Dundalk cannot be blamed for feeling a bit "het up" now that she has broken the ice.
