

Varney
 (Our Own Correspondent)
 Last winter the motors rattle all January and the weather was like a lamb; this winter it is like a lion. Sunday last was the first nice Sunday for some time and at church service the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed and a real good gathering was in attendance.
 Mr. James Leeson left Saturday last for Stratford where he will spend a few days.
 Mr. Richard Allan left Saturday to visit his wife's people at Palmerston and Kincardine.
 Mrs. John Kerr took a second relapse and is confined to bed again and had the doctor in attendance. Mrs. Andrew Marshall is attending her mother.
 Our mail man, Mr. Elsmere Rawn, didn't make his trip on Friday on account of bad roads.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Johnson from near Holstein attended our service on Sunday and also visited friends.
 Mrs. Hooper of Mount Forest came up Monday and is visiting her brother's home, Dr. G. M. Leeson.

Rocky Saugeen
 (Our Own Correspondent)
 We have had a very cold stormy January and will hope to have milder weather soon.
 Mr. Campbell McLean spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crutchley.
 Quite a number from here attended the hockey match in Durham on Tuesday night and report a splendid game.
 Mr. Dave Young, Waudby is engaged with Mr. Duncan McArthur at present.
 Mr. Willis, Teeswater, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. Thos. Reay.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caswell and family were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Caswell, Durham.
 Mrs. Neil Livingstone, Glascott, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. L. McLean.

Traverston
 (Our Own Correspondent)
 The young folks had great sport skating on the 5-acre, open-air rink three nights of last week.
 For several years, Mr. James Banks has delivered the wood for S.S. No. 5, and the quality has been first class. He anticipated the big storm of last week so had it all snugly housed in the school woodshed before it came. He received $4.84 per cord for same.

 Mr. Thos. Timmins & Sons are preparing to have their big stable raised and enlarged next summer and purpose putting a stone foundation under it.
 From 12:00 to 4:00 a.m. of last Friday, the storm raged here with violence, homes were shaken roughly, trees uprooted, barn-doors blown open or off and the roads badly drifted.
 He has quite a bit of Irish in him and during the storm of last week he was heard humming:
 "These storms are hard on crathurs On lovers and debaters, For they can't get saying what they want to say;
 So, here's to moon and sun rays, Quiet nights and brighter days, That love may grow and spouters show The density of their thick heads."
 Mr. George Street has sold the Traverston mills, consisting of grist mill, saw-mill, shingle outfit and planer, together with the 50-acre farm attached, with snug home and neat barn to Mr. Albert McNally of the 2nd concession for $6,000, possession to be given on March 1st. During the little over three years that he has been in possession, he has improved the property by a good stretch of concrete dam and by strict attention to business and obliging manner has built up a big trade. Many regret Mr. Street's removal, but Mr. McNally was born and reared in the neighborhood, is neat and tidy in all his work, has natural mechanical gifts and will prove a good successor. During the past week, Mr. John Ellison has purchased Mr. McNally's farm for something over $5000 and we won't be surprised if the purchase wouldn't cause wedding bells to ring.
 They say Yorkshire folk are shrewd. Mr. William Paylor sensed that fat cattle were in for a drop in price, so disposed of eleven head ere the tumble came.
 Rev. Mr. Hauch of Toronto ably filled Zion's pulpit on Sunday and gave a rousing, evangelistic address.
 Miss Gladys McFadden of Orange Valley is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook.
 Mrs. J. J. Peart received the sad news of the death of Mr. Robt. Hughes at Claresholm, Alta. from a stroke. The body is being brought home to be buried in Hanover cemetery.

A large number from this neighborhood attended the funeral of the late Mr. John Moffat, who was most highly esteemed throughout the township. His passing recalls his helpful spirit and highly dramatic gifts, during the years we taught in old No. 3.
 Quite a group of young people from this vicinity were out to the hockey match on Monday evening and getting a good time, but cold enough getting home.

CHURCHES

SWINTON PARK CHURCH
 Rev. J. Corry
 We had a fine service last Sabbath afternoon and hope that this may continue. Everyone invited to the service next Sabbath afternoon at 2:30 when we will be privileged to have as our preacher, Rev. S. Kerr, Belfast, Ireland.
 This will be a busy week as we have our congregational meetings in both churches. Wednesday at Swinton Park and Thursday at Pricerville, both meetings to commence at 2 o'clock.

PRICEVILLE PRESBYTERIAN
 Rev. J. Corry
 Services next Sabbath at 11 o'clock and 7:30 p.m., when the services will be conducted by Rev. S. Kerr, Belfast, Ireland. It is hoped we will have a large attendance.
 Sabbath school at 10 o'clock and Bible Class at the same hour.
 The services last Sabbath were well attended. Rev. J. Corry took for his topic in the morning "Heaven" which was most appropriate, owing to the death of Mrs. D. McLaughlin, a very much respected member of the congregation.
 In the evening the subject was "Curiosity Rewarded". Everyone present enjoyed the service and the music was up to its usual standard under the leadership of Annamary McLean.
 The parlor social arranged for last Friday was postponed but will take place next Friday evening at the manse. Admission 15 cents.

KNOX CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING
 Knox church held their annual meeting on Monday evening last. The Ladies' Aid Society had planned for a congregational supper and the basement was full of people to enjoy the good things and the fellowship. At 8 o'clock the regular meeting began with the minister, Rev. W. H. Smith in the chair. After a devotional service, Mr. H. C. McKechnie was elected secretary. A hearty vote of appreciation was passed to Mr. C. Ramage, who had filled this position for thirty years—a unique record. Reports of all the church organizations were received. Surpluses were shown in each. The Women's Missionary Societies, four in number, volunteered to accept an increased allocation of $75 and went beyond that by another $70, remitting to the Presbyterial Treasurer $745. The congregation also had agreed to exceed their allocation by $200 and did so, sending $1800 to the Church treasury.
 The total raised by the congregation for all purposes exceeded $6800 and the members are naturally pleased that all the reports are so satisfactory.

 Messrs. W. R. Alder, Thomas Young, W. J. Ritchie and Clarence Robinson were elected to the board of managers and John Aldred, a trustee for a term of three years. Messrs. R. M. Sparling and O. S. Hunter were elected auditors. There was discussion concerning certain improvements to be made to the church grounds and property and the Board of Managers were instructed to carry these out. Votes of appreciation to the choir and church officials were passed unanimously. The meeting closed with the benediction.

HELD ANNUAL MEETING
 The annual meeting of the trustees of Maplewood cemetery was held in the Varney Orange Hall on Wednesday evening of last week, the 23rd inst. Mr. J. W. Blyth was voted to the chair. After the general routine business was disposed of the principal subject under discussion was the improvements made in the cemetery and a decision to continue the annual work bee in June. There is every probability, however, that there will be a change made in the manner in which the work is to be carried on.
 The Trustees gave a good report of their work and the Auditors' report showed the books in good shape. The management comprises Messrs. J. J. Wilton, R. J. Eden and Palmer Patterson as Trustees, Gordon M. Grant, Secretary-Treasurer, and Bert Barber, gravedigger.

INSTALLED NEW CHAIRS
 Last week the McDonnell barber shop in the Hahn House had two new chairs of the latest design installed replacing the old fellows that had been in service for a good many years. The new installation will be a convenience to the barbers and customers alike, though the old ones served the purpose, and is a change that will be appreciated.
