

Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent)

Miss Marion Muir is spending a month visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Houston at Peterboro.

What wonderful etchings nature gives us these sparkling mornings when the frost laden trees, etc. are silhouetted against the grey sky and we tread the glittering diamonds on the snow beneath our feet. More pictures for memory's gallery, for "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

The Willing Helpers will have their monthly meeting on Friday 15th at 2:30 and the missionary meeting will be at 2:00 when Rev. Mr. Corry will give a missionary address. Lunch committee Mrs. W. J. MacMillan, Mrs. A. L. Hincks, Mrs. Colin MacLean, Miss Flora Campbell.

Miss Jean McLeod returned home from Flesherton after spending some time there.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McLeod spent Sunday at A. L. Hincks.

Miss Jean McLeod spent Sunday with her friend Miss Jessie Nichol.

Miss Pearl MacCuaig returned back to Pontiac, Mich., on Monday morning.

Glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacLean out on Sunday after an attack of the "flu".

Much sympathy is expressed for the MacCuaig family and all sorrowing friends and relatives in their sad bereavement.

The postponed Pie Social from last Wednesday night is to be held this day was fine, a good crowd was present and being given. Everybody welcome.

The three act play "The Little Clog-kopper" will be presented in the MacKinnon hall on Friday night, February 22nd. Admission, adults, 35c., and children 20c. Everybody welcome.

Miss Katie MacTaggart of Toronto is visiting with Priceville friends.

Miss Hilda MacKechnie has gone to Orangeville, where she has secured a position.

Mr. Sam MacDermid spent the week-end at his son's home in our burg.

Mr. Fred Karsedt spent a few days in Toronto the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramage were in Toronto the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl MacLeod spent Sunday at Andrew Hincks.

Mrs. Meechan and family spent the week-end in Woodbridge.

Mr. MacGillivray is spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr. Mark Teeter returned to his home here.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all the friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown, and the sympathy extended during the illness and at the death of our dear father, the late Archibald MacCuaig, and also for the many floral offerings.

The Family. Many will regret that General Booth appeared to the courts for a settlement of the issues involved in the action of the High Council. But at least the courts will settle the matter finally, and without prejudice.—Hamilton Herald.

C. B. LAWRENCE

AGENT FOR

Willys Overland Whippet

I have on hand one NEW FORD for quick sale.

What Spring Offers in Men's Clothes

Just Received Spring Samples from the Largest, One-Price, Made-to-Measure House Tip Top Tailors

A host of pleasing new stripes; a variety of agreeable spring colors pleasant to look at, smart to wear. There's quality, style and distinction in all the Tip Top Made-to-Measure Clothes.

Tip Top Tailors are the largest one-price tailoring organization in the world, buying direct from the mills and Scotland and having a coast-to-coast chain of Tip Top price stores and branches in the most centres in Canada.

Therefore—it stands to reason that smaller tailors without these great advantages cannot meet the Tip Top price of $24.00

FINE'S - - Durham "The Home of Good Clothes"

OBITUARY

THE LATE ARCHIBALD MACCUAIG

The funeral of the late Archibald MacCuaig, whose death was reported in our last issue, was held from his late home on the second concession, South of the Durham Road, Glenelg, last Thursday afternoon. There was a large attendance of old friends, former associates on the Council and neighbors, who gathered to pay a fitting tribute to one of the township's foremost residents who had spent so much of his time and talent in its advancement. The service was taken by the Rev. J. Corry, pastor of Priceville Presbyterian church, who took his text from II Samuel 3: 38, "A great man hath fallen this day in Israel," from which he delivered a most comforting and appropriate sermon. Two favorite hymns of the deceased, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and "Good Night" were sung during the service.

The pall bearers were eight nephews of the deceased, Messrs. Neil Macphail, Neil Clark, Archie Clark, Neil Calder, James Calder, Andrew Hincks, Earl MacLeod and Edgar MacLeod.

Floral tributes from friends and relatives were: "Gates Ajar" from the Family; sheaves, from Ida J. MacCuaig; the grand children; the Willing Helpers of Priceville Presbyterian church; Nurse Smith; Miss Orma Meuser, Hamilton; the Bible Class, Y. F. S. and Choir of Knox church, Tiverton; Mrs. K. MacKenzie, Mrs. A. E. H. Couch, Miss I. Paterson and Mrs. G. MacArthur, Tiverton; pillows, from Priceville Presbyterian church; Trustees, Pupils and Teachers of Tiverton Continuation School; wreaths from the Executive of the Grey & Bruce Mutual Fire Insurance Company; Mrs. J. Montgomery, Mrs. J. MacDonald, Miss M. Alexander and Miss B. Jousse, Tiverton.

Friends from a distance present at the funeral were: Mrs. Russell Baird and Miss Pearl MacCuaig, Pontiac, Mich.; Mr. Neil Macphail and Mrs. Robert Pierson, Toronto; Mr. Neil MacQueen and Miss Florence MacQueen, Stayner; Mr. Alex. MacCannel, Burgoyne; Mr. William Ruttle, Hanover.

WILLIAM CROWTHER

Mrs. R. Aljoe received word Saturday of the serious illness of her brother, Mr. William Crowther, at Owen Sound, and left immediately for his sickbed. On Monday Mr. Aljoe received word that he had passed away. The funeral is being held this Thursday afternoon at Greenwood cemetery, and Mr. Aljoe left yesterday afternoon to be in attendance.

The late Mr. Crowther was 70 years of age and had been ill for the past six months. Despite a visit to specialists in Toronto and the best medical treatment he failed to rally. He is survived by his wife, but no family, and also by one sister, Mrs. R. Aljoe of Durham, and two brothers, George and James Crowther at Holland Centre.

MISS M. A. CURTIS

After a short illness there passed away on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Yule, Guelph, Miss Mary Ann Curtis in her 82nd year. Miss Curtis was born in London but had lived for many years in Mount Forest and for the past four years had made her home with her niece, Mrs. J. L. Yule. She was possessed of a very quiet, retiring disposition and was held in highest esteem by all who knew her. Mrs. J. T. Skales, Mount Forest, and Mrs. J. S. Williams, of Toronto, are surviving sisters.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from the home of Mr. Wm. Pickering, Waterloo St., Mount Forest, the Rev. R. A. Facey of Wellington Street United Church, of which she was long a member, conducting the services. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Wm. Pickering and H. E. Yeomans, and four nephews: Dr. C. Pickering, Chas. Pickering, Arthur Pickering and Howard Skales.

Amongst those in attendance from out of town were Mrs. J. L. Yule, of Guelph; Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Pickering of Durham; Mr. Arthur Pickering, Windsor; and Mr. Charles Pickering, Toronto.—Mount Forest Confederate.

MRS. EDWIN EVANS

Mrs. Edwin Evans of Rochester, N. Y., and a native of Glenelg Township, passed away at her home in the United States city on Monday of this week, and interment will be made today.

The late Mrs. Evans, whose maiden name was Sarah A. McLellan, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLellan, and was born on the second concession North of the Durham Road, Glenelg, 65 years ago. She remained here until young womanhood when she went to Toronto for a time and subsequently to Rochester, where she married Mr. Evans, who survives, together with one son and one daughter, both married and living in Rochester. Mrs. Evans is also survived by three grandchildren, and by two brothers, A. B. McLellan in Durham, John A. in Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. George Finney in Acton.

The late Mrs. Evans had been ill the past four months from cancer. From the first it was seen that her trouble was serious and her brothers and sister made frequent journeys to her home during her last days to visit her. She was a woman held in high esteem and her passing at a comparatively early age is much to be regretted.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Harold McFadden of Creemore visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden, over the week-end. Mrs. James Hepburn spent the past week in Toronto. Miss Rita Bailey, Allan Park, and Mr. Harry Brigham, Toronto, spent over the week-end with Miss C. McFadden.

Mr. G. W. Bryan and bride, formerly Miss Murray, who were married last Saturday, spent over the week-end at the former's home here. They returned to their home at Listowel on Monday.

We had the pleasure Wednesday morning of this week of a call from Mr. C. Arthur Batson, barrister, Toronto, who was in town for the day on business. It is 30 years since Mr. Batson practised law here and since that time has been located at different places in the States and Canada, returning to Toronto a short time ago. Despite the fact that we had not seen him since 1897, when he walked into our sanctum and asked us to "guess" whom he was, we did so without a minute's falter. Mr. Batson had only a minute or two to spend with us, but a lot of ground was covered in that time answering his inquiries about Alex. McLaughlan, W. P. Paterson, J. P. Telford, and others of the old residents of his acquaintance of whose deaths he was not aware.

Soviet elections are in progress in Russia and will extend over a period of two months. In no other country would the voters stand for such punishment.—Detroit Free Press.

THE LAMPLIGHTER

There is a little poem by Robert Louis Stevenson in "The Child's Garden of Verse" which relates the ambition of a little lad to become the lamplighter of the village.

"But I, when I am grown, And can choose what I will do, Oh, Leerie, I'll go 'round at night And light the lamps with you."

It is just the prattling fancy of a child. Some of us wanted to be engineers and coachmen, conductors in uniforms and policemen. But something deeper than fancy is touched by the little boy who wanted to go 'round with Leerie and light the lamps at night.

The world is dark in many places. It needs to be set aglow with cheer. So many hearts need the rays of understanding; so many lives need the sunlight of kindness. It has been said "Let not your hearts be troubled." But sometimes, for a little while hearts are troubled. Even the home town seems a desolate place. It's a great thing to light the lamps for someone in the dark. We do not need a laboratory demonstration to prove that faith brings reward. Happiness comes again, and finally peace.

Shall we think, with the little chap who waited against the window pane: "When I can choose what I will do, Oh, Leerie, I'll go 'round at night And light the lamps with you."

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Grey & Bruce Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at the Head Office of the Company in the Town of Hanover, Friday, February 22, 1929, at 1 p.m., to receive reports, elect directors and transact general business.

—W. RUTTLE, Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM

Diegel—In loving memory of John Diegel, who passed away on February 16, 1927.

Faithful and honest in all his ways. Devoted and true to the end of his days.

A loving friend, gentle and kind. What a beautiful memory he has left behind.

—Sadly missed by daughters, Katie, Edith, Martha and Lavina.

Saunders—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Victoria Saunders, who passed quietly away February 9th, 1927.

There's a wanting sound in our daily rounds.

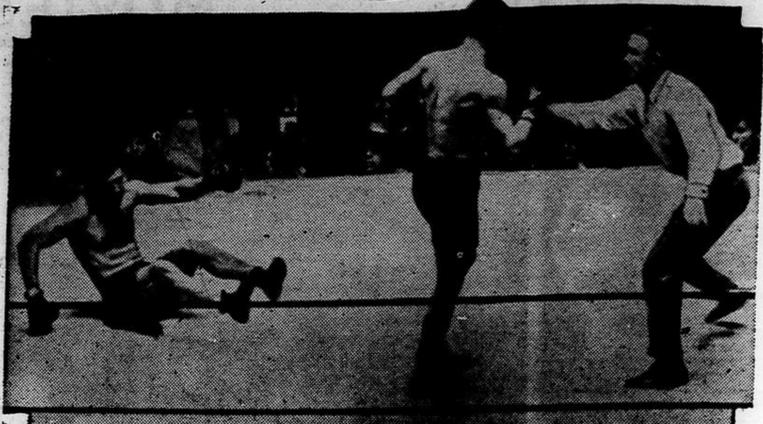

And our weary hearts are blue; Deep inter-wrought is a lonely thought, Lonely, dear mother, for you. For the days are gray since you went away.

We miss your voice and your smile; And we miss the laugh that lessened half

The burden of life's trial. It is not the tears at the graveside shed,

That tell how the heart is torn; But the passionate tears of the after years

And remembrance silently borne. —Sadly missed by Husband and Daughter.

German Heavyweight Wins by Technical Kaye! Sending Johnny Risko canvas-kissing three times in the seventh, eighth and ninth rounds, at Madison Square Garden, Max Schmeling, German heavyweight, scored a decisive technical knockout over his rival. The Referee stopped the battle in the ninth round. The photo shows Risko taking a count of nine in the ninth as Referee Donovan motions Schmeling to a neutral corner.

QUIT YOUR MEANNESS

Put the hammer in the locker; Hide the sounding board likewise; Anyone can be a knocker; Anyone can criticize; Cultivate a manner, winning Though it hurts your face to smile; And seems awkward in beginning Be a booster for a while.

Let the blacksmith do the pounding; That's the way he draws his pay; You don't get a cent for hounding Saint and sinner night and day. Just for solid satisfaction Drop a kind word in the slot, And I'll warrant you'll get action On your effort on the spot.

Kindness every time beats kicking; Mirth is better than a frown; Do not waste your time in picking Flaws with brothers who are down; And it isn't so distressing If you give the little boost To the man the fates are pressing When the chicks come home to roost.

Yes, the old world would be brighter If you'd kindle friendship's flame And thus make the trouble lighter Of the man against the game. Send your grouch on a vacation, Give your grumbling tones the shake And with grim determination Throw the hammer in the lake.

Perfect Substitute Employer: "Late again, Smith" Clerk: "I'm sorry, sir, but last night my wife presented me with a boy." Employer: "She'd have done better to present you with an alarm clock." Clerk: "I rather fancy she has, sir."

Perhaps, Ready to Serve The sweet young thing turned to the polite young man who was showing her through the factory and said, "What is that big thing over there?" "That is a locomotive boiler." "Why do they boil locomotives?" "To make the locomotive tender." And the polite young man continued to look straight ahead.

Monkey Business "Why are you divorcing your husband?" "Well, the other night he was reading the paper and I slipped up and kissed him on his bald spot—" "Yes?" "And he said 'Quit playing, honey, and get out those letters I dictated yesterday!'"

Sambo: "Yes, suh, business been fine. Mah wife done gib me ten dollars an' Ah bought a pig. Ah kept tradin' fo' ebberthing under de sun, till finally Ah gets a bicycle, and Ah sold it fo' ten dollars." Rastus: "But you-all doan' make any money." Sambo: "Co'se not. But look at de business Ah's been doin'!"

A Pullman porter was robbing the other day. Maybe there's something in Emerson's law of compensation, after all.—New York Telegram. Glasgow Herald.

CRISP COMMENT Man in New York claims he heard a radio program on an electric toaster. At noon his wife boiled the kettle on the radio.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

The suggestion has been made that two feet be cut off sidewalks to make it easier for motorists. It might save a few feet for the pedestrians.—Ottawa Journal.

The suggestion that "two or three weeks is long enough courtship" at least puts it more in reach of the young fellow's pocketbook.—Kingston Whig-Standard.

Quebec teachers are asking for the establishment of bilingual currency. Most people are not particular so long as they get enough of the present issue.—Peterboro Examiner.

Frequently a man who starts in by paying compliments ends up by paying alimony.—Montreal Star.

But what it Englishmen should ask Home Rule from Scotsmen.—Ottawa Journal.

A good time doesn't always depend on the price you pay for it.—Brandon Sun.

Money talks but none of us would believe the old dollar if it started telling us what it used to buy.—Boston Manuscript.

The first robin of the season has been sighted. And today we spotted a tourist with golf knickers.—Toronto Financial Post.

Canada has a car for every ten people. That gives every driver a chance to get nine pedestrians.—Melbourne Mirror.

Generally speaking, a gentleman is a person who waits until you are all through and had your laugh before telling you that he has heard the story.

SPRING SEWING advertisement featuring an illustration of a woman sewing and listing various fabric materials like prints, gingham, and poplinettes.

Dr. Hess' Improved Stock Tonic advertisement with a large illustration of a pig and text describing the benefits of the tonic for hogs.

A. S. HUNTER & CO. Hardware and Seeds advertisement.

Durham Institute Had Good

Good Papers Given by and Mrs. McIlraith Meeting on Thursday

The Durham Women at the home of Mrs. C. Thursday of last week... The previous meeting were number of letters of a shut-ins, who receive Christmas cheer. The Institute for their.

Quite a number of were dealt with and pointed to look after which is being held dollars was voted toward Welsh miners.

After the business a song from The Institute was sung by Mrs. McIlraith was for her paper "The keeper", bringing out and showing how much work is now than in a time when pine flog scrubbed last thing of after the family had were a delight to the housewife has her lineoleum and rugs and convenience household drudgery it used to be paper stated that to roughly all the details is to understand the foundation of all fort and well-being. When we think of the kitchen no longer a drudgery but upon the management of the home largely depends.

It was a splendidly heartily applauded success.

Mrs. Glass read "Institute activities in and that Queen Marjorie in Institute a regular attendant at all meetings. Mrs. the audience with a splendid paper "Supper Dishes", telling ways to cook left-to-date ways of cooking take too much space. Mrs. Harding gave quite a number of recipes which sound ought to prove very useful. She was warmly audience for her work.

Another song, "I Get Acquainted", another very success close.

The hostess and tasty lunch and a very much enjoyed.

DURHAM CLUB EUCHR

Over One Hundred... Toronto, Last F... Social Evening... Enjoyed.

Last Friday night in Toronto, ence of Dr. and Roxborough street hundred former gathered at their. It is really a most pleasant time and that these meetings are look anticipation.

Friday's meeting the ordinary, and work meeting a spent in euchr.

Toronto is an org ham boys and girls who meet monthly work for the up Hospital here. We tion to say officially that this assistance to the past, and fro of even more as It might even be right here in a leaf out of their ity work.

Since the hos have been in of linen, money that the town about. The D asset and from about their votatious manner many, many re faintly acquaint their benefice

Following F was attended Matron, and M ter was present $85.00 to the purchase of a During the were given by Jamieson and a feature of large number now resident been away in many years.

the younger who, despite in the place was first org pital and the en that it w past; as tim increases at waves. To wish is "Lat