SOCIAL EVENING BY R. Y. P. U.

The Baptist Young People's Union held a social evening for the members of the Union and congregation last Monday evening, when a most enjoyable evening was spent at which all seemed to enjoy themselves. It was announced that those desiring to take full part in the evening's festivities should attend dressed in old-time costume and as a result many of the now antique wearing apparel of thirty years ago was resurrected from the attic, gave the gathering a most medieval appearance, and added to the hilarity of the occasion.

The meeting opened with a hymn and prayer, and was in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. Spencer, who performed his duties in his usual offhand manner, setting the audience and performers at ease. There were duets by Misses Clara Thompson and Susie Bell, and by Miss E. Redford and Mrs. W. Thompson. Mrs. J. G. Gilles gave a solo, Miss E. Schaefer a couple of readings, and Mr. Percy Lueck a couple of violin selections. Short addresses were given by Reeve Bell and the chairman.

During the evening the editor of The Chronicle was called on and gave a half-hour's talk on "Early Durham," dealing principally with the founding of the town, the opening up of this section of Ontario, and the municipal progress during the past eighty-odd years. The singing of the National Anthem and the serving of refreshments brought a most pleasant evening to a close.

PRESBYTERIAN W. M. S.

The Durham Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder on Friday, February 22. Mrs. (Rev.) Armstrong presided and the meeting was opened with Hymn 469. Mrs. S. Patterson read the scripture lesson from Romans vi. Business and correspondence was dealt with and prayers offered for the missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Goforth, and those in China where the plague is spreading. Hymn 553 was sung. Mrs. Hepburn read the chapter on "The Royal Road", dealing with the Jews in Canada. Mrs. Armstrong, Sr. read a paper on "The New Canadian". Hymn 582 was sung and the meeting closed by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

QUEEN STREET W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. of Queen Street church was held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Hopkins. Mrs. McCrae, the President, presided.

There was a good attendance and several new members joined the society.

The opening exercises were the singing of the Doxology followed by the hymn "How Sweet The Name of Jesus Sounds". The Scripture lesson was Psalm 23 and all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

After the business part of the meeting Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Farrell sang very effectively "He Will Hide Me".

The devotional leaflet entitled "Partnership" was read by Mrs. R. Smith. The chapter of the study book, "Drums in the Darkness" were very well prepared by Mrs. Fiddes and Mrs. Knechtel. The story of conditions in Africa as presented by these chapters comes as a clarion call to intensive effort to do what we can today for "the night coming when no man can labor". Those offering prayer were Mrs. McCrae and Mrs. Groves.

The meeting was closed by singing "The Morning Light is Breaking".

PRICEVILLE PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. J. Corry, Minister Services next Sabbath at 11 o'clock and 7:30 p.m. Sabbath School at 10 o'clock. Bible Class same hour. Everyone invited.

SWINTON PARK CHURCH

HAD SNOWSHOE HIKE

The A.Y.P.A. of Trinity church held a snowshoe party on Monday evening of this week. After a tramp of three or four miles they returned to the Guild rooms where all enjoyed lunch, after which a social hour was spent.

HELD CROKINOLE PARTY

The Allan Park U. F. O. Club held a successful crokinole party last Friday night at the Ebenezer school. There was a good crowd present and an excellent evening of fun enjoyed. The ladies' prize was won by Miss Annie Turnbull, while that for the gentlemen was captured by Mr. John Coutts. Lunch was served at the close.

HELD TEA LAST WEEK

Trinity church Woman's Guild held a tea in their new rooms above J. & J. Hunter's store on Thursday afternoon of last week. This was their opening meeting for the year. There was a good attendance. The Guild intends holding a monthly home-made baking sale, the same as last year, on the first Saturday of each month.

KNOX W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of Knox United church met in the schoolroom on Thursday, February 21, with Mrs. Mather presiding. The meeting opened with hymn 457 followed by the 23rd Psalm in unison. Several items of business were discussed and the visitors' report, a very good one, was given. Mrs. Bell read a letter from Mrs. W. R. Alder, the Presbyterian Secretary of Finance, congratulating the society on its successful year and trusting that the year 1929 would show even greater progress. The roll call was answered with a text on "rest". Hymn 582 was sung, after which Mrs. R. B. Ledingham read the Bible lesson and the devotional leaflet, "Partnership" was taken by Mrs. Thos. McGirr. Several members led in prayer and Mrs. Thos. Young gave a very interesting outline of the study subject from "Drums in the Darkness". Mrs. Young took chapters 5 and 6, the latter part dealing with the days of development of our African missions in Angola. Hymn 386 was sung and Mrs. McGirr closed the meeting with prayer.

KNOX Y. W. A.

The Knox Young Woman's Auxiliary was entertained at the home of Miss Florabel Nichol for their monthly social and work meeting on Monday evening, February 25th. The evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse and working on the quilts. At the close of the meeting lunch was served by the hostess.

Clothing As An Investment

Did you ever stop to think that buying a suit is like an investment?

Inferior clothes are an expense—but Dresswell Smart Hand Tailored to Measure clothes bring returns to the investor—not directly in dollars, but in something that money does not buy:

- Comfort and service.
- Feeling of being well dressed.
- Economy—in length of real service.
- Clothes satisfaction.

We cater to men who buy clothes with those 'Profits' in mind.

Such men look into the quality of clothes before making the purchase, and naturally turn to the newspaper for investigation as well as to the man who sells them.
