

At Home Come in & Chat Awhile

—Ruth Raeburn.

Dear Pauline:

Here are some more hot supper dishes sent to me by "Canadienne" of Niagara Falls, which I think you will enjoy making and the family will enjoy the results of your labor.

Tomatoes and Eggs

Basic recipe—3 eggs, one-half cup milk, one-half cup tomatoes thickened with two tablespoons flour, salt and pepper. Tomatoes to be cooked and thickened.

Tomato Omelette.—Separate eggs and beat the whites stiff, mix yolks, milk and thickened tomato, and seasonings. Add this mixture to egg-whites, and pour immediately into frying pan which is hot and in which one and one-half tablespoons butter has melted. Cook as ordinary omelette and serve immediately.

Tomato Scramble.—Melt one and one-half tablespoons of butter in frying pan; break eggs into frying pan and stir quickly with a knife until they begin to cook. Have ready the milk, tomato and seasoning mixed well, and pour over the eggs and continue stirring until consistency of scrambled eggs. Serve hot on toast.

Tomato scramble.—Melt one and one-half tablespoons of butter in frying pan. Beat together eggs, milk, thickened tomato and seasoning. Pour mixture into hot pan and stir until consistency of thick cream. Serve hot on toast.

Eggs in Potato Nests
Mash potatoes, and as soon as they are cool enough to handle take up large spoonful and make into a ball. With the bowl of the spoon make a depression in each ball to resemble a nest. Put the potato nests on a buttered dish and bake until hot. Then remove from oven and break an egg into each hollow. Season with salt, pepper and butter, or a tablespoon of cream instead of butter, and return to oven long enough to cook eggs. Pour around the nests creamed peas or creamed carrots or asparagus.

Japanese Jumble
One and one-half cups cooked rice, one and one-half cups ground fresh beef, one can tomato soup, three small green onions, one tablespoon butter, salt, pepper, bread crumbs and grated cheese.

Place the butter in a frying pan and brown the onions, which are minced in it, being careful not to burn them. Then put in the ground beef and brown it well. Then add the rice, tomatoes, salt and pepper and mix well. Place in a buttered baking dish, cover with crumbs and cheese and bake 25 minutes in a hot oven. Serve at once.

Vegetable Pie
Take any two or three left over vegetables to the amount of about a pint, and put in the bottom of a deep pudding dish. Add three tablespoons of hot water, a small piece of butter or left over gravy. Put over the vegetables a crust of mashed potatoes three or four inches in depth. Bake until thoroughly heated and browned on top.

Tomato and Tapioca Combination
Three tablespoons minute tapioca, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 1 1/2 cups tomatoes, 6 slices bread, 6 slices cheese, 6 slices bacon.

Cook tapioca and tomatoes in double boiler 15 minutes, stirring often; add seasoning, arrange bread slices in baking pan, put on cheese, then generous spoonful tomato, then slice bacon; bake in oven till crisp.

Potato Cakes
2 cups flour sifted with 3 teaspoons baking powder and 1 teaspoon salt. Five medium sized potatoes well mashed. Add to other ingredients. When well mixed add enough sweet milk to make a dough that will roll out to about 3-4 inch thickness, bake in a hot oven or bake on hot griddle on top of stove. Serve hot.

MOVIES

"THE CRASH" A POWERFUL AND DRAMATIC RAILROAD PICTURE

Milton Sills at His Best in Film Version of Story by Frank L. Packard

All the power, the pathos and the dramatic events that have made railroad building and railroad operation in out of the way places one of the most colorful episodes in the progress of this country, is vividly depicted in "The Crash", coming to the Star Theatre this Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16.

The picture was adapted from Frank L. Packard's magazine story "The Wrecking Boss" and tells how the soubrette of a struggling burlesque troupe marries and tries to make a home for the boss of the wrecking crew. They have nothing in common except their love for each other. The girl has been used to the free and easy ways of the travelling show. The man knows nothing of women except what he learned as a boy. A wonderful situation and every advantage of it has been taken in unfolding the picture.

Edward Cline directed and the human touches for which he has such genius are present in "The Crash". Thelma Todd as the show girl is perfect. Her blond beauty and histrionic talent do much toward making the picture outstanding. Others in the cast who deserve mention are William Demarest, Yola d'Avril, Wade Boteler, Sylvia Ashton and Fred Warren.

"EXCESS BAGGAGE" GETS ITS TITLE FROM VAUDEVILLE

Applied to Actors Who Travel With Troupe and Do Nothing.

"Excess Baggage" said William Haines, "is a lot of extra luggage that you carry with you and pay for but never get a chance to use."

Thus the star defined his idea of the meaning of his new starring picture of that name, which comes to the Star Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

According to John McGowan, the author of the stage play from which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer adapted the movie production, the term was originally derived from the baggage offices of the railway companies who were accustomed to charge an extra fee for transporting all luggage weighing over 75 pounds per ticket.

As all theatrical people have heavy luggage, they naturally often paid extra fare for the transportation of their belongings. Hence their familiarity with the term.

As used in vaudeville today, "Excess Baggage" means so much "dead weight". In other words a person carried in an act who contributes nothing or practically nothing to its success.

So Haines in the beginning of the picture is thought by his wife, Josephine Dunn, to believe her to be "Excess Baggage". Later on after she has won success on the screen, he has the same idea when he believes that he is so much "Excess Baggage" as far as her career is concerned.

James Cruze directed the screen production while the cast includes Ricardo Cortez, Kathleen Clifford, Greta Granstedt, Neely Edwards and others.

bright star dies out, while horrid forces threaten our souls in dismal rout. For Time is but a rascal who cheats us, soon or late; yet here's to him, youth's raptures for all can compensate!

"She's Done Gone"

A salesman bringing his bride South on their honeymoon visited a hotel

where he boasted of the fine honey. "Sambo," he asked the colored waiter, "where's my honey?" "Ah don't know, boss," replied Sambo, eyeing the lady cautiously. "She don't wuk here no mo'."

The Race Question

"Is this the hosliery department?" asked the voice over the phone. "Yes,"

"Well, have you any flesh-colored stockings?" "Plenty of them," answered the weary saleswoman; "waddya want—pink, yellow or black?"

Teacher: "Why is English called the mother tongue?" Tommie—"Cause father never gets a chance to use it."

The Rhyming Optimist

The Dancer

Whirling,
Twirling,
Over the stage she goes,
Lightly as bees
Drift on the breeze,
Seeking the crimson rose.

Leaping,
Keeping,
Time to the music's flow,
Thus flame lifts,
Thus a leaf drifts,
Thus does a cloud-ship go.

Dancing,
Prancing
Still to the music's beat;
Snowflakes fall so
Lighter than snow
Patter the dancer's feet.

Dreaming,
Seeming
One with the shadows there,
Then floating on . . .
Ah! She has gone,
Drifting away on air!

A Toast to Time

Oh, here's to Time, the rascal, who cheats us, one and all, who will not lag nor linger for any monarch's call. In youth he lures us onward with hints of joys to be, of realms as yet unconquered, of days serene and free. His promises are golden, fresh sweets from day to day; we see bright visions beckon in endless fair array. And so we gaily follow through happy year on year, till Time, the rascal, leads us, down paths of doubt and fear; down ways where shadows gather and hope's
