Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent)

The atmosphere has changed considerably again to what it was last week. It has been very cold and stormy the past few days, but is quite mild and spring like again.

On the evening of February 18 about twenty girl friends of Miss Jean MacLachlan met at her home to bid her farewell before going to her new home at Woodbridge. The following address was read by Miss Jean MacLachlan: An onyx ring was presented to her by Miss Kathleen MacPhail. Miss Jean replied to the presentation, thanking all for their kindness and expressed her regret in parting with her many friends.

Dear Jean: We, your school chums and friends, take this opportunity to bid you good-bye and wish you all happiness in your new home with Mrs. Meecham. We will greatly miss you and feel that your going is a broken link in our chain of friendship. But we hope that you will write us often, and that you will come to Priceville when you celebrate a holiday. As a very small token of our love and appreciation of your friendly and cheery fellowship, Jean, we would ask your acceptance of this gift and with best wishes for your success in all your undertakings.—Your Chums at Priceville. Misses Olive McMeekin and Jessie Nichol spent a couple of days visiting their friends, Mrs. Arthur Richardson of Swinton Park. A sleighload of our youth and beauty went to the dance on Friday night at Mrs. Bertha McDougalls in Egremont. They must have had a good time for they did not return till the next morning. The Willing Helpers and Missionary Society will meet in the hall on Friday p.m., March 15th, when all are cordially invited to attend. The lunch committee are Mrs. Corry, and Misses Erma MacLean, Olive McMeekin, and Jessie Nichol.

There were only a few who braved it out to the Park social on Friday last on account of the storm, but it is to be held this Wednesday night at Mrs. John Nichol's when we are all planning for a big time and are hoping we have a good night. Miss Louisa Watson was made the recipient of a fine silver tea service by the United Church of Beeton as recognition of her valuable services in church, choir and Sunday school. On her recent resignation after nine years of successful teaching in the continuation school there. The address is too lengthy for this week's budget, but says in part: "During the number of years you have spent with us, we have learned to appreciate your faithful services, your interests, and your assistance, cheerfully and ungrudgingly given, your willingness to help has been an incentive to others to do their best. We shall always remember your kind and gentle disposition, your patience and endurance, your faithful attendance and untiring energy, in your noble efforts to assist us in all our church organizations and the magnetic influence of your character, moral and intellectually. We are glad to know that Mrs. D.

Sinclair is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, but is still in bed and quite weak. His sister, Mrs. Jack Gilbert of Toronto and niece, Miss Lavina Konold are with her. Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Stonehouse visited Sunday at Mrs. Sinclair's. Many of the Priceville people were sorry to hear that Mrs. Runniman Sr. took a paralytic stroke last week. Mr. Alfred Hincks has been appointed the superintendent of the Presbyterian Sabbath school and we wish him all success. Mrs. John McRae visited Monday at Mr. Angus McLachlan's. Miss Mary McEachern has been suffering with neuralgia in her face. We hope she may soon be better again.

Crawford

(Our Own Correspondent)

Miss Esther Petty was the guest of Mrs. Andrew Hastie over the week-end. Mrs. Andrew Hastie spent an enjoyable visit last week with her sister, Mrs. Mary Brown of Hanover. Mrs. William Campbell and sons Charlie and Ralph visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClocklin, Zion.

A play "An Old Fashioned Mother" will be staged by the Crawford Y. P. in the local church on Friday evening, March 22. This play has been given in other churches with marked success. It consists of three acts running for two and a quarter hours which are summed up as follows: 1st act, "The Good Samaritan"; 2nd act, "Mother's Love"; 3rd act, "The Prodigal Son." "An Old Fashioned Mother" is a play with a strong human appeal and is a parable of a mother's love. All who enjoy a good play with a good moral, come to Crawford Friday March 22, at 9 p.m. Admission, adults 35c, Children 15c. Mr. T. S. Cooper, Agricultural representative and his assistants are holding a three day short course at Lamash. A number of the young men of the community are in attendance. Messrs. Dougald Hastie and Walter Patterson have been asked by Mr. Cooper to arrange for the judging of livestock to be held at the home of George Brown. This is a splendid opportunity for young men and all should take advantage of it and encourage more of this kind of work.

We have had a week of very severe wintry weather but at time of writing it has become mild. We hope it may hasten to take the snow away as we have had a long winter.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Jack Caswell and other members of the family in the death of her mother, Mrs. Robert Webber, who passed away in Durham hospital last week. Mrs. Alex. McIntosh and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Crutchley spent a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. McLean's recently. We had no service in the church last Sunday on account of the cold weather. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McKechnie and daughter Joan spent Monday evening with friends in Hanover. The U. F. W. O. held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Thos. Lauder. Although the day was cold and stormy there was a good attendance and a very interesting time spent. Mrs. Young gave a very interesting account of her trip to the Coast, which was listened to with rapt attention. It was decided to hold a croquet party on April 10th at the home of Mrs. Thos. Lauder. Admission 25 cents and supper served. We hope all will endeavor to be present on this occasion and spend a social time together. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Young on the second Friday in April.

The B. Y. P. U. held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. Fulton and Miss Mildred might have charge of the program. The usual form of opening was observed, after which different matters of business were dealt with. The roll call was responded to by quoting a verse of Scripture. Three very interesting papers were read by Mr. Elton Adam, Miss McQuarrie and Mr. Geo. Brown. Miss Elsie Boyce rendered a very delightful solo entitled "Ready", also Master Stephen Stinson favored us with a solo with Miss Boyce as accompanist. Words of appreciation were then tendered those who had in any way contributed to the evening's proceedings. The program closed by all repeating the Lord's prayer. Two contests closed the meeting. The next meeting will be a joint session with Ebenezer, with a debate and social meeting. We congratulate our old resident, George Filim on his recent elevation to Sergeant on the London police force. T. S. Cooper is holding a three-day course in live stock judging at Lamash, which commenced Wednesday of this week. The judging will take place at the homes of Messrs. George Brown and Dougald McDonald. Miss Blanche Boyce, operator at Durham center, spent Sunday at her home here. Mrs. Andrew Hastie visited last week with her sister, Mrs. Brown at Hanover. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McDonald and Miss Ulva spent an evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ledingham.

CHURCHES

PRICEVILLE PRESBYTERIAN Rev. J. Corry, Minister

It was very encouraging to find so many coming out to church last Sabbath, notwithstanding the conditions of the roads. Let us all try and attend church. Services next Sabbath at 11 o'clock and 7.30. Sabbath school at 10 o'clock and Bible Class at the same hour. Missionary Society and Willing Helpers will meet on Friday afternoon.

SWINTON PARK We had no service last Sabbath owing to the weather conditions. We hope that this may be the last time this winter when we will be compelled to suspend our service. Next Sabbath, D.V., at 2.30, we hope for a good attendance. A representative from Orangeville Presbytery will meet the congregation at 2.30 on Monday. Everyone try and be present.

And teas from finest gardens make the blend.
