The Y. P. Guild spent a very pleasant and enjoyable evening in the hall on the last Wednesday in April when over seventy were present. Thirty-five journeyed over from Swinton Park to all be together before Rev. and Mrs. Corry and family should be separated. Mr. William Hincks, the president, was in the chair and the meeting opened with a hymn. Miss Jean McLean was appointed secretary in place of Miss Jessie Nichol, who is unable to attend, as she is going to Flesherston High school. The program consisted of a humorous reading by Mrs. Walter Knox; recitation by Mrs. Dan Campbell; song by Mr. Gordon McCannell; reading by Miss Smith; quartette by Miss Marjory Kinnel; quartette by Miss Marjory Kinnel, Mrs. Walter Knox, Messrs. Fred and Walter Knox; violin music by Mr. Dan McCannell, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Knox on piano, a rousing encore was given them and they responded graciously; a solo and encore by Miss Jean McCannell. Three contests were played and caused much amusement. Prizes were handed to the winners. The "Astonisher" was read by Mr. Alfred Hincks after which a bountiful lunch was served by the ladies and a social hour was spent.

After school hours on Thursday Miss Lamont instructed the children in an entertaining way by telling two delightful stories, one entitled "The God Whom You Cannot See" and the other "The Baby Elephant". The cargo consigned to a rice boat was so great that the usual number of men and elephants' combined strength proved insufficient to push the boat out from the dock until the baby elephant, though not wanted, appeared and aided with an enthusiastic push and the boat started on its journey out to the open sea. The lesson taught is that God accepts and blesses the children's services.

Darkies' Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)

We regret to have to write of the passing of baby Joyce Marie, beloved infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Jacques. Despite all that loving care and medical skill could do, she slipped away to her heavenly home Monday noon. A child specialist from Toronto and a trained nurse were called to give their best in experience and care, but her stay on earth was apparently to be brief, only seven months, three days. All her short life she had not been strong, but had been tenderly cared for and to the sorrow stricken parents and sisters, Louise, Clara and Jean, all extend their heartfelt sympathy.

The funeral was held Wednesday at 2 p.m. Rev. W. H. Smith, in the absence of Rev. Fildes, officiating. Interment was made in Durham cemetery. Floral tokens included a wreath from the family, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Patterson, No. 9 scholars and teacher, Mr. and Mrs. W. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Catton, Mr. and Mrs. Bogle, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Durrant of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ingham, Ingersoll; Mr. and Mrs. W. Ingham, Wingham; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ingham, Culloden; G. Ingham, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. James Passmore, Stratford.

The pall bearers were Clifford Lindsay, Clarence Hargrave, Freddie Arnett, Arthur Newell. The flower bearers were Dorothy Bogle, Velma Blyth, Phyllis and Ruby Lawrence, Doris Lawrence, Margaret Brown, Violet Collinson and Olive Newell.

Present from a distance were Mr. George Ingham, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ingham, Culloden; Mr. and Mrs. W. Ingham, Wingham; Visitors at W. B. Patterson's the

Petition For Paving Laid Before Council

Lambton and Bruce Street Request Council to Lay Pavement Far As C. P. R. Tracks—Session of Council Held Monday Night.

Speaking dietetically, as if everything "from soup to nuts served at the regular session. Town Council last Monday evening, with the constable, a committee of the citizens and the two presiders, the Town Fathers, spent a pleasant evening. There was very discussion of the paving of Gait street at this meeting. This been settled at a special session ago, but at that a full and programme awaited the audience. Following the adoption minutes the communications were

The first was a petition from the residents of Upper Town, corner of William and Queen streets, exact, praying for the installation of a light at this point. The petition on this, pro and con, was discussed for a time, and in the end the foolish virgins of long ago, ing their lamps with oil caused more talk in so short a period. history fails to make note of it.

Councillor Howell spoke in favour of installing the light at this corner. The light was dark here. So dark in fact, if some sort of illumination was provided it was hard to tell what happened. Reeve Bell proposed that Council placed lights at every where they were asked the town be bankrupt paying for them. knew of two or three other cases ing now where lights were desired and if this petition were granted others would have to be. To be the discussion was illuminating, this was as far as it went, and reality the corner of Queen and lam streets remains in its darkened condition for the present.

There was a letter from the Rural College at Markdale asking the appointment of a Weed Inspector. Constable Allen already had honor bestowed upon him last year. It still stands. It shall doubt his duty again this year to citizens "weed instruction" crop shall not fall nor the lose their identity.

The Red Cross ladies were on the scene with the request to be the first to hold a street clean-up in the new pavement—when it is laid. Their perspicacious aspirations laid aside for the time being, the Councillors suggesting that themselves might wish to light fantastic toe when the cord was cut that proclaimed pavement finished and open to traffic.

Next came the report of the Inspector. This was not altogether to the Council, the inspecting fault with the size of the the pressure developed by the at the test here last February mending a better method of hose after a fire, that two or sleep in the fire hall at night more and better tanks be different parts of the town.

A letter was read from Rowland of the Royal Bank the Council that from now henceforth a charge would for the collection of the tax. For all amounts under $15 a five cents would be made; amount the charge was to cent.

The Early Closing Bill A petition was handed in Retail Merchants' Association that the Council pass a by-law closing all places of business at 6 o'clock on open nights. It caused some discussion. It ed that one of the mercer-ected to closing before mid- that he intended to fight. The Council was of the of the matter would stand or legal advice would be of the bylaw drawn up in manner. Mr. W. Laidlaw to the attention of the Council would not stand in court a no penalty attached. He that the tax should be $5. in other towns, but the Cot that $3 was sufficient as the bylaw revised.

Poor Lights at Night During the discussion of uation in Upper Town Whitmore told the Council open nights the lights on streets were very poor. Watts installed in his yard a large room in his yard was not sufficient to make when the stores were open. At the last meeting of fire brigade put in a purchase of new rubber waterproofs.
