WATSON - MOODY. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moody, Proton, on Wednesday, July 10, at high noon, when their only daughter, Lillian May became the bride of Mr. Joseph Arthur Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson, Proton. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in a dress of white silk flat crepe trimmed with rhinestones. She wore a bridal veil of silk embroidered net with wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of blush roses, lily-of-the-valley and maiden hair fern. The ceremony was performed beneath an arch of ever-greens and ferns with large white wedding bell, by Rev. Mr. Sullivan, of Priceville, of the United Church. The wedding march was played by Miss Ada Whyte, niece of the groom. After the signing of the register, a dainty wedding dinner was served to about sixty guests. Later the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for a short honeymoon trip to Toronto, Oshawa and other points. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Proton - Dundalk Herald.

CHURCHES. PREACHED HERE SUNDAY. Rev. T. C. Robinson of Owen Sound preached last Sunday morning, July 21, at the Durham Presbyterian church, and in the afternoon at Glenelg Centre Baptist church and at Rocky Saugeen Presbyterian church, in order to assist his son-in-law Rev. J. T. Priest, who is just recovering from a week of severe illness. Rev. Mr. Priest delivered a strong sermon in his own church on Sunday evening on "The Favorable of Divine Providence", which Mrs. Priest aptly capped with a well-rendered solo "Sometime We'll Understand". Going Home for Dinner. What Will Your Home-going Be Like Ten or Fifteen Years from Now? The subject of this sketch no doubt had a "good time" in his youth but he neglected to get the necessary education that would have helped him to get a lighter job at larger wages. How many young people have missed the good things of life by neglecting to get a little education in youth? A nail will go no further than its head will let it. A young man or a young woman will go no further than his or her head will allow. People do not succeed by chance or by luck but by getting a practical education and using their knowledge. The very best place to go to get up-to-date Business Education is the Northern Business College, Owen Sound, where thousands of young people have been educated for successful business careers. ed accidents per month in the first six months of 1929 is of vital importance to industry. Commenting on these figures, R. B. Morley, general manager, Industrial Accident Prevention Association, states that it is evident executives generally, whether representing industries included in the membership of the Associations, or outside, must give an increasing amount of attention to accident prevention work. The Executive Committee of the Associations have planned a more intensive campaign for the balance of 1929 and have lately admitted the Construction Safety Association to membership. This will be the first effort put forth by the construction industries to lower their bad record of the past several years.
