A miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Elsie Boyce by her neighbors on Wednesday evening of last week at her home. At an opportune moment the bride elect was seated on a chair in the living room underneath a white bell from which fell white streamers to which were attached the gifts. She wore a long white veil of cheese cloth and her little nephew, Beverley Boyce acted as veil bearer. In a few well chosen words Mrs. Andrew Hastie made known the purpose of the gathering. The gifts were many and beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which Miss Boyce is held in the neighborhood. Among the presents were aluminum ware, cut glass, electric goods, linen, and many other useful household articles.

She thanked the neighbors for their gifts and extended a welcome to them to visit her in her home in Durham. This contest was held among the unmarried people. A young gentleman and a lady as his partner received a portion of the bride's veil to hem. The young man did the sewing, directed by his partner. Ten dollars were made for the bride elect in this manner. A prize was given to the one doing the neatest and best sewing and also the one showing the poorest work. The remainder of the evening was spent in social chat, community singing and recitations by Miss Gladys Penner of Owen Sound.
