arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Myrtle Lawrence, and took her place beside the groom, under an arch of evergreens with streamers and white bells. The bride looked charming in a gown of beige georgette and silk lace and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, lily-of-the-valley and maiden-hair fern. The groom's gift to the bride was silver in Community Plate and to the pianist a silver compact. Following the ceremony congratulations were tendered and all repaired to the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served. SPENT PLEASANT EVENING Members of the Young Women's Mission Circle of Knox United Church met at the home of their secretary, Miss Isobel Henderson, on Friday evening, August 30, to honor two of their members who are going away, namely Miss Mary Brown, who has been president, and Miss Florence McDonald. The evening was spent pleasantly in games and music, lunch being served at the close. Miss Isobel Jamieson presented the gifts of silver napkin-rings, with names engraved, while Miss Marjorie Noble read the address. Another member, Miss Myrtle Mortley, who intends going to Normal, was absent, being in Detroit and will receive her gift from the Circle later. Following is the address: Durham, August 30, 1929 Misses Mary Brown and Florence McDonald Dear Friends:— As a band of young people we are sorer or later to have removals from our Mission Circle, as the call comes upon us to assume new duties and responsibilities in various walks of life. Your leaving us for fields anew is merely a step in the passing of time and while we miss you in Circle meetings, as well as in that wider circle of friendship, would also listen to the voice of duty, calling you to fields anew. Your faithfulness and devotion to the Circle has been marked and with the wish that your thoughts will carry you back at times to your co-workers in the great missionary cause, we are remembering you with these little gifts, as a little appreciation of the esteem we hold for you. May you both in your line of endeavor find joy in service. "Service" is the keyword of the age and to realize to the full the value of the term, we must seek aid and help from that Higher Power, whose life breathed Service. The Circle members in closing wish their very best for your future success and the latch string of our hearts will ever be open for friends such as you. It concerned an incident at the prize-giving at a certain village school when one of the competitors succeeded in carrying off nearly all the best prizes. Afterwards, in the schoolroom, several more or less proud mothers were sipping tea and exchanging local gossip. "How clever of your little girl to carry off so many prizes," said Mrs. Jones, rather icily, to Mrs. Smith. The other ladies gathered round and congratulated the mother of the star of the afternoon with the best grace they could muster. "I only hope her success will not make her conceited," concluded one. "Oh, no, indeed," explained Mrs. Smith, sweetly. "I've told her it's not because she's extra clever that she's won so many prizes, it is because all the other girls are so stupid."
