Day school reopened Tuesday of last week. Miss Florence Kerr is home teacher, Miss Ruby Morrison is teaching at Cargill and Miss Ruby Blyth at Orilla.

Misses Dorothy Bogle, Velma Blyth, Vera Robins are attending Durham High school this year.

Quite a number from in and around here attended the Anniversary services in the Presbyterian church in Holstein on Sunday, September 8.

Sabbath next the United Church, Holstein is having their Anniversary services and there will be no service here except Sunday school which starts at 3 o'clock.

Some of the trustees were viewing Maplewood cemetery and said the grave of the John Brown family was a good example. If we all would take the same interest our cemetery would be worth viewing.

The young people from around here had a corn roast on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mr. G. M. Lepson. They reported a good time.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keller on September 4, 1929, a son.

Mrs. Thomas Allan of this place received word Monday of this week that her daughter Jean's husband, Mr. John Robinson, of New York, was seriously hurt in the plant where he is employed. A large hook fell on his back and an operation was necessary. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

Mr. Alf McCabe made a trip to Kitchener on Thursday of last week.

Quite a number have been on the sick list with flu or grip. By reports all are improving nicely.

Mr. Andy Lindsay was so unfortunate on Tuesday as to have his three horse team become unmanageable while operating a manure spreader and run away. One of the horses' heads was injured and he was also injured about the face and shoulders.

Threshing is now in full swing and grain is of very good quality. The yield up to the average.

There is nothing so bad but it might have been worse. Some of our citizens had the gas tanks of their cars drained while parked in Durham Monday night, but the thief left the cap of the tank on the auto seat as a reminder so they would not start home without another five gallons.

Mr. Earl Mead was visited last week by his aunt, Mrs. McTanney, of New York. There are only a few scattered ones here now who remember her back in the sixties as Mary A. Mead, one of the bright cheerful persons who helped lighten the dreariness of pioneer life. She is now a great grand-mother. She was accompanied here by her daughter, Mrs. Warden.

Almost every person from this part was at the meet opening on Monday and enjoyed themselves very much.

Egremont Council will meet early on Monday to afford a couple of hours or in the middle of the day at the fair.

Holstein
(Our Own Correspondent)
