OTHER PAPERS' OPINIONS

A Peculiar Point
A driver of a truck, which was insured against public liability, and which recently ran into a herd of cattle near Runkald, breaking the legs of two animals so that they had to be despatched outright after the accident, was under the impression, it seems, that public liability covered injury to cattle, as well as persons, and that the insurance company and the cattle owner would have to fight it out to determine who would stand good for the damages to his car and for the loss of the animals.

Why Do Taxes Come Before Christmas?
Why, oh why, must taxes coincide so nearly with Christmas? And why oh why must they go up ten dollars every year. Last year I remember the tax man came just as the threshing machine moved out and this year he came on the very day we had shipped some fat stock.

"Good" Old Days
People who think the world is getting worse every day, like to hark back in a vague way to the "good old days." But isn't it usually a case of distance jerking enchantment to the view? One's eyes occasionally run across facts about conditions in the "good old days". Here is a news item from the Christian Guardian of January 9, 1830.

Women Score Success
City house wives during the past few years have rapidly developed an economic independence and have fostered a hobby or a career into a paying concern of their very own. Shops of all sorts, tea rooms, craftwork, organizing, professions, etc., which their brains may work out to augment the family budget have been tackled successfully by women who also manage their homes.

Vivele Carnaval! Vivent les sports d'hiver! In these few words may be summed up the spirit of Quebec in winter-time. Here for many years have gathered lovers of winter sports and frolics from all parts of the western hemisphere.

The ancient capital of Canada is the American continent's metropolis for ski-ing, ski-joring, ski-jumping, tobogganing, bob-sledding, skating, snow-shoeing, dog-team driving, curling, and hockey, during the winter months, and in addition has a unique attraction to offer the visitor in February when the International Dog Sled Derby annually takes place.

Three internationally famous ski-ing instructors will be on the staff of the Chateau Frontenac this winter. They are Irvind Nelson, Hans Gunnarsson, and Orville Higgs, of Revelstoke, British Columbia. Burnett Burke formerly of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association will be instructor at the Chateau's skating rink.

demands of the customers are changing. People are willing to pay for what they want, but they now want it put up in attractive form—showing that haphazard system of marketing will not do, and only good quality products may command satisfactory prices.—Alliston Herald.

Skimping Not Always Economy
True economy is entirely praiseworthy, particularly for those who have difficulty in making ends meet, but there is a petty sort of skimping which is not economy, and which is really wasteful in the long run.

The same principle applies in business management. To deny one self the use of a reasonable amount of up to date equipment is an effort to curtail expenditures is not economy, because such equipment will usually pay for itself many times over in time and labor saving.

Spending money wisely is one of the surest means of making more money. Skimping is not always economy, and stinginess is not always thrift. Too many of us are "penny wise and pound foolish."

Town Seizes Picture Show
Alliston talking movie or picture show, or whatever it may have been called lately, is closed and a couple of legal clamps have been affixed to the apparatus. For some time attendance at the talkies has been poor and instead of a show four times a week, the appearance of comedy drama or melodrama in the screen in the town hall was cut down to twice a week and finally once a week.

Next development was a surprise. Last Wednesday three young men appeared in town and announced that one of them was the new proprietor of the picture show and was going to continue it. He would reopen immediately with pictures only and try to revive the popularity of a year ago.

When Councillor Milligan was acquainted with the facts he found himself confronted with an unpaid bill of something like $200 for rent of a hall in which the chattels of the debtor were under seizure by another municipality.

On consulting the town solicitor Mr. Milligan received the cheery assurance that Alliston's claim for rent could not be superseded by the claim of another municipality even though the other municipality should get there first.
