IN MEMORIAM

Calin.—In loving memory of my dear husband, Joseph E. Calin, who departed this life January 5, 1928. Friends may think I have forgotten. When I smile they see me smile. But they do not know my heartache. That I smile is only for the while. We who love you sadly miss you. As it is another year; In lonely hours of thinking, Thoughts of you are always near. —Sadly missed by Wife and Children.

What better Christmas Gift could a parent give to a son or daughter than a term in the Northern Business College, Owen Sound. The education cannot be lost or stolen and it lasts a lifetime. Winter term begins January 2nd. 13 25

Hincks.—In loving memory of our infant daughter, Irene Marie, who was laid to rest January 5, 1928. There is a home that is filled with sorrow. Two hearts are lonely and sad. Since God took home two years ago The only child I had. God only knows how we miss her. And the pain she silently bore. At times our hearts come near breaking. As we long for her back once more. —Mrs. A. L. Hincks.
