VICTIMS IN CANADIAN TRAGEDY Left to right: Billy, Andrew and Freddie Day, three young members of the Day family who were among the eight murdered at their home at Three Rivers, Quebec. Four other children and Mrs. Andrew Day were the other victims. The husband, found wandering in the street with his throat slashed, has confessed to the crime.

say they had a very enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ritchie spent New Years with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Smallie. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Moffat and family of town were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Anderson on Wednesday. Mr. H. Williams received word on Friday of the death of his brother, Mr. Christopher Williams at Niagara Falls. The late Mr. Williams was born at Edge Hill about 78 years ago and grew up to young manhood here. The Edge Hill Literary Society are having some good meetings this year. The next meetings are to be in charge of the four school teachers who are members of the society: Misses Margaret Anderson, Edna Lyons, Marjorie Ritchie and Hazel Beaton. Miss Anderson and her group are putting on their entertainment on Friday evening of this week. Everybody come and enjoy a good program. The teachers who spent their vacation at their homes here have returned to their several schools: Miss Margaret Anderson to No. 9; Miss Marjorie Ritchie to Hutton Hill; Miss Reta Gienecross to St. Vincent near Meaford; Miss Mary Edge to St. Thomas; Miss Alice Edge to St. Catharines; Miss Edith Edge to Sault Ste. Marie. Since our last budget our annual school meeting was held in the school with a good attendance of interested ratepayers. The trustees have a good substantial balance on hand and are in good shape to begin the new year. Mr. George Scheuermann was elected trustee in place of Mr. James Heilip for the ensuing three years. The contract of caretaking was let to Willie and George Scheuermann for $115.

CHINA BARS RED AS BODY COLOR

In China red as a body color for automobiles is prohibited because of the religious significance and in Spain blue is prohibited because it is the color of the royal family.
