

In Other Communities

Taken From Our Exchanges About People of Your Acquaintance.

Temporary Bridge Carried Away

The temporary bridge over the Meaux Creek on the Normanby and Carrick townline, just north of Molke was carried away this week by the freshet caused by the January thaw.

Sullivan Township Makes a Record

Boyd J. Bell, Tax Collector of the Township of Sullivan, is 100 per cent efficient in the carrying out of his duties.

Water Covers Street After Ice Jam

Early Tuesday morning an ice jam blocked the drainage canal in the west end of the town and water started to pour over the sides.

Kills Bear With Axe

Wielding his axe M. Manness of Englehart succeeded in slaying a huge black bear that attacked him shortly after it emerged from its den.

Rescued From Burning Building

In a bad fire in Collingwood on January 4, a life was nearly lost. Mrs. Hendry was carried unconscious to safety when the business block occupied by Mr. A. McIntosh's shoe store and F. W. Woolworth's store displayed one of the most spectacular fires in the town's history.

Farmer Lost Eight Cattle

A farmer residing on the eighth concession of Carrick met with a serious financial loss this week, when eight of his cattle succumbed to the disease known as black leg.

hurt, but as it and seven others passed out in quick succession, the veterinary was sent for, and diagnosed the trouble as black leg. The rest of the herd was inoculated, so as to prevent a spread of the trouble.

Large Bear Shot in Bruce

Bruce County is unique in the fact that although her forests are much depleted and civilization far advanced, a large bear and a tremendous lynx were shot within its borders during the past two weeks.

Died Suddenly When in Cutter

Mrs. Peter McGarrity, of 12th Con. Brant, was in Chesley on Monday afternoon with her son, Peter, and appeared to be in her usual health.

Dam Was in Danger From Flood

Witter's mill dam, which was reconstructed last summer at great expense, was in great danger of breaking away again last Thursday night.

In Jail on Fraud Charge

Samuel Steinberg of Toronto, a former Chesley merchant, who is alleged to have gyped Arran Township farmers out of several hundred dollars' worth of muskrat pelts by issuing worthless cheques for the skins, and was out on bail of $6,000 to appear before Judge Owens in Walkerton on trial on a charge of false pretenses, was remanded by His Honor to jail on Tuesday last to await his hearing which was adjourned from Tuesday to January 22. The Crown opposed granting him further bail and as a consequence he was placed in custody until the date

GOVERNMENT RESTORED RELIC VIEWED BY THOUSANDS

At a time when there is so much concern in the West regarding the wholesale removal of ancient relics to other countries and the rapid decay of those still left in the Indian villages in British Columbia, it is interesting to note above the manner in which the Dominion Government Totem Pole Preservation Committee restored one relic for perpetuity.

Undeclared Reeve Retires at Arthur

The big sensation of the Arthur nomination meeting, held in the Arthur Town Hall on Monday evening, was the declaration of Reeve Henry Irvine that he was retiring from public life for the time being, and would not be a candidate for the reeveship of 1930.

Suing Fire Works Company for Injury

An examination for discovery was conducted here last Saturday morning in a Grey County action, trial of which is pending. Mr. Thos. Brownlee of Hanover, is suing the Hand Fire Works Co., Hamilton, to recover heavy damages for the loss of one of his eyes and injury to the other in Hanover last August.

Action to Unseat Reeve of Walkerton

Mr. Campbell Grant, the well-known local barrister who is commencing his second term as Reeve of Walkerton, was on Monday afternoon served with a document through Lawyer O. E. Klein, who acting on behalf of his client, Mr. Wm. Roy VanHorne, a ratepayer of the town, gave notice that action has been commenced in the County Court to unseat Mr. Grant from office acting as Reeve of Walkerton on the grounds of lack of property qualification.

The petition sets out in effect that Reeve Grant is not a householder and not an owner of land in the town, such as one portion of the Municipal Act requires of a person holding a seat in the County Council.

Boy Brutally Attacked by Tramp

Reminiscent of the early days in this district when lawless tramps forced settlers to give them food and assaulted them if they refused, is the incident that occurred near Fowler's corners on Tuesday afternoon.

A tramp entered the home of Joseph Hunter and demanded food from the young man, Bill Haw, an English boy who was alone in the house. The lad explained to the ruffian that the owners were away and that he could not give him their food.

Warns Farmers Against Fakirs

John Novak, of Toronto, who is at the Ontario reformatory for obtaining poultry under false pretenses, has a long record as a shopbreaker, parole-breaker and jail-breaker. His most recent offence was the impersonation of an inspector from the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, telling farmers in Fossilburgh Township that a number of their chickens and turkeys were diseased and would have to be taken to Guelph for examination he obtained a considerable number of them. He paid what he said was the "government fee" of 25 cents per hen and $1.75 for turkeys, stating that full payment would be given if his birds were not diseased.

Mr. Marin, minister of agriculture, has warned farmers to be on the watch for fake inspectors and to report suspicious activities immediately to the authorities.

Lad Dies of Revolver Wound

Ivan, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Caudle of Lion's Head, in the Bruce Peninsula, died early on Monday morning in Owen Sound hospital as the result of an unfortunate shooting accident which occurred at their home last Sunday afternoon about three o'clock.

Big Snowplow: Clear Highway

The provincial highway to the south of Fergus is now in splendid condition for motoring but not so good for sleighing because parts of it are completely bare.

Detecting the Detectives

Provincial policeman Widmeyer of Wlarton, formerly of Walkerton, has spent the last three weeks in Toronto getting some schooling in his particular line of business.

Poor Well Looked After

The old scriptural injunction that "the poor you have always with you" is as true today as it was when uttered two thousand years ago.

January Floods Halt Construction Work

Some time during the early hours of Tuesday morning, due to the heavy rainfall causing the ice to break up and the water to rise in the river, the construction work on the abutments and approaches of the new Queen Street bridge were dealt a costly blow.

Truck Sales Based on Game

Market crashes and other phenomena of civilization may provide sales resistance for motor car dealers in this country, but they are nothing compared to what the dealers of Goa, the Portuguese territory on the Malabar coast, are up against: Lady Luck is a real obstacle to overcome in that region.

Water Covers Street After Ice Jam

Early Tuesday morning an ice jam blocked the drainage canal in the west end of the town and water started to pour over the sides.

Kills Bear With Axe

Wielding his axe M. Manness of Englehart succeeded in slaying a huge black bear that attacked him shortly after it emerged from its den.

Rescued From Burning Building

In a bad fire in Collingwood on January 4, a life was nearly lost. Mrs. Hendry was carried unconscious to safety when the business block occupied by Mr. A. McIntosh's shoe store and F. W. Woolworth's store displayed one of the most spectacular fires in the town's history.

Farmer Lost Eight Cattle

A farmer residing on the eighth concession of Carrick met with a serious financial loss this week, when eight of his cattle succumbed to the disease known as black leg.

Truck Sales Based on Game

Market crashes and other phenomena of civilization may provide sales resistance for motor car dealers in this country, but they are nothing compared to what the dealers of Goa, the Portuguese territory on the Malabar coast, are up against: Lady Luck is a real obstacle to overcome in that region.

Water Covers Street After Ice Jam

Early Tuesday morning an ice jam blocked the drainage canal in the west end of the town and water started to pour over the sides.

Kills Bear With Axe

Wielding his axe M. Manness of Englehart succeeded in slaying a huge black bear that attacked him shortly after it emerged from its den.

Rescued From Burning Building

In a bad fire in Collingwood on January 4, a life was nearly lost. Mrs. Hendry was carried unconscious to safety when the business block occupied by Mr. A. McIntosh's shoe store and F. W. Woolworth's store displayed one of the most spectacular fires in the town's history.

Farmer Lost Eight Cattle

A farmer residing on the eighth concession of Carrick met with a serious financial loss this week, when eight of his cattle succumbed to the disease known as black leg.

IT IS a good plan to have the radiator of your car inspected and repaired now—before you start your spring driving.

We specialize in repairing all auto fills. Quality work guaranteed.

Noble's Garage Garafraxa St., Durham

ROWE'S Bakery & Provision Store Flour The Finest Manitoba per bag $4.50 to $4.75 Pastry Flour 24 lb $1.00 Goods Delivered Anywhere in Town E. A. Rowe Baker & Confectioner

THE PEOPLE'S MILLS We have on hand for sale the best qualities of Flour and Feed at reasonable prices: Western cleaned Screenings, ground, in bulk, per ton $34.00 Ontario Mixed Grains, ground, per ton $38.00 FLOUR AND FEEDS Royal Household Flour Crimped Oats O Canada Flour Screenings Chop Pilot Flour Mixed Chop Castle Flour Bran Prairie Pride Flour Shortcake Rolled Oats Oilcake Feed Flour Oyster Shell Oat Chop Chick Grit Special reduction on 5- and 10-bag lots of Flour Guinness and Blatchford's Stock and Poultry Foods We are agents for Masters' Stock foods for every purpose Get our prices and compare them and the analysis with other feeds before purchasing your requirements of commercial feeds. Leave your order early for your spring requirements of Fertilizer. Highest market prices paid for all kinds of grain delivered at our mill. JOHN MCGOWAN Phone 8, Day or Night Durham, Ont.

Illustration of a man and a woman in a room, with text: "Lend me tuppence, John, while I find out if the McNabs are lame." "Lend, woman, dinna be extravagant. Just ask the lassie for the number and when she gets it an' tells ye the put two pennies in—hang up an' come out." -The Bulletin, Sydney, Australia.

When Your Money Travels by Mail SEND your remittances by Canadian Bank of Commerce Money Orders. They are convenient, efficient, and economical. THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE (THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA)

Stop That Cold NOW! SLIGHT colds are not generally dangerous in themselves, but most often are signals of more serious illness not to be lightly regarded. We have many very highly endorsed cures, cold tablets and cough medicines that will stop that cold NOW and avert further sickness. MacBeth's Drug Store Phone 3

At B Come in & Dear Ruth Raeburn Could you please of some of the old "Twenty Years Ago to Tennessee", "Returned", "The Name", "Oh A Life for Me". Carry Me Back Sweet Ella Rhee, Is lost forever. Our home was do Before the cruel Chorus Then carry me back Back where I am Among the fields To my darling Oh, why did I fro Keep wishing to And from my mas And leave my E They said that I And happy all t But if they'll tak I'll never run a The war is over The colored race I've waited for Twenty I've wandered to I've sat beneath Upon the school I That sheltered us But none were th And few were k That played with Some twenty ye The grass is just a Barefooted boy Were sporting the With spirits ju But Master sleep Which, coated o Afforded us a slid Just twenty ye The spring that b Close by the tw Is very low, "sw That we could d And kneeling dow Dear Tom, I st To find that I h Since twenty ye Down by the spr You know I cut And you did m Some heartless w bark "Twas dying sur Just as the one wh Died twenty ye My lids have long But tears came I thought of tho Those early br I visited the old And took some Upon the graves o Some twenty ye Some are in the Some sleep ben But few are left Excepting you a And when our t Tom And we are call I hope they'll ay Just twenty ye Did She On a summer's d were ripp By the softest, gre Did a ship set sa For a port beyon There were sweet loving sibil But her fate is y Though for years fond heart For the ship that Chorus Did she ever ret No she never ret And her fate is y Though for years There were fond For the ship that Said a feeble lad I must cross the For they say, per climate There is health at "Twas a gleam of danger But her heart, f yearned, I So she sent him a blessing On the ship that Just one more tre And 'twill last us Then we'll spend cottage And enjoy the res But alas! poor ma mander On the ship that Dear Pansy: I haven't the Scholar" or "Th perhaps some of them and share t Wife: "O dea that you had die Hubby: "Don't a bad dream ups with you." Wife: "Yes, I was about to cas when the alarm it all."