

Thursday, February 20, 1930

CHURCHES

GLENELG BAPTISTS MET IN ANNUAL SESSION

Glenelg Centre Church Had Successful Year.—Extensive Programme Planned for 1930.

The Glenelg Centre Baptist church met for their annual business meeting at the home of Mr. Robert J. MacGillivray on Tuesday evening, February 18, and after a devotional half-hour proceeded to business with the pastor, Rev. J. T. Priest, as chairman.

Reports were all optimistic and showed a substantial financial balance in all departments. Among other things considered and enacted was the adoption of individual communion cups, a union church and Sunday school service, arranging for the annual garden party, and the anniversary services. Two new trustees were appointed, namely, the Messrs. Henry Beaton and Charles E. MacFarlane. The rest of the officers were re-elected by acclamation as follows: Clerk, Mrs. R. J. MacGillivray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. P. MacGillivray; Deacons, Archie Beaton and Walter Ewing; Sunday School Superintendent, Archie Beaton; Mission Circle Secretary, Miss Margaret MacFarlane; Secretary of the Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Archie Beaton; Organist and Precentor, Miss Winnie Binnie.

Plans were laid for the painting, re-decorating and insuring of the church building.

After the business meeting adjourned an excellent luncheon was served in the dining room and a social hour brought a very enjoyable and profitable evening to a close.

Knox W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of Knox W.M. S. was held on February 13th at the home of Mrs. D. B. Jamieson, with Mrs. Ledingham presiding.

The meeting opened by singing hymn 250 "Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart" after which Mrs. T. Allen led in prayer. Business matters were brought before the meeting and discussed and plans were made for the "World Day of Prayer" which is to be held March 7, 1930. The scripture lesson from Joel 2: 25-32 was read by Mrs. Boyce. The Devotional leaflet "To you and to your children and to those afar off" was read by Miss J. Smith.

Miss Margaret McGillr then took the topic, Chap. II. "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem," and gave an interesting talk on the efforts of the early Christians to spread the gospel through Asia, China, Syria, etc. Mrs. A. Jackson and Mrs. B. Stonehouse sang "Will there be any stars in my crown."

The meeting closed with hymn 374, and the doxology. Mrs. Jamieson then served lunch and a social time was enjoyed by all.

PRESBYTERIAN W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Harding Thursday afternoon, February 13. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Derby, the vice-president presided, and opened the meeting by singing hymn 371, and prayer. Mrs. Patterson read the scripture lesson from Acts II. The roll call was responded to by a verse on "The call to Missions." The minutes of the last meeting were read and business matters dealt with. Hymn 362 was sung, after which Mrs. Harding gave an excellent report of the executive meeting of the Saugeen Presbyterial held at Harriston in January. Mrs. Lauder had the topic from the new study book, "Couriers of the King," the subject being "Pentecost, or the Birthday of the Church." Mrs. Derby read a very interesting letter from Mrs. (Dr.) Goforth of Manchuria. Mrs. Patterson led in prayer for the missionaries. Hymn 399 was sung and the meeting closed by repeating the Lord's Prayer.

NEW BRUNSWICK LEGISLATURE OPENS THIS MONTH
The Parliament Buildings at Fredericton, N. B. are at present the scenes of much hurry and bustle as preparations are being completed for the opening of the fifth session of the Sixteenth Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick on February 27th. Above is a picture of the Parliament Buildings, while inset are (top, left and right), His Honor H. H. McLean, Lieut.-Governor of New Brunswick, and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier of that Province. Below are (left to right): Hon. Leonard O'Brien, Speaker of the Legislature; Medley G. Siddall, who will move the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne; W. Benton Evans, who will second the address in reply to the speech from the Throne, and Hon. A. A. Dysart, Leader of the Opposition.

KNOX MISSION CIRCLE

The Mission Circle of Knox United church held a St. Valentine's tea on St. Valentine's Day, February 14, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Alder, from 3 to 6 o'clock. There was a larger attendance than was expected. During the afternoon Misses Elsie Kearney and Anna Ritchie gave piano selections. A silver collection was received, which amounted to $12.00.

KNOX Y. W. A.

Knox Young Woman's Auxiliary was entertained at the home of Miss Annie Kearney for their regular monthly social and work meeting on Tuesday evening of this week. The evening was pleasantly spent in working on the quilts and social intercourse. At the close of the meeting lunch was served.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Royce Glass of Windsor is visiting this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Sharpe, in town.

Mr. V. C. Macdonald of Montreal, a former employee in the Standard Bank here, spent a day or so in town last week renewing old acquaintances. It is twelve years since Mr. Macdonald left here for Montreal and this is his first trip back since. Mr. Macdonald severed his connection with the Standard Bank some years ago and is now in the real estate business in Montreal, where he reports business as good. Many old friends here were pleased to see him and once more shake the hand "that shook the hand of John L. Sullivan." While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly.

Misses Margaret Heeney of Kitchener, Margaret Anderson of Welland, and Jean and Isabel Fraser of Tottenham, students at Toronto University, were guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickering over the week-end and took in the I.O.D.E. dance here Friday night. They are University friends of Miss Marjory Pickering in Toronto, who also spent over Sunday at her home here.

Miss Blanche Murdock of Orangeville Business College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Murdock, over the week-end.

Mrs. Thomas Henderson and daughter Betty are in Toronto for a few days.

Mrs. Nelson Harding of London is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Limin. Her mother, Mrs. Limin, who has been ill at her home here for some weeks, is improving.

Miss Katie McAuliffe, graduate nurse of St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McAuliffe.

Mr. Erben Schuts of Brantford spent the week-end at his home here.

Misses Eunice Moon and Florence Bailey of Toronto are holidaying at the parental home.

Miss Elizabeth Schaefer of the Public school staff is at her home at Hanover on sick leave. Mrs. W. A. Slack is supplying in her place.

ABERDEEN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Aberdeen Women's Institute held their annual social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ewen on Wednesday, February 12. A good crowd turned out despite the rainy night and everyone enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Crokinole and euchre were played, followed by tripping the light fantastic to most delightful music supplied by Messrs. David Burns and Wes Noble on violins.

Mr. Wm. Noble and Mr. Archie McArthur delighted the crowd with several old-time songs, and Mr. George Twamley also contributed several numbers which were much enjoyed.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Ewen and several of the ladies present. The President then moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ewen for their hospitality and all joined in singing "For They're Jolly Good Fellows," bringing a happy evening's entertainment to a close.

SUPERIOR U.F.Y.P.O.

Superior U.F.Y.P.O. Club met on February 12 at Bunesan school. The night being wet, the attendance was not as large as at the previous meeting.

With the President, Miss Annabelle MacArthur in charge, the meeting opened with community singing. The minutes were read by the secretary, Pat MacMillan, and the roll call was answered with the name of a car. A card of thanks was received from Miss Macphail.

The programme was in charge of the young men of the club and was much enjoyed. It consisted of the following items: Readings by Frank and Nell MacArthur, chorus and encore, the Club Gazette read by Pat MacMillan, mouth organ selections by Frank MacArthur accompanied by D. L. MacArthur on organ and a play, "Bugginsville Uplift Society" depicting the main efforts of a group of gossip women to better conditions in their home town. Those taking part were: Neil and Charles MacFarlane, Frank MacArthur, Pat MacMillan, Will Trafford and Archie and Neil MacArthur.

This was followed by a chorus after which each of the girls had her fortune told at a table decked with valentine decorations. The National Anthem closed the programme. Lunch was served and a social time spent.

TIED SHELBURNE IN GAME LAST NIGHT

Durham Won N. H. L. Semi-Final and Qualified to Meet Harriston in Next Round.—Dates Not Yet Set.

Playing Shelburne to a 2-2 tie at Shelburne last night the Durhams won the round 11-3 and now go into the next round against Harriston. The dates for this series have not been set, but there will likely be a game next Monday, though where is not yet decided. There may even be a sudden death game at Palmerston. It is altogether unlikely that there will be a game this week as some of the fans think.

Walkerton Beat E.M.C. Team

Playing a sudden death game with the E.M.C. team of Kingston at Toronto Arena last night, Walkerton won out by 5-4. They were behind and scored the last three goals in 15 minutes, according to news that came in over the radio.

OBITUARY

(Continued from page 1.)

and Mrs. Robert Ledingham of Durham.

The pall bearers were Messrs. A. Austin, A. Collins, A. Chalmers, S. Kennedy, E. Vansickle and A. Ockenden. The many beautiful floral tributes placed on the casket spoke of love for the departed and sympathy for the mourners. Amongst these were a pillow from Mrs. McDougall, a basket from the family, gates ajar from brothers and sisters, a wreath from brother- and sister-in-law, nephews and nieces of Durham and Crawford, spray from Walter and Helen Boyce, wreath from nieces of Owen Sound, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Moore, spray from Mr. Smith and family, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. A. Austin and Elva, anchor from Mr. and Mrs. Vansickle, spray from Mr. and Mrs. Les Ridge, wreath from the employees of the International Harvester Company, spray from the girls of Mercury Mills, spray from the ladies of Westminster church, spray from Mr. and Mrs. George Hilton and B. Vansickle, spray from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham, spray from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shearer, spray from Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCarl, spray from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dean, cross from Mr. and Mrs. Edgar, spray from Mrs. McFarlane and family, spray from Mrs. Hendrie, a wreath from St. Andrew's Lodge, wreath from Westinghouse Cheerio Club, spray from Mrs. Parker and family.

MRS. JAMES E. RENTON

At her home near Dromore February 8, there passed away a most estimable woman in the person of Annie Fraser, wife of James E. Renton. Deceased was the eldest daughter of the late George Skene, Latona, and was born November 9, 1859. At an early age she entered the teaching profession and taught for a period of 21 years.

She was a consistent member of Amos Presbyterian church, Dromore, and a life member of the W.M.S. Being a person of marked intelligence, obliging disposition, always more ready to give than receive, she was consequently beloved by all about her—a woman whom to know was to love, and whom to love was to respect.

She was married 29 years ago and leaves her husband and one son, Alex., to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother, also four brothers and two sisters, namely, Frank, Calgary; John J., Pincher Creek, Alberta; George, on the old home at Latona; Rev. James, Norwich; Belle (Mrs. Thos. R. Gibson), Medford, Oklahoma; and Miss May Skene at Latona.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, February 11, to Amos cemetery, and was conducted by the Rev. B. D. Armstrong of Durham. The pall bearers were Messrs. James Ferguson, John Nelson, Victor Adams, John Ferguson, J. G. Johnston and Alex. Milne.

H. E. WILKINSON

The funeral service of Mr. H. E. Wilkinson, who passed away in an Edmonton hospital on January 28 and whose death was reported last week in these columns, was held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Howard & McBride's chapel. Rev. Mr. Haggith officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Smith, and interment took place in the Edmonton cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs.

Davidson, Wilder, Brown, Hillard McFarlane and Lawrence. Beautiful floral tributes were received from loving wife; brothers; W. R. Wilkinson and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McFarlane; Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Crowe; Mrs. E. Love; Mrs. Lawrence and Mr. T. W. Lawrence; Highlands United church and Bible class; Mr. and Mrs. Garbutt; Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark; W. J. Edwards and H. J. Coles; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Jones; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsay; Mah Kai, Boston Cafe; Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hillard. He is survived by his wife and three brothers, Johnston Wilkinson and Dr. W. R. Wilkinson of Kitchener, and John of Elmira.

IN MEMORIAM

Currie.—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. J. Currie, who departed this life February 22, 1929.

We cannot forget. We loved you too dearly. For your memory to fade from our lives like a dream. Lips need not speak when the heart mourns sincerely. For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen. Ever remembered by us. —Marion, Jessie and Russell.

GENUINE Fuller Brushes
Frank A. Gower Representative
—SEE HIM AT—
W. J. LAWSON'S
Countess Street

DR. AGNEW'S HEART REMEDY
Strengthens the heart, enriches the blood and feeds the nerves.
For Sale by McFADDEN'S DRUG STORE THE CENTRAL DRUG STORE
School for Butchers
Started only five years ago, as the outcome of an evening class attended by about a dozen prospective butchers, the Smithfield Institute of London, England, now has over 850 students. The object of the institute is to teach youth the intricacies of the meat trade.

Star Theatre, Durham
THIS WEEK Friday and Saturday Feb. 21 & 22
WALLACE BEERY and FLORENCE VIDOR in "Chinatown Nights"
Blood, tingling adventure lurks in the shadows of Chinatown when East meets West. 25c. and 15c.
NEXT WEEK Friday and Saturday Feb. 14 & 15
PHYLLIS HAVER and ROBERT ARMSTRONG in "The Shady Lady"
When crook meets crook the Shady Lady must decide. What was her decision. See this picture. 25c. and 15c.
All shows commence at 8 p.m. Saturday nights only at 8 and 9:30.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS
POLICEMEN'S UNIFORMS
A cartoon illustration showing a man in a policeman's uniform being pulled into a doorway by another man. The man in uniform looks embarrassed. The man pulling him is holding a briefcase.

IT'S HEALTH
HEALTH AND STRENGTH IN EVERY LOAF
BREAD is an inexpensive agent of Good Health. And when baked by us it possesses an exquisite taste that invites eager consumption. Made fresh every day.
Henderson's Bakery