

Welbeck

(Our Own Correspondent)

On Tuesday evening of last week a few of the neighbors gathered to spend a social evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Goldsmith in their new home.

To Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Goldsmith, a few of your Welbeck friends have come to spend a social evening with you in your new home.

You have spent a number of years in this locality and it was here that you brought Mrs. Goldsmith as a bride.

Wishing you and Mrs. Goldsmith the best that the future years may hold.

The reply was brief, merely an explanation of his surprise and a hearty invitation to be friends and neighbors as usual and hoping to spend many more social evenings in the old community.

Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. Burgess took the service at Knox on Sunday and gave a good sermon from the text: "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth."

He said people have a wrong idea of the meaning of "meekness" and that the meek man is the one who obeys the laws of God.

Our Sunday school opened on Sunday again for the summer with a fair attendance and we hope to see a still larger number out.

Mr. Harry Caldwell and children, Mrs. W. Caldwell and Mrs. Norman Kerr motored to Hamilton on Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Caldwell and Milton, who still seems to be improving, though slowly.

Some hen thieving has been done in this neighborhood lately and it is sure a provoking thing after taking pains for a couple of years to get a good flock of hens and then have some sneak thief carry them off in the night.

Mr. William Marshall has rented his farm for pasture to Mr. William Porter of Knox Normanby. There are a lot of good farms at the present time going the same way.

Mr. A. R. Smith, barrister, of Unity, Sask., who was in attendance at a United church conference held in Toronto last week, came up over the week-end to spend a few days with his brother-in-law, Mr. Earl Mead.

Together they took in some of the beauty spots in the northern part of the county.

The returning officer for South East Grey has been making the rounds appointing officers for the coming Dominion election. Some of the plumbs have been given to dyed in the wool Grits while others have been handed to equally ardent U. F. O. members but in no case has a Conservative been given a consideration.

It seems like using the patronage to unite as one those two factions. In fact it looks like running around with a branding iron giving them each a little dab as they come to them to make them think they are all the same breed and belong to the one herd.

If this construction on their interests is incorrect then they are simply trying to carry out the emphatic statement of the Premier on the floor of the house that not a single five cent piece would be given to help furnish employment for Conservatives.

Mr. James Marshall showed his confidence in the coming season by threatening himself to a new seed drill and hay loader.

We join the Chronicle staff in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rows best wishes.

It will pay you to advertise in The Chronicle.
