At Home

ANT RUST

sulphur-dust at een days comare about oneas been found ny of the Dogriculture to be atrol of whitelack currants. oped through rimentation. It st came from nt bushes, apurrant leaves f development he white pine this treatment the currant that there is kinny, 22 Lbs."

n the leaves to

by was born I weak, skinny. king Ironized ine. Gained 22 Laura Benoit. Ironized Yeast eks. Ugly hols get graceful clears like mation, constipa-Sound sleep, lay.

one—special st and strenglittle tablets. dicated yeast. easty taste, no

y", tired, un-Yeast from eat tomorrow. acturer if not reate sales. stock lakes lingproxact fferss of care

se urham

ties of $30.00

$37.00

other rtlizer. ds of

Ont.

Come in & Chat Awhile -Ruth Raeburn.

The following article was taken from the Toronto Globe, and if these directions are read and remembered by all who visit the woods in spring and summer there will be more chance for the preservation of our wild flowers.

A GUIDE FOR FLOWER SEEKERS Mrs. W. J. Hanna, one of our readers who is President of the Sarnia Horticultural Society and Convener of the Committee for Wild Flower Preservation in the Ontario Horticultural Society, send us an interesting and helpful leaflet for the guidance of those who long to bring some of the beauty of the woods and fields into their homes, yet wish to preserve nature's own beauty in the leaflet: Wild flowers that should not be picked are: All wild Orchids and wild lilies, Pitcher Plants, Shooting Stars, Trilliums, Columbine, Water Lilies, Ladies' Slipper, Dogwood, Anemone, Fringed Gentian, Bluebells, Arethuso, Dutchman's Breeches, Maidenhair and Walking Fern, Spotted Wintergreen, Indian Pipe, False Spikenard.

to mothers for the instruction of the children is the information contained moderation if roots are not disturbed | nen." and plenty of flowers left to make seed: Lupine, Jack-in-the-Pulpit, Solomon's Seal, Spring Beauty, Hepatica, Dogtooth Violet, May Apple, Bloodroot, Ferns, Marsh Marigold, Wild Roses, Meadowsweet, Clematis, Wild Geranium, Meadow Rue, all common Violets, Yellow Wood Sorrel, Closed Gentian, Wintergreen, Marsh Pinks, Beardtongue, Iris, Butterfly Weed or Coral that may be picked freely: Asters, Gol- bers on both sides of the House accom- which engagement ended in a draw, Chamber of Commerce in Shreveport that the government seemed to con-Eggs, Daisy, Star of Bethlehem, Gold- Ernst, the brilliant young Conservative R. B. Bennett. An interesting passage stores were putting local dealers out of such a storm of protest arose that the en Ragwort, Cat-tails, Wild Carrot or from Queen's Lunenburg, and Duff ensued. Rev. Mr. Brown charged the business, and the speech impressed him notion was abandoned. So Mr. Hender-Weed or Touch-me-not, Wild Mustards, Liberal warrior from "down east". It issue in Saskatchewan. Hon. Mr. speaker to repeat it from his station ganda, his foundry products, his grape-Johnswort, Evening Primrose, Chicory, Milkweed. Dogbane. Morning Glory, Vervain, Mullein, Blazing Star, Ever-Bergamont, Joe-pye-weed, Golden Aster, Yarrow, Wild Sunflowers.

Cut wild flowers with scissors or pocket- knife; never pull them. leave enough to perfect seed.

of flowering or fruiting shrubs and It is precedent that makes a vote for trees. Never break or tear them off. this motion, a vote of approval of the various budget resolutions, the prospect Have some regard for appearances after principles contained in the budget, for the close of the session by May 30th the operation and give the wounds a Mr. Glen (Marquette) suggested in his at the latest, if not by May 23rd, is chance to heal.

grow unless they are lifted with plenty and voted on one at a time, and then of earth so the root is not broken, and have the vote of approval and disap- port of the special committee on soldplanted in the same kind of location proval of the whole Budget taken, as is iers' pensions. It is unanimous and, and watered faithfully the first season. the case in a bill. Two Conservatives while complicated, is expected to be If the plant was taken from an acid and one U. F. O. supported the Budget implemented by the house in legislation soil, put a mulch of oak leaves or pine the other members of the Opposition with but little delay. Its main provisneedles over it.

Fashion Fancies

is an easy matter if one has a water- over sixteen million pounds the monthly proof coat with a zipper closing. To prices with the exception of November, the world in 1929. Of the total tonnage dryer this season has double signific- were greater than the corresponding launched, well over half came from the ance for the spring raincoat is both prices for the months of 1925 when British yards. smart and practical. Gay silks such as only 95,000 pounds were imported. rayon shantung and crepe de chine are And in 1929 when the importations front line. It is a play with no worubberized to develop these coats, as amounted to almost thirty-six million men, without music, without beauty of are also a multitude of other materials, pounds, as against sixteen million in setting yet for almost three hours it even printed cottons. Models follow even printed cottons. Models follow leven printed cottons. The prices ran higher in all but leven leven printed cottons. Models follow leven printed cottons. The prices ran higher in all but leven leven printed cottons. Models follow leven printed cottons. The prices ran higher in all but leven leven printed cottons. The prices ran higher in all but leven leven printed cottons. The prices ran higher in all but leven lev formal dress and sports coats, as illus- three months. In two of those three viewer in the Ottawa Journa! says of it, individualizes this coat, with its snug corresponding months of 1929. Mr. The self-respect that made men carry waist. But most appealing of all its ports of dairy products exceed our imports is the zipepr closing which runs down the front from the collar to the down the front from the collar to the beauties. Instruction to the ducers for cream or anything else will for drink the beauties.

WORLD'S OLDEST BANKNOTE

of bank notes in the world, has just ter, he would receive a better price for Dante ever imagined—all these are debought the oldest-known piece of paper his commodity." it is hard to under- picted." money. It is printed in gold on mul- stand how a man holding these views The stupidity and the cruelty of the Kahn, the great Eastern trader, six hundred years ago. It used to be in hundred years ago. It used to be in berry bark, and was issued by Kulba could support the Budget. the possession of the Emperors of ed by an excellent English company. I thoughts that the play most deeply im-China, and was, it is believed, stolen saw it on Friday night. This war play pressed on my mind. This play ought

Miss Macphail's Letter

The most curious Budget in my Parliamentary experience was carried on May 15th by a majority of twentyeight. There were three votes, one on our sub-amendment, one on the Conservative amendment, and the third vote on the Budget itself. The first two were taken before dinner, and were not completed until 6.30, but true to Parliamentary tradition Mr. Speaker said, "It now being six o'clock. I leave the chair". When the House resumed at taken as a criterion. 8.30 the Conservative member for West Algoma, whose constituency is largely interested in steel, explained why he was going to vote for the Budget. Mr. Adshead, Labour, East Calgary, raigned the Government; because of his well-known friendship for the Liberal party, his charge was all the more telling in effect. He spoke in sorrow rather than in anger. "In fact the leaven of protection seems to have been permeating the Libera! party ever since spots unimpaired. Particularly valuable 1911. My honorable friends opposite at one time hated the name of protection. They despised it as something should not be espoused by their party but after seeing it for a while they to endure, then pity, and now we find them embracing it-much to the musement of my friends to the right.

It looks to me that what Canada needs at the present time is leadership; the leadership of men who have principles at heart, who believe in those principles, and who will carry Wild flowers that may be picked in them out in spite of whatever may hap-public opinion. It was living drama, of an impatience for the actual election W. Schacter in The Nation, Mr. Hen- be a skunk hide that will know that Mr. Adshead was as eloquent as his ut. There were no less than three major in Shreveport, Louisana, and as an ad- strikes us as rather vague and indeterance. The strain broke, and doubts tempests during the day and Rev. J. L. junct to his business he thought it finite and is hardly to be compared with and fears, plans and hopes were expres- Brown (Liberal, Lisgar) was the stormy might be a good idea to have a broad- the more directly libellous obscenities sed in the jeers and howls and inter- petrel in two of them. He engaged in casting station. So he rigged one up. of Mr. Henderson before the govern-Native and foreign flowers, (weeds) jections with which the Maritime memdispute with C. H. Dickie of Nanaimo, Then one day at a meeting of the ment curbed him. It might be said panied the fierce interchange between whereupon he opened combat with Hon. he heard a speaker tell how the chain template closing down his station but (Antigonish-Guysborough) the doughty Conservatives with raising a religious to such an extent that he invited the son, selling shi anti-chain store propais seldom the House witnesses such un- Bennett, in repudiating the charge, KWKH. He did so, and when he had fruit, his coffee, his insurance and his restrained party feeling. Public opin- showed for his part a copy of "L'Action finished Mr. Henderson stood briore trips to Mexico proceeds happily, reion in Canada is growing away from Catholique", a leading Liberal period- the microphone and said, "I am going joicing in the fame and prosperity that to be voting on the Budget it is in reality only voting to say, or not to say, Never strip a plant of all its flowers; "that the Speaker do now leave the marked Hon. Mr. Bennett, was typical account brokers in Wall Street. That's Chair, for the House to resolve itself Cut cleanly and sparingly, branches into committee of ways and means." Do not expect to have native plants have the items of the Budget discussed the best bet for election day. against, although the Budget contained some items of which we approved.

figures on the importation of butter and the butter price levels from 1923 to 1929. He said in part, "I believe that the duty which has been placed on Australian and New Zealand butter represents a short-sighted policy as far as the interests of Western Canada Commissioners will have no power to a pound. For this coffee Mr. Henderare concerned. If the trade returns from 1923 to 1929 are any criterion, not only do those who favour this duty de- doubtful to this new tribunal of nine. fact Mr. Henderson is rapidly building themselves of the right to preprive themselves of the right to pro. by which they will be decided. There up a fortune mainly because he haptest against tariff duties effecting their is a further appeal court of three memindustry, but there will be no corresponding benefit to the producers of butter. The following table shows the average monthly price for number 1 cream which obtained in Toronto during the years 1923 to 1929 inclusive. The prices are given at cents per pound of butter fat and are as follows:

1923	'24	'25	'26	'27	'28	'29
January41	44	37	43	43	40	44
February41	45	33	43	44	1.00	44
March48	44	33	45	45	43	46
April43	35	33	45	47	43	46
May 31	31	35	35	43	40	40
June32	32	34	35	35	37	37
July 31	34	35	34	35	36	38
August32	34	36	35	35	37	40
September36	36	37			40	41
October 37	37-	40	34	40	41	42
November38	37	42	35	40	41	42
December 42	39	43	39	40	44	43
The imports of	of b	utte	er fo	r th	e ye	ears
1923 to 1929 wer
	A. 0.3000

1,588,000 1924 903.000 95,000 1926 5.812,000 11,206,000 1927 16,797,000 1928 35,928,000

Mr. Glen pointed out that in 1928 Zipping fashionably through the rain when the imports amounted to well Bright blue rubberized crepe de chine ber 1928 was the price less than in the lienced in the front line was depicted. double collar and nipped-in Glen added. "Just so long as our ex- on in face of almost inhuman fear. daintiest frock that may hover beneath. depend upon the prices ruling on the that might never more be seen, the markets of the world. It is natural for thirst for honors, the joke that was a producer to accept the statements split between the very jaws of death, made to him by interested parties and and the weariness of the stench, the Fred Catling, of West Kensington, to believe that were it not for the im- blood-shed, the noise, the vermin and who has the most remarkable collection portation of certain quantities of but- the horror of the hell more deep than from a tomb during the Boxer Rebel- was written by R. C. Sherriff, and de- to do much to insure the world against picts life in an officer's dugout on the a further war.

Our Ottawa Letter

If the present temper of the major parties in the Commons is to last into people who never would have been Canada is on the verge of witnessing a joy international reputations. We sugpolitical struggle which should be gest at random Graham McNamee, spectacular in its vigor. That is, if the Amos 'n' Andy and W. K. Henderson. Legislature which is frankly designed to contention which surrounded the ad- The last named has not won fame be- tax the chain stores out of business. option of the Dunning budget can be cause his art is particularly designed to Just before the vote was called the leg-

There was little that was unexpected about the result. The government's majority of 28, to which two Conserva- he indulged in language which thouested in the steel industry contributed, pretend they had never heard before. simply the norma! margin by which and his profanity added a piquancy to doubtable Henderson and the equally the present administration, elected four his denunciation of the chain store redoubtable Clarence Saunders. Not years ago, rules the house. As was to system that won him a tremendous long ago Mr. Saunders was pointed to has no pretence to high art and it rebe expected, the Conservative amend- audience. He was also extremely daring with pride as one of the younger busment charging lack of confidence was and outspoken, apart altogether from iness men of the United States who had also rejected on a straight political vote, the strong language with which he made a tremendous success. He was, while the Progressive amendment 12- larded his discourse. People wondered in fact, the founder of the Piggly voring an extension of the British pre- how he "got away with it". They Wiggly grocery stores. Then misforference was snowed under by a vote of wondered why he was not arrested and tune overwhelmed Clarence and his 177 to 19, not, however, before it had convicted of crimina! libel. Certainly picture was removed from the gallery served its purpose of putting the agri- he said things that no reputable newscultural group on record before their paper would have taken a chance in is now operating a chain of stores under constituents of having associated them saying. He denounced chain stores as his own name in the south and he and local dance hall. She meets and falls selves in an effort to both lower the Upton Sinclair might denounce capital- Henderson have become the chief an- in love with the son of a Peer. Of tariff and encourage British trade, pro- ists in one of his novels. He named tagonists in this battle. The gladiators course the boy's mother objects, but by commonly supposed to favor.

climaxed was the most interesting feat- | lethal uproar. In the end he was ask-The House was crowded. The galler- warm. Both tenseness upon the part wise his ravings continue. ies were full to the roof, and every of the respective parties, eager to asmember was in his place on the floor. sai! the opposition speakers upon any One got the sensation that the Govern- vulnerable point, and the vigor with ment was standing before the bar of which they jumped to the attack, told party play, and demanding attention to ical of Quebec, which carried a por- to tell you what that address means. radio has brought him. trait of Hon. Ernest Lapointe on its It means that these dirty, sneaking Oddly enough when the House is said front, and a cartoon of Premier Ander- chain stores are coming into your home son burning the separate schools of town and taking your money and send-Saskatchewan on its back. That, re- ing it out to a bunch of crooked noof the Liberal Campaign in Quebec.

With the budget adopted and work commenced upon the passage of the speech that it would be much better to bright. July 28th is still regarded as

The house has before it the final reion is that in any case the soldier is to receive the benefit of the doubt, a fea-Mr. Glen gave some very interesting Mr. Bennett advocated it three years ago. The pension machinery, moreover, is radically altered by the appointment of a new tribunal of nine members, two of whom make a quorum, which is to be distributed over four sections in Canada. In future the Board of Pension report are the restoration to pension all over the United States. of the soldiers who commuted their pension for a lump sum, this sum, of be eligible for pension.

The recommendations of the committee are being viewed favorably by the Conservative opposition, being, in fact, in principle, the very changes for which Hon. Mr. Bennett, Dr. Peter Mc-Gibbon, and others have been contending since 1927. The liquor export bill is still being postponed from time to time in the Senate, awaiting the tabling of the proposed anti-smuggling treaty with the United States. It is now scheduled to be taken up for third reading on Tuesday. Meanwhile the Upper Chamber has passed the Western Resources bills, and is engaging in debate upon the measure to create a Divorce Court in Ontarie.

BEAT THE WORLD

In Shipbuilding, Great Britain beat

HENDERSON, THE ANNOUNCER WHO HATES CHAIN STORES

Quite a list might be compiled of general election campaign, then heard of but for radio but who now encharm radio listeners. He has won islator convulsed the House by emitting fame because he owns a broadcasting Henderson's well-known war station and because in his broadcasts "Hello, World, don't go away, doggone tives whose ridings are strongly inter- sands of his listeners would be glad to was not unexpected. It represented Mr. Henderson, in fact, was profane, ba! battle proceeding between the rejects both in which their ridings are names. He called skunks. He thrilled are not identically equipped. One has skilfully rescuing the mother from the his audiences who expected every mo- the trident and the other the net. toils of a rascally blackmailer, Cinder-The temper of the house during the proceedings which the various votes by the sounds of pistol shots and other and Henderson his faithful KWKH. A Constant Nymph" and she has opporure of the day. It was undeniably ed to discontinue his profanity. Other-

The Accidental Crusader

Mr. Henderson appears to have become a crusader against chain stores what it means."

Fame for Henderson

To us the comment does not seem very pregnant. But it did for Henderson what a poem did for Byron. He woke to find himself famous. In the next few days he received literally thousands of messages from retail dealers in all parts of the United States. They had been ruined or were in process of being ruined by the chain stores and they hailed Mr. Henderson as their deliverer. He also received abusive communications. The total effect was to set Mr. Henderson in fire with a kind of holy zeal. The extermination of the chain stores became thereafter his consuming passion. But not his only consuming passion. He has two or three. For instance, he continues to sell foundry products and also he has established an extremely profitable side line in the sale of coffee at a dollar refuse any applicant a pension, but son pays 40c and it is said that he remust refer all cases to which they are ceives orders for 1,500 pounds a day. In bers established. Other features of the of tens of thousands of little merchants

Stirs Up the South

From merely denouncing the chain course, to be charged against the pen- stores over the radio Mr. Henderson sion to which they would have been en- proceeded actively to organize the optitled, and the provision that widows position to them. He has established who married a returned soldier subse- what he calls the Merchants' Minute quent to the appearance of his disabil- Men. All that is necessary for member-year. This, too, has succeeded and today there are anywhere between 10,000 and 20,000 members in the smaller towns in the south. The chain stores have felt the pressure of the Henderson crusade, and in Birmingham, Ala. bama, it is estimated that the leading chain store has lost a third of its business. Everywhere through the South business has fallen off, despite cut prices and indignant arguments in refutation of Mr. Henderson. In Ken-your buttons". The Happy Warriars specimen of the Saunders persiflage is submitted:

"You said that if I were near you, you'd spit in my face. Now listen to me Rat Henderson, whenever you think you are skunk enough to try this, let the boy in the case, while Hilda Moore

Sing, Boys, Sing!

Everyone's against you? Well, they won't be long; Nothing veers so quickly As a thoughtless throng! Don't take any notice, But keep on along, Pull your belt up tighter And just sing this song: Where there is a valley

There's a hil! as well; What will come tomorrow You can never tell. Life is rather dreary? Well, it might be worse! Some folks may be looking In an empty purse. Quite a spark you'll bring, If you find some laughter

And you start to sing: Where there is a valley There's a hil! as well; What will come tomorrow You can never tell.

Clouds are round about you? Well, they'l! blow away! Darkness goes with morning, Night must leave for day. Rain can't last forever; Snow goes wit the Spring; Take your old umbrella And just gaily sing:

Where there is a valley There's a hill as well; What will come tomorrow You can never tell.

Native police busily at work combatting the riots which broke out when Nationalists defied the Salt laws. Notice the rebel in the right foreground offering passive resistance to his arrest. Another major cause o fdisturbances was the arrest of the Mayor of Calcutta and the President of the Congress: Street cars were set on fire and many of the-rioters plunged into the canal to avoid arrest.

NERVES ALL SHOT

SAVED FROM BLACKMAIL BY SON'S SWEETHEART

Maurice Elvey has a great faculty for producing popular film fare and hi latest production, "Palais de Danse' which comes to the Star Theatre next Friday and Saturday, is no exception sorts to no tricks of technique to catch "intellectual" praise-it is just straightforward melodrama, thoroughly up-todate with its exploitation of the modern Mabel Poulton, who is considered the most expert of all the artists playing girl-woman roles, has a Cinderella-like Constant Nymph" and she has opportunities for a display of the whimsical humor which made the latter film such Handsome Robin Irvine, the screen's premier juvenile lead, has the role of as the jazz-mad mother and John Longden, a crafty professional dancing partner, are alike excellent.

Still, the knights of old who gained a lot of credit for standing up for women, did not have to do it in a street car.-Border Cities Star.

and relieves irritation.

At your Druggist

ROWE'S Bakery & Provision Store

Fldur The Finest Manitoba $4.25 $4.50

Pastry Flour 24 lb $1.00 Goods Delivered Mnywhere in Town

E. A. Rowe Baker & Confectioner