Mulock

(Our Own Correspondent)
 The members of the Ladies' Aid of Mulock Baptist church visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Reay on Friday evening and presented the latter's mother, Mrs. William Brown with an electric iron. The following address was read: Dear Mrs. Brown,—We, the members of Mulock Ladies Aid are here tonight to spend a social time with you, before you leave us for your new home in Hanover. You have been one of our most valued members and always willing and ready to do all in your power to make the Aid a success. We would like to show our gratitude in some more tangible form than mere words. We beg you to accept this small token of our respect and esteem. You go from among us, we assure you, taking with you the very best wishes of every member of Mulock Ladies' Aid. May God richly bless you in health and strength that you may be spared to continue your good work in the church in Hanover, and make frequent visits to renew acquaintances in Mulock.
 Signed on behalf of the Mulock Ladies' Aid.
 A very pleasant event took place in Bentinck Baptist church Friday evening of last week, when a reception of both Bentinck and Glenelg congregations was tendered their new pastor, Rev. John and Mrs. Galloway and son Robert have already created a most favorable impression and hopes are high that his pastorate among us may be fruitful and accomplish much good. Mr. Dan McLean, clerk of the church occupied the chair and did honor to the position. In opening Mr. MacLean said that the church members felt some opportunity should be provided the congregations of meeting Rev. and Mrs. Galloway directly and the idea of a reception was decided upon. Mr. A. C. MacDonald on behalf of the church extended the most hearty welcome to them and asked Mrs. Galloway to accept the beautiful bouquet of flowers on behalf of the ladies of the church presented by Miss Sarah MacLean.
 To welcome them were brother ministers, Rev. Richards of Hanover, and Rev. Priest of Durham. Messrs. Allan Bell, Durham, and R. I. Knechtel of Hanover were also present and delivered short addresses of welcome. Mrs. Priest and Miss Eva Redford of Durham entertained the audience with charming solos. Mr. John MacDonald student of McMaster University spoke a few words of welcome. Lunch was then served.
 We were pleased to have as our guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Miss Edith Long and Miss Mabel Fost of Walkerton, Mr. A. Redford and Miss Eva of Durham.
 Mrs. A. C. MacDonald, Mr. John MacDonald, Mr. Elton Adiam and Mrs. Dan MacLean attended the Baptist Association at Meaford Tuesday of this week.
 Rev. and Mrs. Galloway and son Robert went to Niagara Falls this week to attend the marriage of the former's sister. Rev. Galloway will perform the ceremony. The bridal couple will return with Rev. and Mrs. Galloway.

Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)
 Mr. Thomas took the service at Knox on Sunday and gave a most interesting sermon from the story of Mary and the alabaster box of ointment. Be it much or little, if given to Jesus, as in the story of the lad's small loaves and fishes, multiplied so that thousands were fed and abundance left. He said if we had never given anything to the Master, to give ourselves to Him now and see if He would not pour us out a blessing.
 The Misses Robinson of Toronto spent the 24th at the Petty home. Miss Esther Petty was also home from her school over the week-end.
 The Mission Band and Y. W. A. met at the home of Mrs. John Marshall on Saturday, the 24th, for their first meeting this season. Quite a number were present and an interesting meeting was held. Mrs. Marshall served lunch at the close.
 Mr. and Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Norman Marshall and baby of Toronto spent over the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall.
 Miss T. E. Byers spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Caswell in town.
