OTHER PAPERS' OPINIONS

The Biter Bitten The sports editor of the Owen Sound Sun-Times is sore at Stratford for taking away Sutcliffe and says: "Owen Sound has, in the past few years, been playing almost strictly home brew talent on their team, only bringing in outsiders from the towns where there were no O.H.A. teams and at the near vicinity. Then, when they were ready to produce results, Stratford comes to town and walks off with one of the players and disrupts the whole works. Stratford has become notorious in the past few years for its habit of doing this sort of thing. It can't go on forever and Sutcliffe will be extremely lucky if the O.H.A. grants him a certificate to play. In fact, it is about time the O. H. A. clamped the screws down on some of the towns, Stratford in particular and others in general. Stratford took two of the stars of the north country when they grabbed Galardi and Silverthorn last year. Galardi had already left the railway town and has gone to Niagara Falls. He is an-
