OBITUARY

MRS. WILLIAM HUNTER

Mrs. William Hunter, an almost life-long resident of the township of Egremont, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Mather, here, on Thursday of last week, following a very brief illness. Mrs. Hunter was in her 79th year and the immediate cause of death was old age combined with a shock she received nearly two years ago in a motor car wreck at Barber's Corners, from which she never fully recovered.

The late Mrs. Hunter, whose maiden name was Mary Hamilton, was born in Peterhead, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and when only two years of age came with her parents to Canada, the family settling near Fergus. Nine years later, in 1864, they moved to Egremont township, settling on the farm near Wilder's Lake, for many years held in the Hamilton name. Here she resided until her marriage in 1874 to Mr. William Hunter, who died eight years ago. They took up farming on Lot 4, Con. 20, Egremont, now owned and occupied by her son, Reeve W. H. Hunter, where the deceased spent the remainder of her life up until two years ago when she came to Durham to live with her daughter, Mrs. James Mather. Mrs. Hunter was a woman held in high esteem and her death is a matter of regret to many old Egremont and Durham friends and acquaintances.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, a short service being held at the home here, after which the remains were taken to Amos church, Dromore, where the funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. W. H. Smith of Knox United church. Interment was made in Amos cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters Mrs. James Mather (Ellen) Durham; Mrs. D. Gilmour (Agnes), Burgessville; and two sons, Reeve W. H. Hunter and Mr. Andrew Hunter, both living in Egremont. Surviving also are two sisters, Mrs. H. Vollett, Rosetown, Sask., and Mrs. R. Baird, St. Thomas, N.D., and three brothers, Mr. D. Hamilton of Durham, William of Regina, Sask., and James of Saskatoon.

The pall bearers were all old friends and former neighbors, being Messrs. T. E. Brown, J. Henry, A. Henry, S. M. Patterson, Joseph Lawrence and M. Patterson.

JAMES A. HUNTER

The announcement last Saturday morning of the death on Friday at a hospital in Minneapolis, Minnesota, of Mr. James A. Hunter was a decided shock to relatives and friends here, who previous to the announcement of his passing were not aware that he was ill. The late Mr. Hunter would be about 60 years of age, was born in Durham, the son of the late J. H. Hunter, M.P., and Mrs. Hunter, and for a time conducted the Big Store in lower town following the removal of the well-known merchandising house founded by his father from its location in upper town.

About 30 years ago the late Mr. Hunter disposed of his business here and moved West, subsequently locating in Minneapolis, where he became the head of a large insurance business in Minnesota, with branches in every important centre in the state. He was one of the prominent business men in Minneapolis, was an internationally known curler and sportsman, and his death at a comparatively early age will be much regretted not only by those who knew him in Durham but also by his business associates in the United States.

No particulars of his illness have come to hand at time of writing other than that he suffered from uremic poisoning and underwent an operation in the hospital at Minneapolis. His condition from the first was serious and his sister, Mrs. Lorne Somerville of Toronto, left for his bedside immediately upon receipt of the news of the seriousness of his illness. Delays in the train en route prevented her from reaching her brother's bedside and he passed away a few hours before her arrival.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Miss Christina White, daughter of Sir Thomas White of Winnipeg, and a son and daughter. Besides his family he is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. H. Hunter of Toronto, a sister Blanche (Mrs. Lorne Somerville) also of Toronto, and one brother, Lieut.-Col. Fred F. Hunter, for the past 30 years an officer in the British Imperial army, with services in India, Persia and Mesopotamia. The latter is now thought to be on the high seas on his way home and could not be communicated with, and will know nothing of his brother's death until he gets into communication with his family on landing.

The funeral services were held at Minneapolis on Monday, interment being in Minneapolis.

VARNEY U. F. O.

The Varney United Farm Women met last week in the home of Mrs. J. J. Wilton and had an interesting meeting. Mrs. J. Marshall read an article written by the late Peter MacArthur. Mrs. Palmer Patterson had a splendid paper on "High Ideals". A representative of an aluminum firm was present and gave a demonstration of waterless cooking. The same evening the U. F. O. club met and Mr. Earl Meade presided. At the close of the meeting the men met with the ladies for lunch.

"A Woodland Kirk"

By D. F. Graham, aged 12
Canna ye hear the bluebells ringin'?
Canna ye hear the birds' choir singin'?
Canna ye hear the jack-in-the-pulpit,
Preach his sermon to many a culprit?
The bluebells are ringin'
To wark; wake-robin;
The mourning dove's in ecstasies,
Her heart's jist throbbin'.
Here ye have the Woodland Kirk
Underneath the shady birk
Ye canna do this?
Hoot, Mon! Come on and live!
