BENEDICTS 8-HOLSTEIN 5 Revenge is sweet. Ask the Benedicts. When they went to Holstein a week or so ago they came home with the short end of the score. Tuesday night Holstein visited here and the married men had their turn sending the visitors home on the wrong side of an 8-5 score. It was one of those games that is in doubt until the last ball is pitched, and Holstein came within a cat's whisker of winning out. It was the last of the seventh innings, with the Benedicts at bat. Last Friday's game aptly illustrates ing even when the odds against them seemed too great to overcome.

Ritchie's two fumbles in the tenth were pure bad luck. After an almost perfect fielding average for the rest of the game he missed two that "looked" easy. However it is easy to criticize. Ned Burnett took a dive at one that would have been a credit on any spring board. Tough luck though it got away on him. After a nice recovery of Schutz's long hit it was a tough break for Millard to heave the ball into the middle of the hydro wires when making a throw to home. It gave the necessary entra

Havens was in hard luck all right. When his big hit came he had to gallop round the bases on his lonesome. And runs were needed. The Benedicts certainly made hits count on Tuesday night. And they got them when they were needed Two walks coupled with a single by Elvidge and Sparling's triple did the damage. McBeth needs some running practise. A little faster and he would have beaten a double play in the fielding by Holstein. Nobody seems to have any definite idea of what the foul tip rule is or should be. Some claim the agreement was made at the first of the season that any foul tip caught was out. The rule is that on the first two strikes the foul must go at least seven feet in the air. Some ruling or agreement should be laid down on this point so everyone understood.
