

DURHAM CLUB HELD ANNUAL PICNIC

Wet Weather Kept Some at Home, But Good Crowd Was on Hand Anyway.—Toronto Association Still Fakes Deep Interest in Durham Hospital.

The Durham Club of Toronto closed a successful season with a picnic held in High Park on Friday, June 20. Owing to the uncertain weather early in the day, and some other picnics, the attendance was not quite so large as in former years but still over fifty were present and enjoyed to the full the supper which the club members know so well how to provide, and provide in abundance. All were pleased to see the members who had been ill back with them once more.

After supper an interesting series of races took place. This was followed by a game of baseball, which, if not played exactly according to association rules, at least provided a deal of amusement for both players and spectators. Dr. Lauder proved another Babe Ruth.

Though the club has not increased its numbers, its interest in Durham's hospital has never flagged. The meetings are greatly enjoyed by the members and visitors to the parties remark on the kind and friendly feeling displayed by all, and the air of genuine hospitality which prevails. The club would like to expand, and increase its usefulness, and a most cordial invitation is extended to all former residents of Durham, or of any place within a radius of thirty miles of that town, to attend the meetings which are advertised each month. Any lady may come with no other invitation and be sure of a cordial welcome from both the hostess and club members.

Mrs. Scarf, the work secretary, has just sent to the hospital a bale containing about 150 articles made by the club during the winter. Included in these are fourteen nightdresses for the comfort of our very newest Canadians. And the members hope that when the patients in the hospital use those nice, soft face towels they will think, "A friend in Toronto made it for my comfort," and perhaps it will help a little.

HYMENAL

SAUNDERS—WHITMORE

The home of Mrs. James Whitmore, Upper Town, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Thursday at 12 o'clock noon when her youngest daughter, Amelia, became the bride of Mr. Alister Saunders, son of Mrs. Thomas and the late Thomas Saunders of Durham. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. W. D. Staples of Hanover, and the bridal party entered the room to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Norma Gagnon. Rev. E. Hayes of Trinity Anglican church was the officiating clergyman. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present.

The bride looked most becoming in her wedding gown of white crepe romaine and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and roses. During the signing of the register Mr. Bert Saunders, brother of the groom, sang "Until".

Following the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left by motor for Barrie, Orillia, and Muskoka points, the bride travelling in an orchid dress and hat, navy coat with beige squirrel collar, blonde shoes and accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will reside in Durham.

MOOREHEAD—AGAR

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity Church, Durham, on Wednesday, May 25, at noon, when Eva, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Agar of Waldeck, Sask., was united in marriage to Graydon, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moorehead, of Durham. Rev. E. Hayes, the pastor, officiated. The church was prettily decorated with red and white peonies, roses and ferns. At the appointed time the bride entered the church on the arm of her grandfather, Mr. Charles Agar of Drayton, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. S. Rowe. The bride looked charming in a gown of white satin, with tight fitting bodice and bouffant skirt with uneven hemline, and white shoes, stockings and long white gloves. A circlet of orange blossoms held in place the long tulle veil in cap effect. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, lily-of-the-valley and fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Ila Fell, of Dundalk, cousin of the bride was prettily dressed in a French blue gown trimmed with sand and matching accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and fern.

Mr. Irvin Schutz of Durham was best man. During the signing of the register Mrs. S. Rowe sang "In the Garden of Your Heart", accompanied by Miss Eula Burnett. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace and bracelet of white agate set in white gold, to the bridesmaid a compact, to the best man a leather bill fold, and to the organist and accompanist china.

After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the groom's parents where the wedding dinner was served. The room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers from a large white bell hung over the centre of the table, pink and white peonies and rosebuds. The three storey wedding cake was in the centre of the table. The young couple left on the 2.30 C.N.R. train for a three weeks' trip to the home of the bride in Waldeck, Sask. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Moorehead will reside in Toronto.

ALLAN PARK WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Allan Park Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. John Sharp on Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance of members and visitors present.

The meeting opened with the usual opening ode followed by the Lord's prayer in unison. The president was in the chair and Mrs. Alf. Bailey read the Scripture reading. Community singing was then enjoyed by all. The roll call was answered with a verse of poetry. An interesting question drawer was then staged. A vocal number by junior members was much enjoyed.

The Ladies will put on a garden party in Brigham's Grove in the third week in July. The younger members are preparing the program and a good time is anticipated. Miss Myrtle Charlton read a very interesting paper on "Cut Flowers". A bean contest was then introduced with a prize given to the one guessing the number of beans in a jar. Miss Reta Mountain won the prize.

The ladies remained for a social half hour over tea cups while hostess and assistants served lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. James Park, July 9.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the McKinnon hall on Sunday, July 6, and preparatory service on Wednesday, July 2 at 8 p.m. Keep the date in mind.

Mr. James Sturrock, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks and Betty and Miss Jean McLeod, visited Tuesday evening at Mr. Gordon McLeod's, Swinton Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Colin McLean motored to Guelph on Wednesday.

Mr. Innis McLean of Toronto is home for a visit with his parents.

Rev. Mr. Davidson of Maple Valley will occupy the pulpit next Sabbath. Mr. John Cook and lady friend, and Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean visited last week at A. L. Hincks.

On Tuesday last ladies of the W. H. and W. M. S. met in the hall and quilted two quilts for the bale. Arrangements were made for the garden party for this Thursday evening.

Mr. Donald McMillan had the misfortune to have one of his horses killed with lightning.

One of the worst storms of the season was on Monday night and lasted till 3 a.m. Mr. D. G. McLean's house was struck with lightning.

In loving memory of Miss Annie Hay, who was killed in a car accident on June 24, 1924.

God knew that she would suffer
And the hill seemed hard to climb,
So he closed her weary eye lids,
So he whispered "Peace be thine."
—Fondly remembered by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks.

OBITUARY

MRS. ANDREW BAKER

Mrs. Andrew Baker, for the past five years or so a resident of this town passed away quite suddenly last Thursday evening about five o'clock from a stroke of paralysis, expiring in a chair in her home on Countess street. She had not been particularly ill and her sudden death was a severe shock to her husband and family. For the previous couple of weeks she had been suffering from an attack of influenza but was apparently recovering, when seized with paralysis. The deceased had been up and about the house as usual, had partaken of her dinner and was sitting in her chair when the end came. She was in her 77th year.

The late Mrs. Baker was born in Normanby, near Blyth's Corners, and had lived her whole life in this neighborhood. Her maiden name was Sarah Lowey. About 50 years ago she was married to Ezra Becker of Normanby, who died in 1904. Surviving from this union is a family of one son, George, in Durham, and one daughter, Mrs. Gorman of Seattle, Washington. In 1906 she was married to Mr. Andrew Baker, who survives. There was no family from the second marriage. About five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Baker came to live in Durham, where they have remained ever since.

The funeral was held from the home on Saturday afternoon, the service being conducted by the Rev. J. T. Priest of the Baptist church, the remains being taken to Maplewood cemetery, where interment was made.

MRS. AGNES DAVIS

Another of the fine old pioneers of this section was called to her reward on Monday in the person of Mrs. Agnes Davis, widow of the late John Davis, who passed away at the home of her son, David B. Davis, Egremont, on Monday. She was in her 94th year and among the oldest residents of this cheerful disposition, with many friends who will regret exceedingly to learn of her death.

The late Mrs. Davis had never been ill and was indisposed for only a few days before her death. Her death was due to old age and the wearing out of a constitution that braved the hardship of pioneer days and brought her down all through the years with what she said to have been a perfect health record. We learn she never required the services of a doctor. Mrs. Davis was born in Pennycuik, Scotland, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Vessie of Glenelg, who farmed about a mile north of the town on the Garafra road. When quite a young girl she came to Canada with her parents and lived on the parental homestead until her marriage nearly 75 years ago to Mr. Davis, who died some 25 years ago. The young couple took up farming on the farm now occupied by Mr. R. Ector in Glenelg, which they later disposed of and removed to Bentinck, returning to Glenelg in a few years to take up their abode on their farm at Darkies' Corners.

Since the death of her husband 15 years ago, Mrs. Davis has made her home with her son, David B., for the past number of years living on the second concession of Egremont. Surviving are five sons and three daughters, Messrs. David B., Egremont; John Thomas and William J., Durham; John in Manitoulin, who only two weeks ago visited his mother after an absence of forty years; Albert in Calgary, Alberta; Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. James Heslip, Bentinck, and Mrs. J. Knisley, Durham. One son, Matthew, died nearly two years ago, while two daughters, Ann J. and Maria, died some years ago.

The funeral yesterday afternoon from her late residence in Egremont was very largely attended. The service was taken by the Rev. E. Hayes of Trinity church, Durham, of which the deceased was a member, and interment was in the family plot in Trinity church cemetery.

The pall bearers were James Vessie, William Vessie, Earl Vessie, Jesse Knisley, William Edge and James Heslip. The flowers included wreaths from the family, grandchildren and Mrs. William Lawrence.

THE LATE J. A. HUNTER

Last week we referred to the sudden death at Minneapolis of Mr. James A. Hunter, a native of Durham but a resident of the Minnesota city for the past thirty years. The late Mr. Hunter was a man much thought of in Minneapolis, occupying a prominent position in this city of approximately half a million people, as shown in a letter from Dr. D. C. MacKenzie of Fort Francis, Ont., a boyhood and lifelong friend of the deceased. Writing to friends here Dr. MacKenzie refers to the profusion of flowers and says that the memory of the occasion will always be very vivid and lasting in his memory, and tells of the terrible shock he received on arrival in Minneapolis to learn that Mr. Hunter had passed away.

He speaks of "the beautiful response of the city in general with their flags at half-mast, their wonderful floral contribution costing thousands of dollars and the attendance at the funeral of all the most prominent, influential and wealthiest of that beautiful city's population, the expression of grief at the service where the majority were weeping and trying to conceal their emotion, were a fitting tribute to the wonderful 'super-man' he was, and I was indeed pleased to know that others besides myself appreciated the worth of this companion of my youth and through life.

"It is a consolation to know he is resting in peace in such a beautiful spot and amidst such beautiful surroundings—just such a spot as he would have elected himself. He radiated sunshine always which was spread to all who came in contact with him and he got all out of life that was worth while."

Mr. MacKenzie gave expression to many other things in his letter, which was a private one, and we refrain from reproducing it in full. It will be a great satisfaction to Mr. Hunter's many former friends in Durham and vicinity to learn that their old friend was held in the same esteem in Minneapolis as in his native town where he was born and where the first 30 years of his life were spent.

REV. PETER E. NICHOL

Rev. Peter E. Nichol, well-known Presbyterian minister and native of this locality, died Friday evening at the home of his son, Ewing W. Nichol, London, Ont. The late Mr. Nichol was born in Glenelg township, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichol. He graduated from Knox College in 1890 and after his graduation he served in the ministry at Wyandotte, Mich., Bay City, Mich., and St. Mark's church, Toronto. He was a man of distinguished ability, loving to serve in difficult places. At this time in his career he engaged in evangelistic work in the Eastern States for several years. He then took up the pastorate of Tilbury Presbyterian church, from there coming to Knollwood Park, London. He was retired for the past 15 years, but during the war served in North and South Missouri charges as supply.

Two months ago while preaching in Durham, Mr. Nichol suffered a slight stroke and since that time had been in failing health. He lived in London for about 21 years.

He was predeceased by his wife, formerly Miss Christina R. Ewing, of Toronto, about two and a half years ago. Surviving are three sons, Peter E. and Ben R. of Detroit and Ewing W. of London, one daughter, Mrs. E. W. Horner, also of London, and three brothers, Walter, William and J. C. Nichol, all of Durham; also four sisters Miss Susie, Miss Agnes and Miss Nellie of Toronto, and Mr. George Penny of Pasadena, Calif.

The funeral service was held in Knollwood Park Presbyterian church on Monday and was conducted by the Presbytery of London.

MRS. ALBERT NOBLE

Following an operation for appendicitis, performed in the Durham Red Cross Hospital Tuesday evening, Mrs. Albert T. Noble passed away about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Heart failure was the immediate cause of death, the patient coming out of the anaesthetic in apparently good condition only to have the heart fail early the next morning. Besides the appendicitis Mrs. Noble was suffering from inflammation of the bowels and from inflammation of the bowels and from her physique could withstand. The news of her passing was a great shock to the whole town as she was a woman of god health, was seldom ill, and apparently in the best of physical condition.

The late Mrs. Noble was before her marriage eighteen years ago, Miss Winifred Lauder. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Lauder and the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicola Valley, British Columbia, a little over 39 years ago. Following the death of her mother she and her brothers came East with their father some 32 years ago, residing for some years in the vicinity of Varney until 18 years ago when the deceased was married to Mr. Albert T. Noble, who moved to St. Marys. In 1915 they returned to Durham where they have been continuous residents ever since. The late Mrs. Noble was a woman of a bright and sunny disposition, was a prime favorite with hosts of friends in town, and her sudden passing is a shock from which they will not soon recover.

Surviving are Mr. Noble, one daughter, Marjorie, and four sons, George, Carman, Billie and Norman. One brother, Cameron, proprietor of Durham Dairy, and two sisters, Mrs.

George Harbottle (Blanche), Pine Falls, Manitoba, and Mrs. (Dr.) Lewis (Dell) of Toronto, also survive.

Awaiting word from relatives in the West, funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

MANY HAPPENINGS THIS WEEK CAUSE LACK OF SPACE

The Chronicle this week has had a hard time finding space for accounts of the many happenings of the past week. Some articles we regret to say had to be shortened considerably and others including the sporting column were omitted altogether. Folks who say that there is nothing doing in a small town don't know anything.

BORN

Samms.—In Durham Red Cross Hospital on Friday, June 20, 1930, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Samms, of Varney, a son.

IN MEMORIAM

McKenzie.—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John McKenzie, who passed away June 27, 1928.—Sadly missed by her daughters.

Beside your grave we often stand
With hearts both crushed and sore,
But in the gloom sweet words come—
Not lost, but gone before.

God knows how much we miss you,
He counts the tears we shed,
And whispers, "Hush, she's only sleeping."

Your loved one is not dead,
We will be brave, dear mother,
And pray to God each day,
And when He calls us home to Heaven,
Your loving smile will guide the way.
