He was transferred to the residency at Port Hope early this spring.

HYMENAL

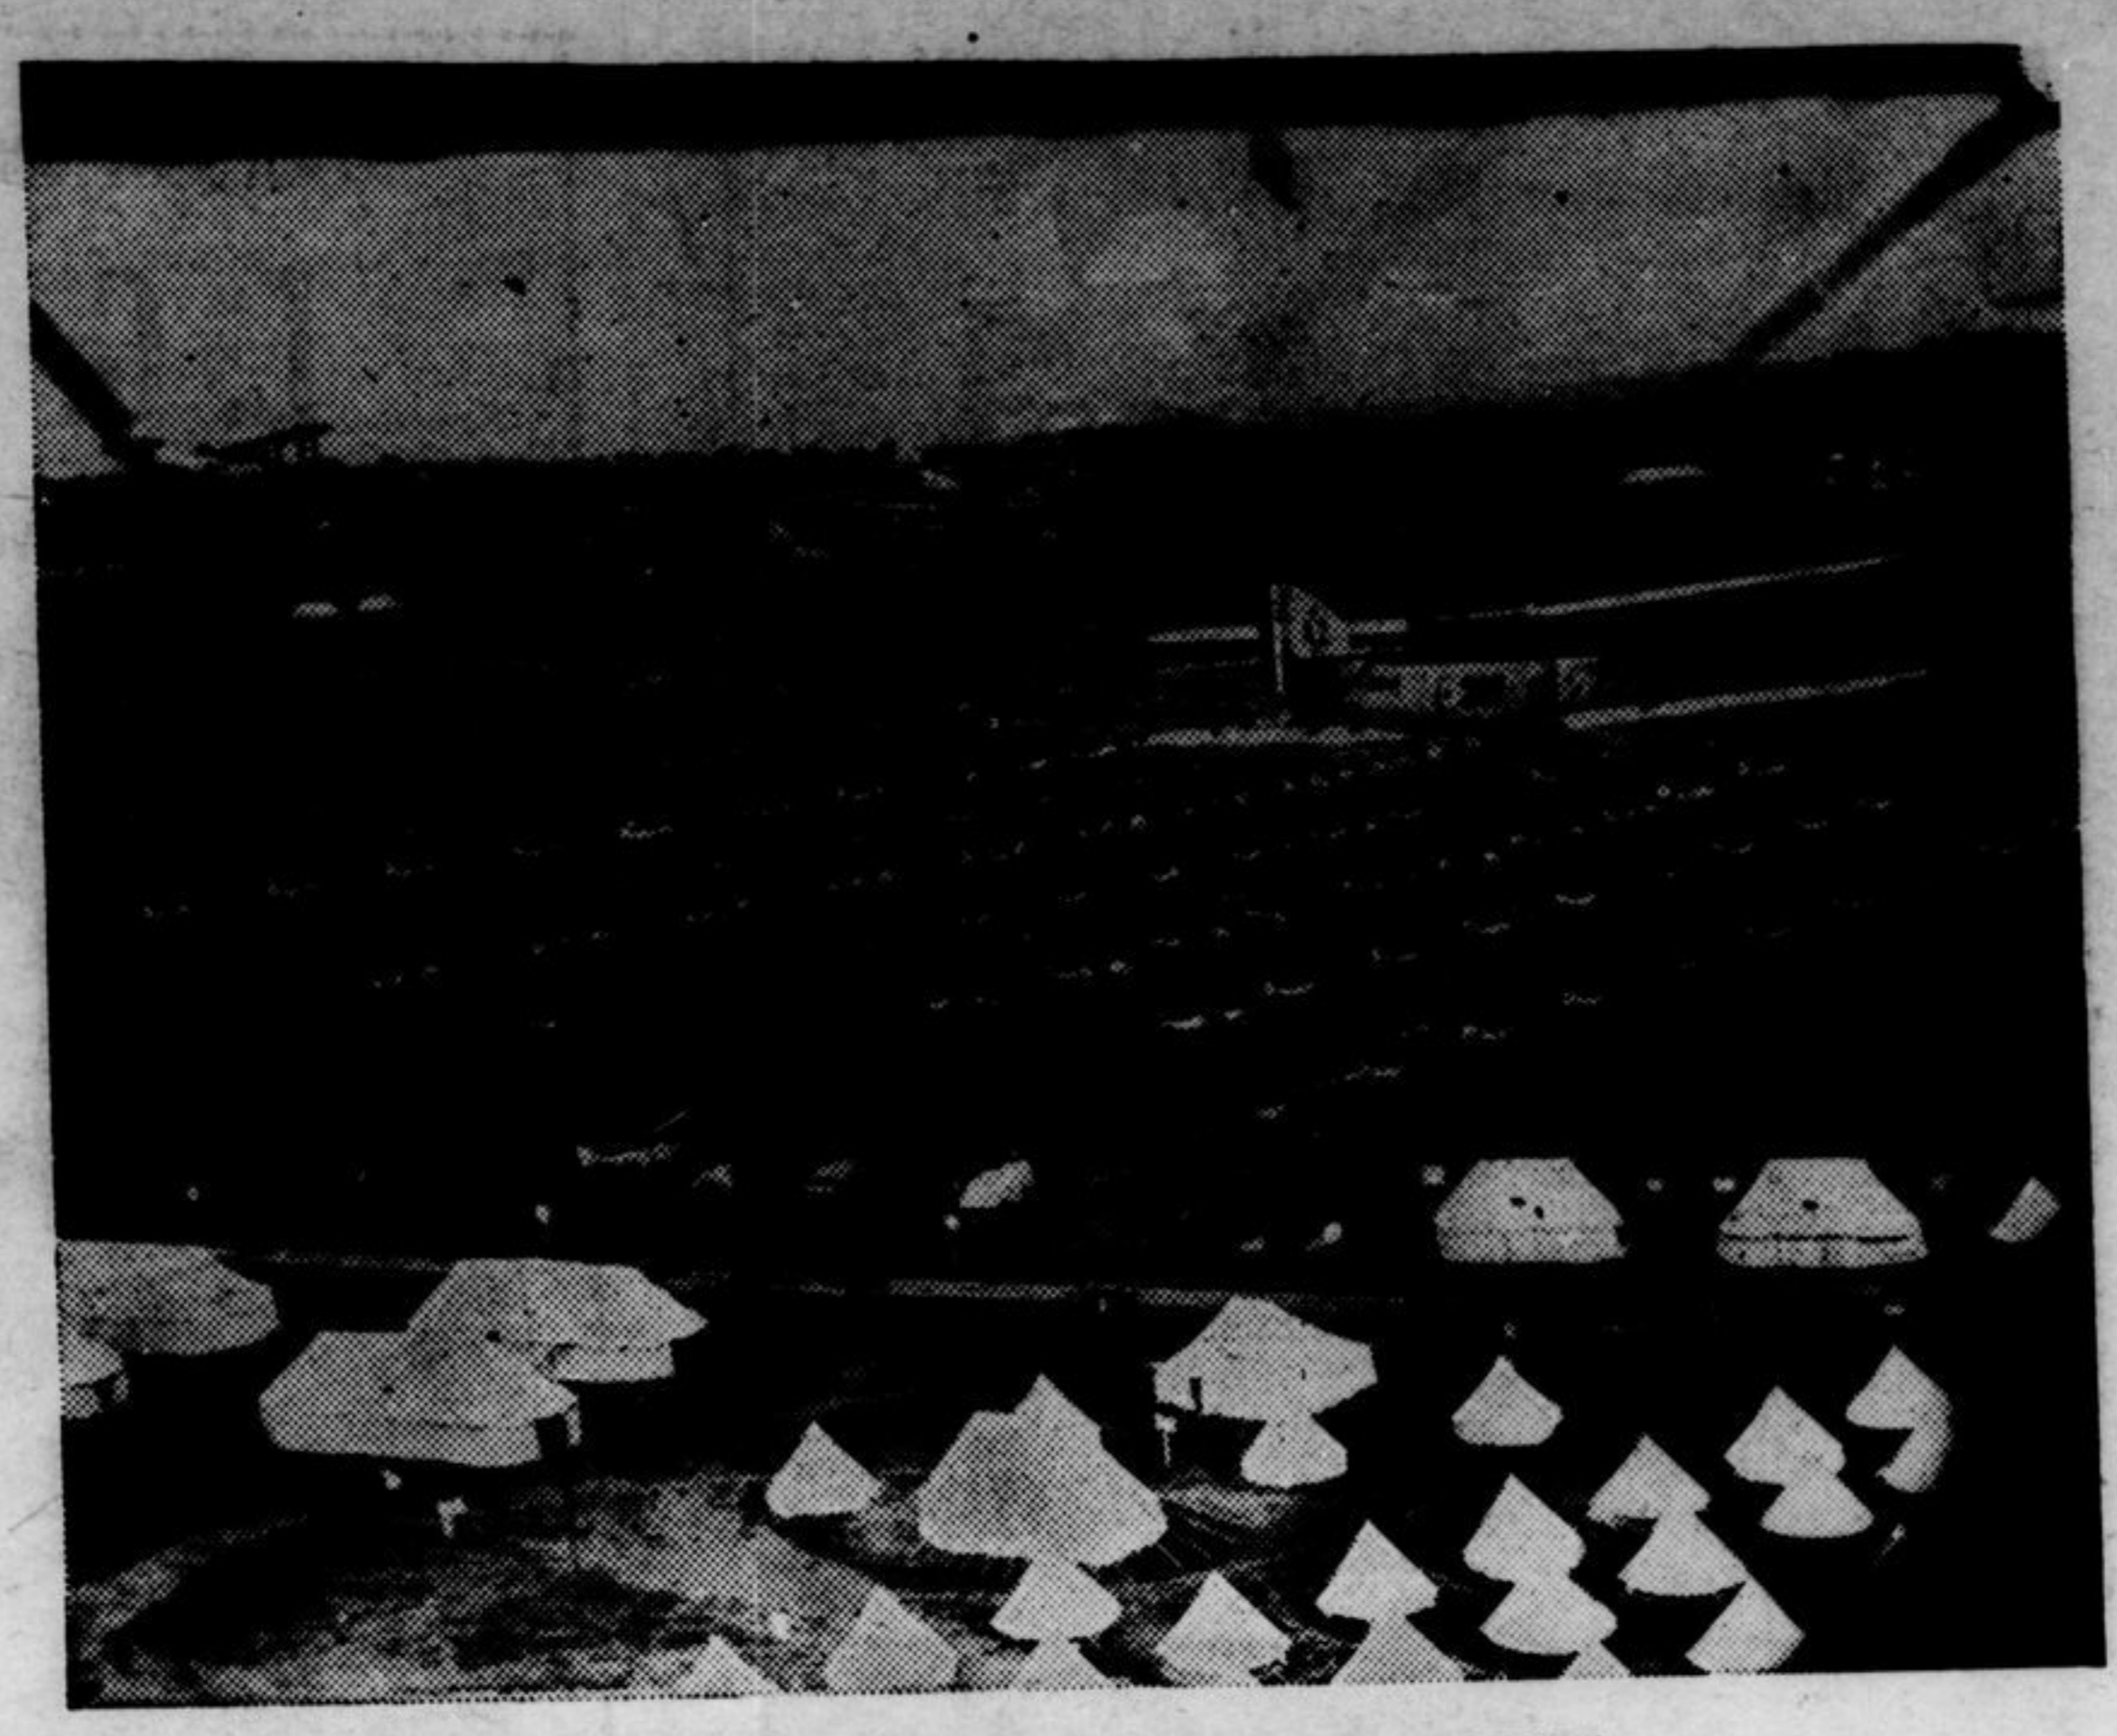

DAVIDSON-SPOULE A quiet wedding took place on Saturday, July 12th, when Margaret, daughter of Mrs. Sproule and the late John C. Sproule of Collingwood, became the bride of Mr. William Davidson of Feversham. The wedding took place at the bride's home on Collins street, Rev. John Bolwell, uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony. Miss Martha Sproule of Durham motored to Collingwood on Saturday afternoon and was present at the wedding which took place at the bride's residence on Collins Street. Customer: "How much was that bill?" Clerk: "Beg pardon, madam, but my name is Jim."

MAN HAS FIVE AGES

"Daddy, I know how to do everything," said the little boy of five. "What I don't know isn't worth knowing," said the young man of twenty. "Well, anyway, I do know my own trade from A to Z," said the man of thirty-five. "There are very few matters, I am sorry to say, that I am really quite sure about," said the man of fifty. "I have learned a bit, but not much, since I was born; but knowledge is so vast that one can not become wise in a short lifetime," said the man of 65.

KNOX UNITED W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society of Knox United church met in the school-room on July 10th with Mrs. Ledingham presiding. The meeting opened with hymn 586 and the Lord's prayer. The minutes of last meeting were read and several business matters were taken up, including the financial report for the second quarter. The roll call was answered with a verse on "Truth". Hymn 374 was sung followed by the Bible reading by Mrs. John Smith. Mrs. W. J. Ritchie read the Devotional leaflet, "His Witnesses" and two members led in prayer. Hymn 553 was sung and after several sentence prayers Mrs. Arthur McDonald gave the topic, "The Unfinished Task" showing the greatness of the work still to be done. The meeting closed with prayer by the President, Mrs. Robert Ledingham.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES' AID HELD VERANDAH TEA

Last Friday afternoon our road led to the homes of Mesdames McFadyen and Moffat who were hostesses to a Presbyterian Ladies' Aid verandah tea. Roses, delphinium and galliardias, were displayed on the spacious lawns where Mesdames McFadyen and Moffat received their numerous guests. Miss A. Weir and Mrs. McCannel poured tea from a flower decked table on the verandah. The attentive waiters being the young ladies of the congregation. The programme consisted of instrumentals by Mrs. Harding, Miss Leah McComb and Miss Elizabeth Harding. Duet by Mrs. W. Firth and Miss Edge. Solos by Miss Elizabeth Harding. Recitation by Miss M. Sharpe and little Gladys Gray. Mr. Morrison Smith delighted the audience with several piano selections. The ladies who gave their homes for this pleasant social event were tended a vote of thanks by the society. The proceeds amounted to over $57.

We hope Mrs. Banks will continue to enjoy health and happiness for some time to come.

Knox Corners

We were glad to see such a good congregation out on Sunday to hear our new minister, Mr. Honeyman. He gave us a good sermon from the text, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation." He spoke of what it had cost to provide this salvation for each of us and yet multitudes are careless and indifferent about seeking it and he said his aim in coming amongst us was to preach Christ and Him crucified. Miss Susie Marshall entertained quite a number of her school friends on Tuesday afternoon. Glad to be invited and enjoy the fun. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Watson spent Sunday in London with Miss Margaret Watson. The Y. W. A. and Mission Band are planning for a picnic to be held on Saturday afternoon, July 19 at the home of Miss T. E. Byers and hope to have a nice day for it. Mrs. Andrew Marshall of town is spending a few days at her brother's home here. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson of Regina visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and family last week, and other relatives and friends in the neighborhood. Mrs. McPherson was formerly Miss Lydia Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. Will Backus of Hampden attended service at Knox on Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. S. Patterson from town. Miss Margaret Marshall visited Sunday with the Misses Kerr of Egrement.

The Rhyming Optimist

By Adeline Michaels The Days I Love The days I love are not the days of power with hopes fulfilled, ambitions gratified; they are not days that bring a splendid dower of tasks achieved or crown of wordly pride. Though it is good to know the flush, the thrill which comes when victory is won at length, there yet are penalties the mighty will must pay, the costly forfeiture of strength. The days I love are quiet, sun-filled days that idly drift upon the stream of time, like lily-pads that float on tranquil ways whose jade-green waters stir in liquid rhyme. Then, far from all the tumult of the throng, those only whom I hold most dear must move to make a little world untouched by wrong; a little world to fill the days I love.

Old Friends

Old friends are here; I greet them day by day, as they come back to smile at me again; their fragrance breathes through every garden way, their colors riot down each field and lane. The rose, the hyacinth, the daffodil, the marigold, the poppy and the rue have all come back, their loveliness to spill across a land that throbs and thrills anew. Old friends, more dear with each recurrent Spring, they come renewing beauty, youth and bliss, and in their squandered wealth of blossoming they bring a promise that men elsewhere miss. A glimpse of life abundant is revealed by all this joyous company of flowers, and shall man's soul be lesser than the field? Shall soil of Earth be more renewed than ours?

BRITAIN'S BRIGHTEST SPOT

Jersey was the sunniest spot in Britain last year, with 2,084 hours of sunshine. Among the cities London made a good show, with 1,317 hours compared with 1,127 hours in Manchester and 1,162 in Bolton.

In Passing Other Cars...Don't "Cut In" One of the greatest dangers on the highway is the driver who insists on passing other cars when there is no space for him in the traffic line ahead. It's a good rule to keep in line, unless you have a clear view of the road ahead, and there is a place in the traffic line which you can reach before you meet on-coming traffic. Don't be a nuisance by "cutting in". It is discourteous to other drivers and creates needless danger. You may have a crash... and even if you don't, you are liable to a fine under the Highway Traffic Act.
