Romance, they say, is coming back. And, like the war, will probably catch us in a pitiful state of unpreparedness.

Glenelg & Priceville
(Our Own Correspondent)
This Tuesday, the 12th of August, is warmer after the coolness of Sunday and yesterday but we think there was no frost last night. The busy season calls every one to be attending to their various callings; the farmer must attend to his numerous customers, the editor must hurry up to get his paper out by Thursday and the mail man must hurry up for the numerous subscribers to the Chronicle are anxiously awaiting to get the news of the day.
Priceville is here and still holding to its reputation by giving good prices to their numerous customers for butter and eggs, and selling goods at a reasonable price, hence the reason it was called Priceville. The surveyor Price ordered the future town to be called Priceville adding "ville" to his own name. We don't get to that old town name in our youthful days but wish the citizens thereof success in their different callings.
We were pleased to have a call from Mrs. Henry Patterson and daughter Miss Willa yesterday evening. They were visiting friends in Bentinck. Miss Willa took the service in Saint Columba church on Sunday and got along well. Miss Peterson is a school teacher as well as preacher.
Mr. John L. McKinnon, B.A., of Saskatoon Collegiate is spending his holiday at the old home with his brother, Archie, South Glenelg.
We thank W. H. Williams for taking us out one day last week to see our brother, D. McDonald, who is attended by a faithful housekeeper.
We had a call from the good clerk of Egremont, Mr. D. Allan, and a Mr. McArthur from Dakota one evening lately. Mr. McArthur has many friends in Bruce and Grey Counties.
We see the good old firm of J. & J. Hunter are giving up business after the long business of fifty years. Now in their declining years they take the comfort of their long success in business. Many were pleased to hear Rev. John Bell preach in Knox church last Sunday. He is to be there for the next two or three Sundays yet. Mr. Bell is a Glenelg boy and now is pastor of the Union church in Rivers, Manitoba.
We don't blame the editor for being pleased that his party got into power although we differed with him. The good girl, Miss Macphail is elected again by a smaller majority. She must thank the old Liberals for not having a candidate in the field for then Mr. Campbell would certainly have been elected by a good majority. The U. F. O. would suffer and be indeed a thing of the past.
We congratulate our young M. P. P. on getting a help mate to be with him and to go to Toronto Parliament for a visit. We wish him long life and happiness on the journey of life.
Garden Parties are still going on. There is one this evening at Glenelg Centre Baptist church.
All the good Shepherds of the different branches of the church are away from Durham at present, enjoying the well-earned holidays and the different churches are being supplied with substitutes.
We hear that Dr. Sneath of Dromore is retiring from there and coming to Durham. The doctor served for over thirty years in Dromore, faithfully attending to his patients night and day, rain or sunshine.
We were sorry to hear of Mr. Robert McFarlane's death lately. We remember back nearly 70 years ago dealing with his father as carriage maker of the old style of long ago.
Beanachd leat or good-bye.
