HYMENAL

COOK—FIRTH

Durham Presbyterian church was the scene of an early morning wedding on Saturday, August 30, 1930, when Miss Kathleen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Firth, was united in marriage with Mr. Edwin Embury Cook of Palmerston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook of Glenelg. Rev. B. D. Armstrong, pastor of the bride, officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose sand georgette with brown velvet trimmings for her wedding gown and a brown velvet hat and carried red premier roses and fern. Miss Marjorie Firth, R.N., of Owen Sound was her sister's only attendant and wore a becoming dress of glade green georgette with hat to match and carried yellow opheila roses and gladioli. Mr. Clifford Cook, brother of the groom was groomsman. Messrs. Will and Dan Firth, cousins of the bride, were ushers.

Miss Jean Harding played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Elizabeth Harding sang "I Love You Truly".

The church was tastefully decorated with mauve and yellow flowers.

The young couple left by motor for Sarnia en route for Duluth on the steamer "Noronc".

Mr. and Mrs. Cook will reside in Palmerston.

Previous to her marriage the bride was the recipient of several showers from her friends in town and country.

On Wednesday evening of last week the whole Rocky Saugeen neighborhood turned out to honor a former teacher. The bride-to-be was seated beneath an arch of streamers and bells. Little Georgie Miller was dressed as a bride and to the strains of the wedding march, accompanied Mitchell McLean with a gaily decorated wagon of gifts. The march was played by Mrs. J. C. Cook, who, with Miss Islay McKechnie, opened the gifts. The gifts were composed of kitchen ware exclusively. The Rocky Saugeen Y.P.U.F.O. club also presented her with three pieces of Bel-ech china, cup, saucer and plate. The bride was president of this club for a number of years and during the past two years was secretary. She made a very appropriate reply. Following the presentation, the company enjoyed themselves in games and dancing.

On Thursday afternoon the choir of the Presbyterian church held a very jolly picnic at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harding at Wilder's Lake. The afternoon was spent in water sports and a short program. Rev. B. D. Armstrong made a short address referring to the splendid service given by the bride-to-be and expressing her hopes for a happy and prosperous life in her new home. She was presented with a silver entree dish which is a companion to the one presented by the Young People's society. A little bit of humor was added to the program when Mr. T. M. McFadden at the close of his speech handed her a fancy wrapped parcel containing a miniature rolling pin.

An added pleasure to the afternoon was having Miss Julia M. Weir and Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder present, who gave interesting accounts of their overseas trip.

In the evening the bride-to-be received a big surprise in her home when 35 of her pupils came silently into the house. The pupils represent the classes of the past two years. Norah Baird read a short address to their teacher and a decorated basket with miscellaneous gifts was brought in and presented.

Songs that had been taught to them at school were heartily sung and finally the public surrounded their former teacher and sang "She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

FAMILY RE-UNIONS WERE HELD LAST WEEK

and her little family came up to the Queen's Bush, in Glenelg Township, shortly after the death of husband and father and settled on the farm on the second concession now occupied by Mr. George Ritchie. John Ritchie married Ann Kelly and took up the farm near the Darkies' Corner, at No. 9, now occupied by Mr. W. S. Atchison, and to them were born 11 children: William, Elizabeth, Andrew, George, James, John Sarah Jane, Samuel, Charles, Thomas and David. Of these only four are now living: Sarah Jane (Mrs. W. Collier of Austin, Man.), unable to be present at the re-union; George, at Acton, and also not present; Thomas, at Edge Hill, and David, in Durham.

William married Margaret Kelly and lived on the homestead at Edge Hill. To them were born nine of a family, Elizabeth, William, John, Jane, Ellen, Sarah, Margaret, George and Emma. Four of these are deceased, William, John, Ellen, Mrs. A. Beaton, and Margaret (Mrs. William Weir).

Nancy married Mr. George Puthrough, a member of a family well-known in Glenelg and Bentinck. Their family was six sons and one daughter, William, Samuel, Eliza Jane, John George, Thomas and William. All have passed on but two Eliza Jane (Mrs. Chaffey of Wisconsin) and Samuel, residing in Bentinck.

Jane was wed to Mr. William Watson and resided at Paisley. There were nine in their family, William John, Andrew, Eliza Jane, Sarah Ann, James, Rebecca, Margaret Ann, Robert and David Samuel. Of these William John, Sarah Ann, James and Margaret Ann are deceased.

THORNTON SCORES PROPOSAL

Sir Henry Thornton, President of the Canadian National Railways, scores the proposal of Mayor Houde of Montreal to submit to the Board of Railway Commissioners the Lancaster scheme and the Canadian National Railway's plan for the erection of a railway terminal in Montreal.

McGirr and seven children were their family, James, Jane, Margaret Ann, William, Eliza, Andrew and Samuel. Only two of these remain. James, who has been ill this past two years, and Margaret Ann (Mrs. James Wilson) of Durham.

The first and second generation have lived their day and their bodies are resting in different cemeteries but the good influence they exerted in their days on earth goes on down the generation. Mr. and Mrs. William Ritchie had five children, 43 grandchildren, 171 great-grandchildren and at present there is no record of the fifth and sixth generation.

SNELL FAMILY RE-UNION

The re-union held by the members of the Snell family at Dromore, at the home of Mr. James Snell was a most happy gathering, and took place last Thursday afternoon. This event was planned in honor of Dr. Joseph Snell and Mrs. Snell of Saskatoon, who are visiting old friends of the former in this part of Ontario. There were thirty members of the family present, only four being absent, and the afternoon of sports and games, and the photographing of various family groups, was very much enjoyed. Assisted by her niece, Miss Susan Snell served a most delicious dinner.

The Snell family are racially of English descent on both sides of the house. William Snell was born in 1928 at Burlington, Devonshire, England, and Mrs. Snell, who before her marriage was Miss Mary Isaac, was born in 1827 at Chulmleigh, also in Devonshire. They were married at the bride's home and sailed in 1854 from the port of Plymouth for Canada, the trip across the Atlantic, now a matter of only seven or eight days, being made in eight weeks.

They first settled at Ancaster, Ontario, where three of the children were born. These were Anna, Sarah, and John. They purchased land at Dromore in 1860, the present homestead now occupied by their son, Mr. James Snell. It was on this farm that James, Joseph and Elizabeth were born. Sarah was married to Mr. George Binnie of Glenelg, and both were present at the re-union. Elizabeth married Mr. Alfred Tucker, but passed away 23 years ago.

The five remaining children were present, while three of the nine grandchildren and one of the twelve great-grandchildren were absent. Those unable to be present were Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot Case (Mary Tucker), and daughter, Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. David Fox (Susie Tucker), Campbellford; and Mr. Thomas H. Binnie, Toronto.

THE LATE THOMAS GREENWOOD

The funeral of the late Thomas Greenwood was held from his late residence on the Durham Road on Friday afternoon, the service being conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. S. Fiddes of the Queen Street United church. He was assisted by Rev. W. H. Smith of Knox church. Interment was made in Zion cemetery. The pall bearers were old neighbors and friends of that district. Grandchildren of the deceased were the flower bearers.

Amongst those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Robertson, and Mrs. Edgar, Listowel; Mr. Albert Cook and Miss May Cook, Maple Hill; Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Greenwood and daughter Madeline, Grayling, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. D. Campbell of Fairgrave, Mich.

Honest "Eliza," said a friend of the family to the old colored washer-woman, "have you seen Miss Edith's fiancé?" "No, ma'am," she answered, "it ain't been in the wash yet."—Jack-o'-Lantern

How World Will End; Conan Doyle's Prophecy

Author of Famous "Sherlock Holmes" Stories Tells in Extraordinary Paper His Conception of the End of the World—Doyle Had Become a Confirmed Spiritualist Before His Death.

An extraordinary document, which purports to tell what the "Last Days" and the end of the world will be like, is issued by the London Sunday Express in the form of a letter written by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle some time before he died to Sir Fowler Wright, the author of "Deluge," the much discussed novel which gives an imaginary description of the end of the world. Sir Arthur claims that it is based on spirit communications received by him, but he did not wish it to be published in his lifetime. The forecasts, he wrote, should be used with the utmost discretion. "We have above all to avoid sensationalism and undignified newspaper stunts," are his words. "We have to remember that there have been alarms before which have come to nothing. Also that plans may always be modified either because there is some higher tribunal at the back which over rules, or because there is some change in the human situation. Still, even if we make every possible allowance for these things, these warnings have come unsought and often unwelcome in many quarters, and are all roughly to the same effect. They have also been accompanied by a notable increase in the seismic activity of the world which shows itself in those very quarters with which the warnings deal. It is impossible, in my opinion, not to take them seriously, for they represent in themselves a psychic phenomenon for which I know no parallel.

Sir Arthur's prophecy is based on one hundred spirit messages, all independent of each other. It would entail a period of terrific natural convulsions during which a large portion of the human race would perish. Earthquakes of great severity, enormous tidal waves would seem to be the agents. There is mention of war, that that would appear to be only in the early stages and to be in some way the signal for the crisis.

The general details of the crisis are as follows:

That the crisis will come in an instant; That the general destruction and utter dislocation of civilized life will be beyond belief; That there will be a short period of utter chaos followed by some reconstruction; That the total period of the upheavals will be roughly three years; That the chief centres of disturbances will be the eastern Mediterranean basin, where not less than five countries will entirely disappear; Also that the Atlantic, where there will be a rise of land which will bring about great disasters upon the Americans, the Irish and the western European coast, involving all the low-lying British coasts. There are indicated further great upheavals in the southern Pacific and in the Japanese region.

"During the whole course of events," continued Sir Arthur, "there is a psychic accompaniment with manifestations of spirit power which is to culminate in a complete rending of the veil so that spirit and matter will be face to face for a time.

"When they separate again a great number of those who have worked in the cause will be privileged to pass over with their spirit friends and without death in the ordinary sense of the word. Others of the 'elect,' if I may use the current word, are retained for a few years to establish the new order on a solid basis.

"Thus the race may be divided into three sects, the hopeless material who are swept away, the 'elect,' who change their sphere and the central body who carry on under picked leadership. "The whole object of the spiritualist movement from the beginning has, I think, been to prepare a body of thought which will understand and be able to co-operate in such a crisis. In the course of these world-shaking events there will be on earth a strong spiritual influence which, working either directly or through other will control events. "At the supreme moment the spirit will be visible to all and will command the reverence of all. This would seem to correspond with the idea of the second coming. Indeed the whole course of events ending in a happy world will follow the general line that was vaguely seen by the prophets of old.

THE BUG DETECTIVES LABOR CONTINUOUSLY

Neither Scotland Yard nor the equally famous Burns Agency in the United States can boast more able detectives than the Entomologists and Botanists of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, whose lives and energies, not without risk to personal welfare, are devoted to the protection of sources of food supply. They are continually on the alert to check the invasions of crop thieves in the form of insects, bugs and germs of countless species. Their work involves the solution of mysteries quite as thrilling and even more important to the welfare of the nation, as that of their police contemporaries. Instead of bullets and guns these "bug" detectives deal with larvae, spores and germs, infinitely more intricate and harder to deal with. And their work, too, is never done; there is always some new problem of field or laboratory just around the corner.
