A Mid-Atlantic Hello

"Hello Mother. We're having a wonderful voyage, left Southampton day before yesterday and arrive Quebec day after tomorrow." The young man whose phantom outline shows in the picture of one of the deluxe apartments of the new Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain will be able, when the 42,500 ton ship enters service between Quebec and Southampton next June, to talk to anyone in Europe or the Americas for the first time in Canada's maritime history. Above, a recent photograph shows the new liner nearing completion on the Clyde, and the telephone installation that will be a feature of every first class bedroom or apartment. Direct connection through the ship's switchboard with any land telephone will make calling Vancouver or Glasgow from mid-Atlantic just a matter of lifting the receiver and asking for the number. The Canadian Pacific announces that the wireless telephone will be so powerful that continuous touch will be maintained with both sides of the Atlantic. The magnificent new Empress of Britain, 760 feet long, 97 1/2 feet wide and with a speed of 24 knots, will bring Cherbourg, Southampton and Quebec more than a day closer.

(Our Own Correspondent) Old-timers always say that thunder storms late in the season mean an open fall. There is one prevailing this 28th evening of October.

Turnips are nearly all to be housed yet and odd ones have their potatoes to harvest.

Miss Clara Greenwood, R.N. left on Saturday for Owen Sound to resume professional duties.

This week will see most of the threshing machines being stored away for another year. Those connected with this community have had a most successful season.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell and family, Mrs. Frank Twamley and Master Murray of Welbeck were down at the McClocklin homestead on Saturday helping at threshing operations.

Mrs. Peter D'Arcy, of near Barrhead Mills, a most highly esteemed mother, passed away very suddenly and most unexpectedly on Thursday night of last week after an illness of a few days. Her maiden name was Ellen Moran a member of a fine old family of the townline G. and H. where she was born 59 years ago. Thirty-four years ago last June she was wedded to Peter D'Arcy, who died very suddenly two years ago last September. Four bright stalwart sons, Leo, Joseph, Frank and Leonard will sorely miss a most loving mother. Two daughters died in infancy.

Besides the members of the family she is survived by five brothers and one sister, Thos., William, Richard, Joseph and Charlie, all near the old homestead on Glenelg townline north, and Mrs. Vasey of Oregon.

The funeral, a largely attended one, was held to St. John's on Saturday morning where Rev. Father McHugh celebrated a Requiem Mass and preached a most comforting sermon as well. The pall bearers were Messrs. S. H. Wright, James McCarthy, John Quillinan, Michael Norris, Dougald McCormick and Malcolm Black.

Among the friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. A. Vangoument of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. McNulty, Mr. and Mrs. Rae of Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. John Lacey of Chespetow and Miss Perle McMaster, of Shelburne. Much sympathy is felt for the four-sons bereft of both father and mother.

Rev. H. S. Fiddes is noted for his logical and scholarly sermons; but he excelled his best in Zion on Sunday afternoon. It was listened to with rapt attention.

EARLY WORLD COURT

One of the earliest plans for international peace was the International Court at Venice, proposed by a Frenchman, Emeric Cruce, in 1623.

Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent) Our Sunday school closed on Sunday for the winter months. Mr. Honeyman took the Bible class as Mrs. McAllister was absent. He also had an interesting story and message for the children at the church service. He spoke in his sermon from the text "And now abideth faith, hope, charity, but the greatest of these is charity or love." Faith and hope are good and we all need them but love is greater and if we have had that love to God and man in our hearts here we will carry it with us when we leave this world and when we will no longer need faith and hope and the Master said "By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples if ye love one another."

Mrs. D. Marshall spent some days last week in Ailsa Craig.

The United church supper and entertainment on Friday evening in the Agricultural Hall was a great success. A large crowd attended and both the program and the roast goose supper was much enjoyed.

Rev. Mr. Elder of Milverton preached very acceptably to large congregations at the anniversary services in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath. The Choir rendered suitable music and added much to the services.

There is deep sorrow in the community over the loss by death of Mrs. Thomas McMillan, who passed away on Saturday evening. Mrs. McMillan was much loved for her beautiful character and the loss to her husband and two little children is great and the whole community will miss her. It is expected the funeral will take place on Wednesday after arrival of relatives from the West. Sympathy is extended to Mr. McMillan and family and all the bereaved ones.

There passed away on Saturday one of the pioneers of this community in the person of the late Mr. Alexander Aitken. He had passed the allotted span of life by many years, being in his 94th year. Mr. Aitken was a man of high integrity and was esteemed very highly. The funeral which was very largely attended was held on Monday to Maplewood cemetery. Much sympathy is expressed to his life partner who is left to mourn his passing and to the family who will miss a loving and devoted father.

THAT THIRD EYE

New Zealand has a lizard, the tuatara, which still possesses a third eye, though this has no longer power of vision. Millions of years ago man is also said to have had three eyes, the third being in the back of his neck. It was perhaps useful to warn him of the approach of pterodactyls or other flying dragons.
