Mr. and Mrs. J. Sumpton, Port Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald and Miss Myrtle, Mrs. M. Brown, J. D. and Alex of Owen Sound, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hastie on New Year's Day.

Mrs. Andrew Hastie was hostess to the W.M.S. of Crawford church, last Monday afternoon. There were sixteen ladies present. Miss L. Fisher the president occupied the chair. The meeting opened by all singing the theme song and repeating the Lord's prayer in unison. The roll call was answered with a New Year thought and a picture or clipping on Korea for a scrap book the Society is making. Miss Tena Livingstone read the Scripture lesson. The programme under the convensorship of Miss Mary McGillivray was opened with a hymn. Mrs. Edgar Boyce read a devotional leaflet. Miss Florence MacDonald read: "How I came to go to a foreign field". Miss McGillivray gave a very interesting talk on "Ancient cures used for sickness in Korea" telling how the "needle-doctor" as he was called in that country tried to cure certain diseases by the use of a needle.

Mrs. James McDougall read the story of Little Nina from the study book. The meeting was closed by singing a hymn and all repeating the benediction. The hostess and assistants served a dainty lunch. The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. D. Hastie.

Recruiting the Navy Pat had joined the Navy, and was being drilled with his shipmates on a pier. "Fall in!" came the order. Immediately Pat fell in the water. "Two deep!" was the next order. Pat (spluttering in the water): "Bad scan to ye; why didn't ye tell me it was too deep before I fell in?"

Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent)

Born, on Monday, January 4, to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, nee Mary Carson, the gift of a son, Donald Edward, Brighton, Ontario.

Mrs. Robert Shortreed returned home after visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. Wilfred Campbell of Buffalo is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, brothers and sisters.

Mr. David Hincks returned home on Tuesday night after visiting friends in Toronto and Guelph.

The funeral of the late Coverdale Patterson was held Wednesday afternoon in St. Columba church and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Bartlett, assisted by Rev. M. Mills of Markdale who delivered a comforting sermon to the bereaved. The hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The pall bearers were Wilfred Campbell, William Beaton, Henry Beaton, Edwin Fowler, Edgar Patterson, Aubrey Foster; and the flower bearers were Ed. Sullivan and Donald Campbell. Flowers consisted of wreath roses from the children, and roses from the friends and neighbors.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Foster and son Clare; Mrs. Morwood, Markdale; Mrs. Fulton, Mulock; Mr. Moody and Stanley Paxman, Dundalk; Mr. Edwin Fowler, Proton Station. The whole community extends deepest sympathy to the little children, sisters and parents, and other friends in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Angus Clark returned home Wednesday night after spending the past three weeks visiting in Toronto.

On Monday night friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meads to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turner and family. The evening was pleasantly spent in music, dancing and playing cards. At an appropriate hour Mr. and Mrs. Turner and Mr. Robert Turner, who lives with them, were asked to come forward, when a complimentary address was read by Mr. Joe Whyte and a presentation was made to them of a lovely bed couch and to Mr. Robert Turner a club bag. Mr. Turner in a few well chosen words thanked them for their kindness, and would always remember his many kind friends and invited all to come and visit them in their new home at Laurel. Then the Y.P. of the Onward Club honored the family.

An address was read by Mr. Wilburt Burnett and the presentation of a necklace was given Miss Margaret, a fountain pen to Ivan and military brushes to R. J., by Miss Beatrice Walters and Mr. Chas. Aldcorn. R. J. replied and thanked all for their kindness and would always remember the happy times they had together at the club meetings. A dainty lunch was served at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Turner and family left Thursday for their new home.

Varney

(Our Own Correspondent)

The Varney Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Blyth on Thursday, January 7, with a fair attendance. The president, Mrs. Blyth, was in the chair. The meeting opened with the hymn "Work for the night is coming" and the Lord's prayer in unison. Scripture reading was taken by Mrs. Norman Kerr. The secretary, Mrs. Wm. Eden called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Jas. Leeson and Mrs. Norman Kerr were chosen captains for a copper contest. This being a work meeting the ladies were engaged in making blocks for a quilt. A crokinole social was planned for January 22 in the hall with lunch to be served at the close. The meeting closed with a hymn, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee". Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. Walter Kerr and his mother, and Miss Eva Haskell spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Nichol Bell, Elora.

Miss Margaret Leeson is at present nursing Mrs. John Graham, of Upper Town, Durham.

Mrs. Wm. Eden spent Tuesday last week with her mother, Mrs. Wallace. Mr. Elsmere Rawn has engaged Mr. Jack O'Conner for a month.

The U. F. W. O. and U. F. O. met Wednesday evening, January 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barber with an attendance of 24. Mrs. Elgin Wilton, president, opened the meeting with community singing and the creed was repeated in unison. Mrs. James Leeson, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call was answered by the paying of fees. The fees this year are one dollar per member. It was decided that song sheets be sent for. The men and women combined their meeting for the remainder of the evening to hear the programme.

A reading by Miss Mary Bell was a humorous one and enjoyed by all. Then came the delegate's report, by Mrs. John Marshall, who was sent to the convention in Toronto. Mrs. Marshall brought back an excellent report on the lectures and discussions she so faithfully attended at Hygeia Hall. She spoke on both the women's and men's meetings and it was followed by the listeners with much interest. Following the report, Miss Dorothy Ritchie gave a splendid reading and the meeting closed with community singing. Lunch was served by the ladies. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Smith on February 5. The roll call will be answered by a favorite verse. The paper will be taken by Mrs. Donald McIlivride. Community singing will be in charge of Mrs. Andrew Marshall, Jr. The current events will be by Miss Marjory Coldwell, and a reading by Mr. Cecil Barber.

Mrs. Edith Drimmie spent Sunday with Dorothy Taylor.

Glad to report that Mrs. Wm. Leith is able to be around again after her severe illness.
