Varney

(Our Own Correspondent) The president of the Bell Telephone Company, in his remarks to the shareholders says, for the first time in fiftyone years of the company history, the number of telephones removed has exceeded the number installed. There were 204,848 telephones connected and 214,911 disconnected at net loss of 10,ited with friends in Hanover on Mon-063 in 1931. The greater number were disconnected in the last 6 months of 1931. A number of people in this community are talking seriously about having their telephones disconnected in the meantime until prices on telephone rates are cut; or until the depression is over. $1.65 a month bill or $19.80 a year seems too high for the average farmer to pay out these times for telephone service.

Under the auspices of the Agricultural Society the Varney Wide-awake Community Club presented "The Rival Ghosts," in the town hall Wednesday night, February 24th. The play was well presented and the audience followed with keen interest the adventures of the Gibbs family and heartily enjoyed the humor of the colored servants. Mrs. C. McAllister was coach for the players and Miss Mary Ford assisted. The week visiting friends in Toronto. cast was as follows: Mary Bell (Cynthia Rankin), Dorothy Ritchie (Clementina, a colored servant), Charlotte tal home on South Line. Patterson (Patricia), Marjorie Caldwell (Evelyn Gibbs), Cecil Barber (Professor Gibbs), Norman McIlvide (Colonel Rankin), Kenneth McIlvide (Jasper, a colored servant), John Marshall (Gill Hawkins), Ronald Smith (Vincent Langley), Harold Watson (Donald Gibbs) and Arthur Petty (Bert Miller, real estate agent). The play was in 3 acts and between each act and at beginning of program the Rahn orchestra supplied excellent music. The president of the Agricultural Society Markdale. John A. McGirr, opened the program with a short address and introduced the ronto, visited recently with their players of the evening.

The Ladies' Aid held a quilting bee at Mrs. Earl Mead's on Tuesday of last week. They finished the work on the quilt and it is now already spoken for by Miss Isobel Mathews of Toronto. The ladies are working on blocks for another quilt. The Varney Y. P. S. held their regular meeting at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bogle's on Friday evening, Feb. 26th. The meeting opened a hymn and the Lord's Prayer. Douglas Donnelly sang a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" very effectively. This was followed by a paper by Mr. McCall on "Team Spirit',' Mr. Mc-Call being very much interested in young people's work, chose his topic as to be an inventive inducement to our Association. He stressed the importance of such an organization, that it should ever strive for greater usefulness, that more and more, it should be used for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Before success can be attained the fundamental element of cow due March 25; heifer supposed in team spirit must be engendered. of the passing of one of Priceville's most highly respected citizens, in the person of Mr. Donald McLean. Death came Sunday morning after a short illness. Although Mr. McLean hasn't been well for years, suffering with asthma, he bore his suffering with great patience. He was of a happy and cheerful disposition, and he won the hearts of many friends, his passing has cast a deep gloom over this community, as he will be long remembered and greatly missed. The late Mr. McLean was in his 70th year and was born one mile north of Priceville and has lived ardson, of Toronto, and (Maimie), Mrs. A. B. McDonald, of Owen Sound, and five sons living: Roy and Hermie in Priceville, Allie in Toronto, Donald in Winnipeg and John in the West. One son, Robert, was killed overseas. He also leaves two brothers, Allan in Priceville and John in North Dakota, and three sisters, (Mae) Mrs. Lommis, San Diego, Cal., (Jessie) Mrs. Neff, Washington, and (Flora) Mrs. King, North Dakota. The family will all be home for the funeral which will be held Thursday afternoon in St. Columba United church. The whole community extends sincere sympathy to the sorely bereaved wife and family and relatives in their time of sorrow.
