Mrs. Wes. Arnett spent an afternoon with Mrs. Jas. Mack recently.

Mrs. Jas. Browne, of Bunesan, visited with Mrs. Earl Mead one afternoon last week.

Mr. Jos. Stephenson had a sale of livestock and implements last week which drew a large crowd, though prices were not nearly so high as a few years ago.

A few neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hargreave Friday night and spent a few pleasant hours at euchre, Donald Watson and family carrying off the prizes.

Sorry to hear of the serious illness of Master George Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wells, who was operated on for appendicitis a few days ago. We hear he is improving under the care of Dr. Sneath.

Mrs. Robt. Barbour is under the doctor's care at present. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Farmers are glad to see the snow, as there is lots of teaming to be done.

Several families are suffering from the flu. Hope all will soon be well.

The W. M. S. of Burns church met at the home of Miss Mary Hislop. There were nineteen ladies present. The program was an Easter program and was very much enjoyed by all present. After the meeting the Ladies' Aid elected their officers for the coming year. Miss Hislop and Mrs. Bell served a dainty lunch.

The community extend sincere sympathy to Mr. John McNally and family in the death of wife and mother.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Jim Ellison. Twenty-five ladies were present and a beautiful quilt was quilted, after which the aid held their business meeting. Rev. and Mrs. Galloway sang beautifully, "There's a Stranger at the Door," after which Mrs. Ellison and daughter served an excellent lunch.

Rev. Mr. Galloway visited at the home of Mrs. McClement, who is recovering from a severe illness.

Mr. John A. Boyd is sawing a big pile of wood for Mr. L. McLean.

Syrup-making began last week, but the blizzard that followed put a dead stop to all bush operations.

There is enough snow for splendid sleighing, if March in its wild, impish mood hadn't piled it all in heaps. 'Tis the first time this winter that our mail-carrier, Mr. Kleist, failed to get through with the mail on Monday and Tuesday.

R. G. Peart finished assessing all the rural parts of the township on Saturday. He has some work to do yet in urban centres.

J. C. Cook cut up a big pile of wood for D. Young on Thursday last.

Mrs. W. J. McFadden and Miss Gladys, of Orange Valley, visited at the Cook homestead one day last week and kindly brought Mrs. C. W. Rutledge out to the Edwards home.

Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Carefoot and the capable care of Nurse Greenwood, Mrs. Herb. Timmins is gradually recovering from her serious illness.

Joe Edwards is branching out more widely in the poultry business. He purchased three pure-bred B. R. cockerels from the Essex Hatchery last week.

With the passing of Mrs. John McNally this neighborhood desires to endorse all the kindly words the editor of the Chronicle may make in the obituary he will pen and, also, add its tribute to one, who came as a bride forty years ago into our midst and won and held the esteem and good will of all. For twenty-five years she dwelt among us, always cheery, ever helpful and sympathetic in times of trouble, abounding in hospitality and thoughtfulness, was full of encouraging words for those doing good and never speaking ill of anyone. No wonder people came long distances to show their esteem and sympathy; no wonder the community braved the raging of the worst blizzard of the year to attend the funeral. Her's was a life nobly lived. In these last trying months of her illness, the devotion of husband, son, Lorne, and daughters, Mrs. Hugh McArthur and Mrs. James Crutchley, is deserving of highest tribute. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends goes out to those who have been constant in their ministering to her, and also to the other three members of the family in the far west: Mrs. Bert Summers, Roy and Stewart. Her pastor, Rev. W. C. Almack, in well-chosen words paid a splendid tribute to her helpful life and sterling virtues. A life like hers lives on forever.

We have had very stormy weather this week and it looks like real old winter.

The U.F.W.O. will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. L. McLean on Friday afternoon of this week.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. James Crutchley in the death of her mother, Mrs. John McNally, who was buried in Zion on Monday.

Mr. Archie Turnbull is spending a few days with his uncle, Mr. Wm. Hill.

The annual meeting in connection with the church here will be held on Friday afternoon, March 11th, at 2.30 p.m.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong called on some of the sick in this neighborhood recently.

Mrs. John Vessie spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. L. McLean.

POLICE VISITS EMBARRASSING

Traffic Officer William Middaugh announced Wednesday at London that the Police will in the future probably mail summonses for traffic offences to stop neighborhood gossip, which flows to a white heat when a policeman calls at a house to deliver a summons. Women especially object to having to explain that the visit of the officer was over a traffic case.

Glad to have our pastor with us again the past two Sundays, as we always get a message well worth hearing and good talks for the young people.

On Sunday he spoke of "God's delays." Many have wondered why their prayers have been so long in being answered. Parents have prayed for a son or daughter and yet years have elapsed before those children turned to God. The sick have been healed, and the sin-sick saved in answer to prayer, and more things have been wrought by prayer than the world dreams of. So we need not be discouraged if the answer to our petitions be sometimes long delayed. The Master loved the sisters in the home in Bethany and yet He delayed going to them, though He knew that Lazarus, their brother, was dead. God's promises are sure and He has said "Ask and ye shall receive."

Mrs. Thos. Johnston, of Holstein, and Mrs. John Picken of Bentinck, visited Sunday with Mrs. A. Picken.

Our W. M. S. meets Wednesday of this week at the MacAllister home.

Mrs. Merrit Cochrane, of Fort William and Mrs. Geo. Matthews, of California, visited with their niece, Mrs. Harry Caldwell, last week.

Miss Ford Spent over the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Perley in Durham.

We are glad to learn that Bernice Keonig, of Hampden, is somewhat better, after her serious illness.

Our annual congregational meeting which has been held over on account of Mr. Honeyman's illness was held in the church on Wednesday evening, March 2nd. Though not so many present as usual, yet the meeting was enjoyed by those who were. The pastor was chairman for the meeting and spoke briefly on the allocation for missions for 1932, and was pleased at the good attendance at the Sunday services, and of the number of young people who attended. The different reports were given: Treasurer's, Managers', Sunday School, Y.W.A., Mission Band, W. M. S. Mr. R. R. Watson, in giving the report of the Session, spoke of the labor and sacrifice of the pioneers in the building of the churches. Do we appreciate them as we ought? Mr. C. MacAllister was reappointed manager for another term and Mr. Cecil Barber, secretary treasurer. A hearty vote of thanks was given to the latter for his work as treasurer for a number of years. Mrs. T. MacAllister was appointed Bible-class teacher and Mr. J. M. Marshall, superintendent of the Sunday School. Lunch was served at the close.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall and family of Mount Forest visited Sunday at Mr. David Marshall's. Mary and Jessie remained for a visit with their grandparents.

and an expression of their sorrow at his passing, the furniture factory, business houses, and High and Public schools will be closed this afternoon during the hours of the funeral service.

Amongst the flowers were those from the C. O. C. F., the Session of Knox United church, Durham High School Board, Town Council, South Grey Teachers' Institute, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Russell, Toronto; Inspector and Mrs. Wright, Hanover; Misses Annie and Julia Weir; Mr. and Mrs. Penwarden, Mount Forest; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Robertson, Toronto; Publishers and Staff, Toronto Mail and Empire; Sports Dept., Mail and Empire.

MRS. JOHN McNALLY

Mrs. John McNally, a highly esteemed resident of this community all her life, passed away at her home on Garafraxa street early Saturday morning, in her 73rd year. Death was the result of a paralytic stroke suffered some four or five days previous to her death, and from which she never rallied. Mrs. McNally had been ailing for the past five years and last summer suffered a slight stroke. While she had recovered partially, it might be said her decline dated from that time, as when subsequent strokes seized her during her last illness her physical condition was not sufficiently strong to withstand them.

The late Mrs. McNally, whose maiden name was Mary Stewart, was the oldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hector Stewart of the third concession of Bentinck, north of Aberdeen, where she was born. Forty years ago she was married to Mr. John McNally of Glenelg, they settling on his farm on Lot 7, Concession 7, where they resided until 15 years ago, when they moved to Durham. In Bentinck, Glenelg and Durham, where her life was spent, Mrs. McNally was a woman held in the highest regard and her death is much regretted.

Surviving, besides Mr. McNally, are three daughters and three sons: Mrs. Hugh McArthur (Mary), Glenelg; Mrs. Bert Summers (Kate), Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. James Crutchley (Ena), Bentinck; Roy, Alask, Sask.; Stewart, High River, Alberta, and Lorne, Detroit, Mich.

Four sisters and two brothers also survive: Mrs. John Mills (Christena), Mrs. Dan. MacArthur (Annie), Durham; Mrs. Alex. McKinnon (Sarah), Cumberland, B.C.; Mrs. Charles Flick (Kate) Toledo, Ohio; and Messrs. Donald and Malcolm Stewart, Deepdale, Man. Two sisters, Mrs. McNab (Jessie), Cleveland, and Miss Flora, died some years ago.

The funeral was held from the home in Durham on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, where a short service was held, the remains being taken to Zion church in Glenelg, of which the deceased was a member for many years, and which was filled with old friends and neighbors who gathered to pay their last respects. The services were taken by Rev. Walter C. Almack of Queen Street church, assisted by Rev. W. H. Smith of Knox. The pallbearers were Messrs. T. McNiece, R. Martin, R. T. Edwards, W. Crutchley, J. A. Heughan, R. T. Cook, R. Ledingham and M. McCallum. The flower bearers were J. Crutchley, W. Ritchie, B. Morlock, H. McCormick, S. MacArthur, H. Ritchie and C. Cook.

Amongst the flowers were a Gates Ajar from the family, a wreath from the sisters, and sprays from Miss Tena Livingstone, Bentinck; Mrs. C. W. Rutledge, Markdale; Mr. and Mrs. W. Redfern and Mr. and Mrs. Flannigan, Owen Sound; Mrs. A. Crutchley and son, William J., and the Queen Street Ladies' Aid, Durham.

Interment was in Zion cemetery and amongst those from a distance in attendance were Mrs. W. Redfern, Owen Sound; H. Petrie and Miss Petrie, Paisley; Miss Tena Livingstone, Elmwood, and Mrs. Gordon Coutts, Conn.

AILEEN WRIGHT

Aileen Wright, 18 years of age, daughter of the late George Wright, and Mrs. Wright, Toronto, died in that city on Tuesday following an attack of the influenza contracted some days before. The young lady was taken to one of the Toronto hospitals last Thursday but failed to rally. The remains are being brought to Durham by today's noon C. N. R. train, and interment will be made in the family plot in Durham cemetery, where the father was laid to rest 16 years ago. Surviving are the mother, formerly Miss Emma Slatcher, and one brother, Terrence, 21 years of age.

GIDEON BARIL

There passed away at his home in Myton, Utah, on February 18, Gideon Baril, beloved husband of Ethel F. Moodie. The deceased was born January 15, 1869, at Gentilly, Nicolet County, Quebec. Death followed several years of frail health due to athletic heart, but the final illness was of less than two days' duration. One son by a former marriage resides with his family in Montreal, a brother in Three Rivers, and a sister in Montreal. Two daughters of the second marriage predeceased Mr. Baril. Burial was held Saturday, February 20, service private at the grave.

CANADIAN SEED CORN IS AGAIN AVAILABLE

Owing to the effectiveness with which control measures have been carried out by corn growers, particularly in Southwestern Ontario, under the direction of the provincial and federal Departments of Agriculture, substantial supplies of seed corn are again available in the strains suited to Canadian conditions which in other years made this district popular as a source of seed supply.

In view of the high quality and proven value of Canadian produced seed corn for use under Canadian conditions, the Dominion Entomologist gives complete assurance that shelled corn from quarantine areas which has been certified by federal inspectors can be used with every assurance that it is free from European Corn Borer infestation. The reason for this assurance arises from the fact that the borer can be spread only through a host plant large enough to carry the larva. As a kernel of corn is much too small to hold the larva the possible host element is entirely eliminated by careful inspection which makes sure that no particle of cob or stalk has been left in the seed corn.

The Plant Inspection Service of the Dominion Department of Agriculture is prepared to give special attention to the inspection for certification of all shipments of seed corn to points outside of a quarantine area, and under the provisions of the Destructive Insect and Pest Act seed corn may be shipped out of such areas only on the certificate of a federal inspector.

Honesty, originality and persistency in advertising make a paying business.

MARRIED

HARDING-SEWELL—At Hamilton, on March 7th, 1932, by the Rev. J. W. Brown, Valerie Muriel Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sewell, to Norman B. Harding, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harding (nee Ada Browne) both of Hamilton.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. John McNally and family wish to thank their many relatives, friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes extended to them in their recent sad bereavement, in the loss of their beloved wife and mother. 1 pd.
