Intending pupils should prepare to enter at beginning of term. Information from us to Courses may be obtained from the Principal. The School has a creditable record in the past which it hopes to maintain in the future. Durham is an attractive and healthy town, and good accommodation can be obtained at reasonable rates. JOHN MORRISON, Chairman. J. A. M. ROBB, B. A., Principal.

IMAGINARY TROUBLES

We should never bear more than the one present trouble or worry. Some people bear three kinds—all they have had, all they now have, and all they expect to have—most of which never come. An old man said "I have had a long life and it has been full of worries and troubles—most of which never happened."

COMING EVENTS

North Vickers

(Our Own Correspondent)

As we write we have another blanket of snow and fairly good sleighing again, but by all appearance it won't last long where the sun has a good beam on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reay were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander and family one afternoon recently.

Miss Florence McDonald, of Durham, spent the Easter vacation with the Coult's family.

Mr. Cecil Reay had the misfortune to have his leg hurt while unloading logs. We hope he may soon be all right again, as it will soon be a busy time for the farmers.

The U. F. W. O. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Turnbull on Friday afternoon last. There was a large attendance in spite of the roads and weather. As there will be an account elsewhere we will say no more.

Misses Gladys Mighton and Mary Hopkins are home from Toronto, after spending the winter months in Toronto.

Mr. Wm. McCulloch was in Toronto last week, as a delegate to the Ontario Educational Association convention.

Miss Marjory Hopkins, of Hutton Hill, spent her Easter vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston.

"Ah," said a seedy-looking individual who got into conversation in a railway carriage. "I've seen some changes. I was once a doctor with a large practice, but owing to one little slip my patients began to leave me."

"What was the slip?"

"In filling in a death certificate I absent-mindedly signed my name in the space headed 'Cause of Death.'"

South Bentinck

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Helen Milligan spent part of last week with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. Wm. Henderson visited last week with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Mather, Priceville.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grierson, who were married recently. A miscellaneous shower was given them Thursday evening.

Mrs. Alfred Corbett left recently for Hughton, Sask., where she will spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Ripley.

Mr. Jas. McRonald, Durham, spent a few days last week with his brother on the line.

Mr. Gordon Hopkins visited Toronto friends last week.

Miss Ella Park, Toronto was a visitor over the holiday with her father, Mr. Jas. Park.

Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sturrock and family, Swinton Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stewart, Mr. Alex. Stewart and Mae attended the dance at Mr. Archie Stewart's on Tuesday night at Ceylon.

The play entitled "The Pill Bottle," which was presented in the Presbyterian church Friday was a decided success. Mr. Alex. McLean introduced the play. The cast was: Erma McLean, Olive McMeekin, Donald Nichol, Almada and Jean Hincks, Annie McIntyre, Margaret McArthur, Elda Fooks, Monica Lambert, Isabel McMillan, Mamie McPhail, Annie McEachnie, Margaret Nichol, Jessie Nichol and Messrs. Wilfred Fooks, Tom Aldcorn, Jack McMillan. Each one acted their part well, and this play deserves credit. It is a missionary play. The weather and roads prevented a better attendance. The proceeds were about $16.

Mrs. Harry Pedlar, of Toronto, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Carson last week and returned Sunday.

Misses Katie and Dora Stewart, Ceylon, spent a couple days visiting with their uncles, Messrs. Alex. and Donald Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stewart, Mr. Alex. Stewart and Miss Mary attended the dance held at Mr. Archie Stewart's on Tuesday night.

All the teachers and pupils have returned to their different schools after enjoying the Easter holiday.

Miss Hilda McKechnie, of Orangeville, spent a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie.

Friends in this district and surrounding country will learn with deep regret the passing of Mr. Henry Moral, of Guelph, a highly respected citizen. He was born in England and came out with his parents when four years of age and lived at Guelph for a number of years, later moving to concession 15, Egremont, on the farm now owned by Mr. Hincks, eight miles south of Priceville, where he farmed successfully.

Later he moved back to Guelph and has since resided there. He was married to Elizabeth Hincks, sister of the late Alfred Hincks, Priceville, who predeceased him a number of years ago.

One brother John predeceased him two or three years ago. Deceased was in his 90th year. He leaves a family of six sons: Albert, of Clinton; Henry, John, Jim, Walter and George, all residing in and around Guelph, and two daughters, Emily at home and (Lydia) Mrs. McCord in Guelph. The funeral was largely attended on Friday at Guelph.

The pallbearers were, Mr. McCord, The pallbearer-in-law; John and David Hincks, Mr. Scott and two neighbors. Many friends will remember Mr. Moral, and sympathy is expressed for the family and friends in their time of sorrow.

The funeral of the late Angus Black was held from his residence on Thursday to St. John's R.C. church, and was largely attended. He leaves to mourn his passing seven sons, John, Archie, Neil, Malcolm, Billie, Francis and Patrick, all living near by; and two daughters, (Katie) Mrs. Pat. Sweeney, and Margaret at home. The pallbearers were the six sons. Mr. Black was held in the highest esteem in this community, a good neighbor and a good friend. He was in his 74th year and depest sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing family and friends.

Sorry to report Mr. Fred Karstedt has been in bed the past couple of weeks from heart trouble. Mr. Archie McArthur, town line, has been assisting Miss Olive McMeekin in the store.

Mrs. McKinnon, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Joe McKee, south line, is, we are sorry to say, confined to bed.

Mrs. Allan Boyd returned home after nursing the late Miss K. McKechnie at the home of Mr. Archie McKechnie on the 2nd of Bentinck.

Rocky Saugeen

(Our Own Correspondent)

We have had very unsettled weather it being cold with snow. It is not as much like spring as the month of February.

The U. F. W. O. will meet at the home of Mrs. Thos. Turnbull next Friday afternoon. The meeting will start at 1 o'clock in order to get the quilt done.

Miss Georgie Miller spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Jack Boyd, Glenroadin.

Miss Catherine McLean returned to Stratford on Monday after enjoying the Easter holidays at her home here.

Misses Myrtle Mortley and Miss Norma Gagnon were visitors the first of the week with Mrs. Bob. Mortley.

Mrs. Neil McLean and son Archie, spent a day this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug. McDonald, Crawford.

Mr. Mack Graham, Durham, was a guest early in the week with Mr. Campbell McLean.

Mr. James Miller made a business trip to Harriston this week.

Varney

(Our Own Correspondent)

The U. F. O. and U. F. W. O. Clubs met Friday evening, April 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilton, with about 30 present. Mrs. Elgin Wilton was in the chair for the ladies' meeting and Mr. Donald McIlvride for the men. The meeting opened with community singing followed by the creed in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll call was answered by an exchange of garden seeds or bulbs. Humorous readings were given by Miss Charlotte Patterson and Mrs. Harold Barber. The paper for the evening was given by Mrs. Bert Barber on the history of Varney. In the business part of the men's meeting they made out orders for mangel, turnip and clover seed.

Mrs. Elgin Wilton interested the gathering with a list of important questions pertaining to our government, which were answered by the members of the club. The meeting closed with "O Canada" and the National Anthem. Lunch was served.

Messrs. Lawrence and Ray Hopkins, of Hutton Hill spent a few days with their cousin, Mr. Clem Patterson, Easter week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barber spent Easter Sunday with relatives in Guelph.

A number of people have commenced maple syrup making last week.

The snow fences along the highway are being removed this week. We hope the snow storms are over for this year.

Mrs. Richard Barber returned to her home in Durham after spending a few months with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne McKay, of Inwood. Mrs. McKay and daughter Marjory, returned with her to spend Easter week with her mother and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barber.

An Irishman going through a street in London was accosted by an old beggar woman with the usual "Spare a copper, sir." Pat, on placing a coin in her hand, was greeted with the remark: "May every hair on your head be a candle to light your soul to glory."

Pat, who happened to be the possessor of a very bald head, taking off his hat, exclaimed:

"Well, ma'am, I'm afraid when that time comes, it won't be much of a torchlight procession."

Allan Park

(Our Own Correspondent)

A reception was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Grierson in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Grierson, who were married recently, there being a large crowd present and a pleasant evening was spent in cards and dancing, and many lovely gifts were presented.

Mr. Jas. Livingston, of Hamilton, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brigham.

Mr. Mark Willis fell at his home on Good Friday and was unfortunate enough to break some ribs.

Mr. Alf. McCoag is employed at Mark Willis' for a time.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Hanover, visited with Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Reay, at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. M. Donnelly one day last week.

Miss Doreen Wendorf, of Hanover, spent her holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerr and Howard visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Jas. Sparling, of Owen Sound, on Sunday, who is recovering somewhat from her severe illness.

We are glad to report that Mr. John Park, Sr., is recovering from his recent attack of the cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Fidler, of Normanby, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith.

Mr. Allan Wise was so unfortunate as to lose a valuable mare early Sunday morning, which became stricken with an attack of paralysis while hauling a load of hay on Saturday afternoon, and in spite of every care other developments helped in causing the death of this fine beast which was a beauty to behold and a faithful worker. We feel greatly toward Mr. Wise in his loss at this time.

Mulock

(Our Own Correspondent)

The regular B. Y. P. U. meeting was held in the church on March 29. A special Easter program was given by the Reapers Group. The president opened the meeting by reading an Easter poem, after which hymn No. 129 was sung. The Scripture reading, the 23rd Psalm, was repeated in unison. Eleven members then read the eleven appearances of our Lord after the resurrection. This was followed by a season of prayer and the business. Mr. Gerald Brunt read a poem, "If Easter Be Not True." Mrs. Galloway then favored us with a solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." This was followed by the topic by Mr. Galloway, "The Resurrection of Our Lord." Hymn 131 was sung and Mr. Galloway closed with the benediction. A contest in charge of George Porter was solved. The next meeting will be on April 12, in charge of the Willing Workers.

Mr. John MacDonald of MacMaster University, Hamilton, spent a few days with his parents over the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacDonald returned on Monday.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Hugh MacLean and family, of Aberdeen, in the serious illness of husband and father and hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Andrew Fulton and son, Norman, of Hampden, were welcome guests at the home of Mrs. Fulton, on Sunday.

Mr. Gerald Brunt, Toronto, spent the Easter vacation with his parents here. We wish to congratulate Gerald in being re-engaged the third year as teacher in the Collegiate Institute, Toronto.
