Throughout the past winter, even though confined to her bed most of the time she took a keen interest in the hockey games, especially while the West Toronto lads were playing; for was not her Dr. McIntyre captain of the team and her big brother Arthur one of the much talked of and splendid players?

She was a favorite wherever she went, but especially with those on the street where she lived and seldom a week passed but her room was brightened with flowers or candy or some token of love from her little chums or their parents. Old and young were fond of Elma.

Throughout her illness she was most patient. Even when very ill she would say when asked how she was, "Not too bad, thank you," or "a little better, thank you."

At the Easter ingathering of members for High Park United church she sent a request to her pastor, asking that she be permitted to join with the rest of the family. For this arrangements were gladly made.

She leaves to mourn her loss a loving father and mother, one brother Arthur and one sister, Norma, who have been most devoted in their attendance to her and spared neither time nor money to make life more pleasant for her.

A service was conducted at her home on Saturday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. H. W. Avison, who spoke of a beautiful life, lived and still living in a larger, fuller life, even though we in our blindness say she is dead.

Six of the members of West Toronto hockey team acted as pallbearers: Gordon Kerr, Jim Primeau, Wes Stinson, Frank Huggins, Alfred Jackson and Norman Walker. The remains were taken by train to Durham where a service was held at the home of Mr. Robert Campbell. Beautiful floral tributes bespoke for themselves loving sympathy for those who are left and for whom the coming days will be lonely.

They were from: The family, Ran Gar Grotta, Masonic Lodge, Rebekah Lodge, Victoria Lodge, Old Orchard Skating Club, Parkdale Ladies' Athletic Club, Runnymede "Kenetic" S. S. Class, High Park S. S. Girls, High Park C. G. I. T., High Park Woman's Association, Dr. H. McIntyre, Rooms 3 and 13 of Western Avenue School, Lady Firemen and Lady

Engineers, Maple Leaf Lodge, West Toronto Hockey Team, Elma's little chums on Mavety street, James Jenner, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and Vera, Margaret McKnight and Mrs. Vingo, Mrs. McMillan, Attie Whittaker, Angus Whittaker and the Carnahan family, John Whittaker, Arden Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. Smythe, Mr. and Mrs. Gray, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Aljoe and family, Mrs. Kearns and Floyd, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Levick and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Upper and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Batterman, Williamsford, besides a large number from other friends and neighbors.

The funeral on Sunday from the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Campbell here, was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Walter C. Almack of the Queen street church. The pallbearers were Norman Tucker, Donald Campbell, Carman Noble, Eddie Hunt, Percy Murdoch and Bert Lawrence. The flower bearers were Misses Alma Kress, Genevieve Saunders, Louise Jamieson, Thelma Bell, Susie Bell, Jean Rowe, Ollida Hahn, Jean Murdoch, Veima Dean, Mona McDonald, Essel McArthur, Lorraine McArthur, Laurine Campbell, Clara Thompson, Margaret Wilson, Eileen Tucker, Jean McLean and Annie Campbell. During the service "Some Day He Will Make It Plain to Me" was sung by Mr. Bert Lawrence.

Interment was in the family plot in Durham cemetery.

Birthdays may be called the milestones in life's journey, and as Mr. Brigham has reached another of these anniversary landmarks, we congratulate him on having travelled them thus far in safety, and wish him, with all our hearts, more similar opportunities of receiving the good wishes of his many friends. In his sermon on Sunday our pastor spoke of the Christian's journey, and compared it to the children of Israel as they travelled through the wilderness on their journey towards Canaan. The pathway of the Christian is by no means a smooth one, and sometimes may seem so dark that we feel we can go no farther, but when we have come to the end of our resources God is there and "The toils of the way will seem nothing when we get to the end of the way" and have entered into the heavenly Canaan.
