The meeting opened with community singing, followed by the creed in unison. The roll call was answered by an exchange of flower seeds or slips. Mrs. T. Young gave a splendid paper on flower culture, which was much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Joe Crutchley gave a reading and Mrs. S. McArthur and Mrs. Robt. Lawson favored the ladies with some music. It was decided at this meeting to hold the social evening on April 22nd, at the home of Mrs. Herb Atkinson. The next club meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Stewart McArthur on May 18. This brought a very interesting meeting to a close and after the singing of the National Anthem Mrs. Turnbull and assistants served a dainty lunch.

"I got here just in time"

Tom Walker's wife was taken ill so suddenly that there was no time to take her in to town, so Tom hurried to the telephone and called the doctor.

The doctor was out on his calls, but Tom finally located him at a neighbor's on the next concession and he came right over.

"It's pleurisy", the doctor told Tom. "She'll be all right, but I got here just in time. It's lucky you have a telephone."
