ADVERTISING RATES

Judicial, Legal, Official and Government Notices—12c. per count line for first insertion, and 6c. per line for each subsequent insertion.

Classified Small Advertisements
1 1/2c. per word each insertion, with four consecutive insertions for the price of three; a discount of 33-1/3 per cent allowed for cash with order. Minimum charge, 25c. cash with order and 35c. if charged.

Every advance notice of any kind, where the object is the benefit or convenience of any person or number of persons—is advertising, and it will be treated as such. If no instructions accompany the notice advising us whom to charge it to, it will be charged to the person phoning or sending it in.

Advertisements ordered for insertion "until further notice" and those sent without written instructions, will appear until written orders are received for their discontinuance.

Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent)
On Wednesday night a presentation was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn, in honor of their daughter, Berta and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vicq, who were married a week previous. There was a large crowd present, and the evening was pleasantly spent in cards and dancing. Excellent music was supplied by Messrs. Bert Watson, Wm. McMillan, Leonard McKeown, Earl Brown on violins and accompanied by Mrs. Wm. McMillan, Alice Reilly, Beatrice Watters and Nell McKinnon. At an appropriate time Mr. Wm. McBride called on the bride and groom to come forward, when Mrs. A. L. Hincks read a complimentary address, and the presentation of a purse of money was presented by Miss Mary McKinnon. Mr. Vicq, in a few well-chosen words spoke on behalf of his wife and said he was glad to meet so many friends and thanked one and all for their kindness. All sang "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," after which a bountiful lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Vicq left on the afternoon train for their home in Regina, Sask. Best wishes of their many friends go with them, for a long and happy wedded life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean motored to Owen Sound on Saturday.

Mr. Wm. McLeod purchased a horse from Mr. A. L. Hincks last week.

The W. M. S. and Willing Helpers held their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening in the church, when a good attendance was present. Mrs. Dan Campbell presided over the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Sutherland. Hymn 541 was sung and Mrs. Wilfred Watson led in prayer. Mrs. Campbell gave a splendid reading on "My Task at Home." Miss May Stewart donated some print for a quilt, also did Mrs. Wm. McBride the top for one, and Mrs. A. B. McArthur donated the lining which was much appreciated. These two quilts are for the bala and will be quilted in June. Considerable other business was transacted and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The W. H. meeting took place immediately afterwards with Mrs. Wilfred Watson presiding. After the devotional exercises the coppers were counted by Mrs. Dan Campbell and Mrs. Boice and the Blue side had $15.51 and the Red side $10.31, making a total of $25.82. Mrs. Dan Campbell was the captain of the Red side and Mrs. Wilfred Watson, captain of the Blue side. A hearty clap was given the winners, and the losing side is to put on a program early in June. A bountiful lunch was served by Mrs. Donald Stewart and Mrs. Dan Campbell. The meeting closed with hymn and prayer. Mrs. Stewart Boyce and Mrs. A. L. Hincks are on the lunch committee for the May meeting.

"THE BUDGET" IN POETRY

Ode to Provincial Treasurer Dunlop on the occasion of his new taxation announcements:

More on movies,

More on gas,
More on games, and
Banker's brass,
More on profits,
More on booze,
Life insurance,
And amusements of ev'ry
Kind and sort—
Now just hear the Public snort.
