The A. Y. P. A. meeting was held on Friday evening with the president in the chair. The meeting was opened with the singing of a hymn. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted and the roll call was answered. There being no business matters, the program was proceeded with. Miss Myrtle Herd gave a paper, which was the great speech made by Dr. Toyohika Hagawa, leader of the Missionary movement in Japan, which he made at the Missionary Congress held in Toronto last October. This was very interesting and instructive, giving quite a detailed account of the conditions in the Orient, the developments in missionary work, and the customs and habits of the people. This paper was preceded by a graphic introduction of Dr. Hagawa by Mr. McCall, who commented on the characteristics and good work of this honorable man whose great endeavor is winning souls to Christ. Next was an interesting paper read by Miss Hazel Herd on "Stewardship and Missions," followed by the reading of a portion of the history of the A.Y.P.A. by Mr. Harvey Smith. The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer. The next meeting will be on Friday evening May 13. Members should try to attend the meetings as regularly as possible, and take their part in building and maintaining this organization and cause it to be more beneficial to all concerned.
Anyone in the district having any items they would like inserted in our column may submit them to the correspondent or to any of the telephone operators of the Allan Park central. By so doing they will keep our district represented.

"The Meanest Man in Town"

The Crawford-Louise Institute held their April meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Edgar Boyce. There were 20 ladies present. Owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. McCaslin presided and the meeting was opened by singing the Ode, followed by Scripture reading by Miss Grace McCaslin. Minutes of previous meeting were read. The roll call was well responded to with "Hints for Housecleaning." The topic, "Cookies—and how to make them," was taken by Mrs. David Hastie. She also brought samples and treated the ladies which was very much appreciated. Miss L. Fisher gave an excellent paper on "Raising Chickens or Turkeys," and read an article from a recent issue of McLean's Magazine on turkey raising. The meeting was closed with the singing of the National Anthem. Mrs. Boyce and assistants served a dainty lunch. The next meeting is the annual meeting and will be held at the home of Mrs. Ezra Sacks, on May 18.

The postponed W. M. S. Easter Thankoffering and C. Y. P. S. meetings were held in the church on Friday evening. Miss Lynne Fisher, president of the W. M. S. occupied the chair and the meeting opened with an Easter hymn. Mr. Kline McCaslin read the Scripture lesson and Rev. Mr. Heeney led in prayer. A special feature of the program was an Easter Pageant, "Faith Is the Victory," in four scenes, and was well given. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. Heeney who, in a splendid address, gave a full report of the W. M. S. meeting of the Toronto Conference held in Bloor St. United church, Toronto, early in March. Miss Mildred Henderson gave a reading and solos were sung by Rev. Mr. Heeney and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald. A dialogue, "Stewardship of Thankfulness," was given by Mrs. Edgar Boyce and Mrs. Jas. McDougall. After the program a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Heeney for her interesting address. The meeting closed with a hymn and benediction.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacDonald attended the funeral Monday in Durham of the late Charles Boyle, formerly of Glenelg, who died at the home of his daughter in Brandon, Manitoba.
Mrs. W. H. Patterson, Misses Willa, Dona and Gladys Patterson, were welcome guests at the home of Mrs. Fulton Saturday.
The regular meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held Tuesday evening in charge of the Sunshiners Group, Mrs. Galloway presiding. Prayers were given by different members. Mrs. Spence Hopkins read the Scripture lesson. Mr. John Pickering read a poem entitled, "Spirit of Service." Miss Loletta Mighon also read an interesting reading on "Life's Service Day," followed by a Life's Service Pledge repeated in unison. Mrs. Galloway rendered a solo. A Bible contest was solved at the close which was enjoyed by all.
An event of interest took place quietly at the Baptist parsonage Wednesday afternoon when Rev. John Galloway united in matrimony Miss Beesie Adam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Adam, to Mr. Loel Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston.

It will pay you to advertise in The Chronicle.
