Knox Corners

There were more out to our service on Sunday than we have had for some time, and also a very good attendance at Sunday School. The preparatory service on Friday evening was well attended. Our pastor spoke of the helplessness man who was brought to Jesus to be healed. He had difficulty in getting near to the Master on account of the crowds, but he was in earnest, and as a result, he was healed, soul and body, and so will we be, when we seek Him with our whole hearts. Are we about our Father's business? or are we more concerned about our own? The members of the choir were nearly all present and sang "Open to Him."

Mr. and Mrs. David Marshall spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams in town. Mr. and Mrs. Eccles, of Egremont, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marshall and attended service at Knox.

Further congratulations to Miss Margaret Watson, who recently completed her three years' training in Victoria Hospital, London. She received word last week of having come first in her class, numbering over forty. This entitles her to a free course in the University. She is in London this week attending the exercises, preceding the graduation, which takes place on Friday, and which her family expect to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McLean and baby, of Toronto, paid a short visit this week to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall and other relatives here.

Miss T. E. Byers visited Friday with Mrs. S. Keonig, of Hampden.

Varney

The young people's club held a social evening and dance in the Orange Hall, Varney on Tuesday evening, April 19. The orchestra supplied good music and an enjoyable time was spent. Lunch was served.

The Varney U. F. W. O. and U. F. O. Clubs will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Leeson on Friday night, May 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Grant visited recently with Mrs. Grant's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Norburn Horsburgh, near Holstein.

Miss Charlotte Patterson spent a few days last week with friends in town. The Orange Lodge held a successful dance in the hall on Tuesday night, April 26. A good crowd was present. The Rahm orchestra supplied excellent music and lunch was served.

A new steel roof and other improvements are being made on the Orange Hall at Varney.

Almost a full congregation partook of sacrament at Knox church Norman on Sunday. The Sunday school reopened with Mr. James C. Marshall, superintendent, present, and all the teachers and most of the children back in their classes as well as sixteen adults in the Bible class, taught by Mr. Thos. McAllister. The choir also had a good attendance and rendered a sweet and suitable anthem. Rev. Mr. Honeyman gave his usual good sermon and interesting story for the children.

Mrs. John Metcalfe, Miss McNeice and Margaret Leeson visited at Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Leeson's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mountain and two daughters, Doreen and Myrtle, visited at William Marshall's, at Lettergreen on Sunday.

Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent) The play entitled "The Pill Bottle," was presented in the hall on Friday night again and was well received. This play was given here before and was also a success.

Mr. David Hincks spent a few days visiting friends in Toronto last week.

Mr. Wm. Ramage spent a few days visiting friends in Harrison last week. Mr. Jim Weir was to Hamilton on Wednesday.

Mr. Gorrie McTaggart, of Toronto, is visiting friends in Priceville.

Messrs. Maurice and Edgar McLeod, Swinton Park, Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean, Mrs. D. G. McLean, visited last week at A. L. Hincks'.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Annie McEachern, who passed away at her home early Tuesday morning. Deceased had not been well for a while but was up and around the week previous to her death. She had enjoyed her breakfast that morning and passed away shortly afterwards. She was 73 years last October and was born on the South Line on the farm now owned by her son, Hector. She leaves to mourn their loss, four sons: Angus, of Cleveland, Ohio; Alex., of Toronto; Hector on the old homestead, and John in Durham; and two daughters, Mrs. Norman McIntyre, South Line, and Mary, at home. The service was held Thursday in the Presbyterian church, which was filled to overflowing with sympathetic friends, who came to pay the last tribute of respect to one who held the high esteem of all. Rev. Mr. Armstrong, of Durham, officiated and preached a comforting sermon from St. Mark 8:14: "She has done what she could." The hymns sung were, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Sleep on Beloved," and "The Great Physician Now Is Near." The pallbearers were Messrs. Hector McLean Allan McLean, Ray McLean, Colin H. McLean, Hermie McLean and Colin A. McLean. The floral tributes, which covered the casket were carried by Misses Annie Mae McIntyre, Florence, Sadie and Mary Catherine McEachern. Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whiteside and Mr. Rod Whiteside, Collingwood; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McEachern, Mrs. Salter, Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. Korts, Charlie McLean, Toronto; Messrs. Hugh and Archie McDonald and Katie McDonald and Mrs. McQuarrie of Bentinck, and a number of friends from Durham, Boothville and Dromore. Interment took place in McNeil's cemetery. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family in their time of sorrow.

Mrs. Craig, of Toronto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hector McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan, Holstein, visited Wednesday at Mr. Hector McLean's, and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Colin McLean.

Messrs. Ray McLean and Willie Nichol have purchased new trucks.

Mr. Alex. McKinnon is engaged with Mr. John Nichol, Jr.

The messenger of death has come in to our community and taken to her reward Mrs. Colin McLean. Deceased had not been well and on Easter Monday went to Toronto to the Western Hospital, where she was operated on. She passed away on Saturday April 23. She was 58 years of age and was born on the 19th concession of Proton, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ferguson, predeceasing her a few years. She leaves to mourn their loss, one brother, John, and three sisters, Sarah, on the old homestead, Molly and Katie (Mrs. Fred Runciman), of Toronto; and two daughters, Esther, Mrs. Neil Norman, of Dundalk, and Nellie, of Toronto, and one son Alroy, of Toronto. She was of a kind and genial disposition and was held in the highest esteem. The funeral, which was held Monday from her late residence, was one of the largest ever seen here. Rev. Mr. Snider, Presbyterian minister of Dundalk, preached a comforting message to the sorrowing family and friends. Three of her favorite hymns were sung, "The Great Physician Now Is Near," "Forever with the Lord," and "Asleep in Jesus." The pallbearers were Messrs. Farquhar McKinnon, Hector McLean, Donald McLean, Jack McLean, Chas. Ferguson, Alex. Ferguson. Many beautiful floral tributes bore silent messages of love, and were carried by a number of young ladies. They were from: Brothers and sisters, family, Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon and family, Priceville; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Runciman, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Ibbitson and family, Dundalk Co-operative Co., John Wilkie, Y. W. A. Chalmers church, Toronto; Teachers Association, Chalmers church, Toronto; Misses A. McLean and Axworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan, Holstein; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McMillan, Dundalk; Miss Esther McInnis, Toronto. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Runciman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. Ibbitson, Mrs. Salter, Mrs. Mortimer, Chas. McLean, Gorrie McTaggart, of Toronto; Messrs. John McGillivray and Willie Peterman, of Woodbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ferguson and Miss McLellan, of Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan, Holstein, and a number from Dundalk, Durham and Proton Station. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing friends in their time of sorrow.

Rev. Mr. Murdock, of Shakespeare, occupied the pulpit Sunday in the hall and was preaching for a call. He based his text from Matt. 1:27.

Mr. Gilvray McLean, Tiverton, visited the first of the week at his home here.

Mrs. Angus McCannell returned home Sunday after spending a week at A. L. Hincks'.

Miss Alma McLean, only daughter of Mrs. Archie McLean, left for Fergus, first of the week, where she will enter the hospital as a nurse-in-training. All wish her success.

A joint congregational meeting of Priceville and Swinton Park congregations is being held today (Monday) in Swinton Park church, for the purpose of calling a minister.

Presbytery is meeting Wednesday at Erin for general business.

Mrs. Fred Runciman, Toronto, spent last week at Mr. Colin McLean's.

Mr. David Hincks motored to Creemore one day last week.

Bunessan

(Our Own Correspondent) Monday evening Bunessan club met at the home of Miss Donald Nichol, with a good attendance. The roll call was answered by naming a spring flower. "The Dying Swan" was read by Miss Jessie Nichol. A solo, "Smiling Thru," was much enjoyed. Several were called on for stump speeches but only a few took part. A reading, "An Overworked Reciter," was read by Miss Annabelle McArthur. A paper on the life of Robert Browning was well prepared and read by Mrs. Dan L. McArthur. The Gazette was given by Archie C. McArthur. "God Save the King" closed the program and refreshments followed. The next place of meeting will be the school on May 16. Everybody welcome. Ladies please provide.

Rocky Saugeen

(Our Own Correspondent) This week has been ideal for seeding and the farmers are all busy on the land.
