

WITH THE CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. J. Burgess, on Thursday, May 12, with an attendance of twenty-one members. Mrs. Patterson, the president, opened the meeting by the singing of hymn 322. Mrs. Armstrong lead in prayer.

"Work Among Koreans in Japan," was taken from the Study Book and read by Mrs. Hamilton. It was decided to hold the meetings on the second Friday in the month for the months of June, July and August. Mrs. Armstrong gave a full report of the W. M. S. Provincial Presbyterial, which was held in April at Peterborough. The Society is ever pressing forward even through the dark hours we are now passing. So with a prayer on our lips for those who answered the Master's call to "go into all the world and preach the Gospel," we have started another year feeling our work shall not be void. Mrs. Harding and Mrs. McFadden gave papers on "McKay of Formosa." Miss Calder and Mrs. Hepburn offered short prayers.

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of hymn 385 and every-one repeating the Lord's Prayer.

QUEEN STREET Y. W. A.

The monthly meeting of the Young Women's Auxilliary of Queen Street United church was held on Thursday evening, May 12, at the home of Miss Bernice Whitmore. Miss Twamley presided. "More Love to Thee, O Christ," was the opening hymn. Verses of Scripture were given alphabetically by the members. Miss Bernice Whitmore gave a splendid paper on "New Schools" from the Study Book. A very interesting report was given by Miss Kathleen Milne on the Presbyterial which was held in Markdale on May 11. Miss Twamley gave an inspiring talk on prayer. This was followed by a few words of prayer by the president. The meeting was brought to a close by singing, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." After the Mizpah benediction Miss Whitmore and assistants served lunch.

KNOX CHURCH W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of Knox United church met in the schoolroom on Thursday, May 12, with Mrs. Mather presiding. The meeting opened by singing hymn 593 and the Lord's Prayer in unison. After the business was disposed of hymn 496 was sung and Mrs. McGirr led in prayer. The roll call was answered by the name of a missionary. The Bible reading by Mrs. Mortley was the 23rd Psalm and Miss Jessie Smith read the devotional leaflet, "Judas, the Man Who Might Have Been." Mrs. Wm. Derby had charge of the topic from the study book.

Interesting reports of the Presbyterial held in Markdale, May 11, were given by different members. Mrs. McIlraith told of the various reports given at the morning session and Miss McGirr of the afternoon session, special mention being made of Miss Louise Mayowne, a native of Czechoslovakia, once a port worker at Quebec, but now in Toronto at training school. Miss Mayowne speaks seven different languages. Her work is very important in dealing with our many foreigners. Miss McGirr also spoke of Miss Fee, a native of Holland Centre, who told of her work in West China. Mrs. Mather gave a short account of the evening session of which Rev. M. Coburn was the chief speaker.

The meeting closed with the theme song and prayer.

ROCKY SAUGEEN W. M. S.

The Rocky Saugeen W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Hugh McDonald on May 4. A large number of ladies were present.

The President conducted the meeting and opened with prayer. Ps. 49 was sung. Miss B. Smith read the Scripture reading, Matt. 8. Prayers were offered by Mrs. Vessie and Mrs. Davey. The roll call was answered by a verse containing the word "Mother." The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Hymn 559 was sung. Mrs. Vessie sang "Mother's Bible," and was much appreciated. Mrs. J. McKechnie had a splendid paper on "Memories of Mother," and Mrs. O. Boyd had one on "Mother's Day." The closing hymn was 606. The roll call for June is a verse containing the word "Faith." The Lord's Prayer closed the meeting.

The June meeting will be held in the church. All ladies invited.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Anniversary services of the Durham Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, May 22. Rev. Donald McQueen, of Dunnville, will preach morning and evening. Everybody welcome.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hewitt, Toronto, spent the week-end with Mrs. Hewitt's mother, Mrs. L. Elvidge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook, Guelph, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Firth.

Mr. and Mrs. Scaife spent two days last week with the former's sister, Mrs. Thos. Allan.

Misses Marion and Mary Morton visited their sister, Agnes in Guelph on Saturday.

Miss Blanche Kearney, R.N., of Western Hospital staff, Toronto, visited over the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kearney, Whitby, spent the week-end with relatives here, and also visited the former's sister, Miss Annie Kearney, in Owen Sound hospital. Miss Kearney is so far recovered from her recent operation for mastoids that she is expected home the end of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Henderson, of Normanby, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Eleanor Muriel, to George Clark Torry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Torry, Bentinck, the marriage to take place early in June.

Miss Alma Hammill, of Duntroon, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. C. B. Lawrence and Mrs. J. McCaslin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mudgett of Detroit, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kelsey.

Mrs. G. McKechnie, who has spent the winter months with her brothers in Chicago and Hamilton, returned last week to her home here for the summer.

LAUDER—RAY

Last week we referred briefly to the marriage of Martin Lauder, of town. Following is what the Buffalo Evening News of the 10th said of the happy event:

"Marty Lauder, whose hockey blade sunk many a disk into the nets in the International Hockey league and who played left wing on the championship Buffalo Bisons this past season, walked hurriedly into City hall Tuesday noon.

With him was Miss Margaret Ray of Ft. Erie, Ont., formerly of Salamanca, whom Lauder met last Christmas. She is a striking brunette.

"Where's the marriage license bureau?" he queried Harry Hawkins, a hockey fan. Some 15 or 20 minutes later Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lauder came down the elevator. Judge F. Bret Thorn had tied the knot.

Lauder, his vacation after the hockey season about over, immediately set out to find a job for the summer. He came to Buffalo in mid-season of 1930-31 from Syracuse in a trade for Rolly Huard. He broke into hockey from the Owen Sound team, junior champions of Canada. He lives in Durham, Ont."

The Buffalo Courier-Journal said of a further pleasing event:

"Marty Lauder of the Buffalo Hockey Club, who was married on Tuesday, was guest of honor at a stag dinner given by the Peace Bridge Arena's hockey team last evening, at the Plaza Restaurant. Lauder coached the Arenas, runners-up in the Frontier Amateur league last season, they lost to Ridgways in the playoff finals."

Knox Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. McMullen of Holstein took the service at Knox on Sunday and also the Bible class at which there were quite a number present. His message was on "Stewardship." Our wealth, time, intellect, or whatever talents we possess, are ours only to use for God's glory as He directs and for which we will be called to give an account. Though quite a young man all were pleased with Mr. McMullen, in Bible class and church service and will be glad to have him with us again at some future time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McAllister are visiting this week with friends near Toronto.

Glad to be one of the number from Knox W. M. S. who attended the Presbyterial at Arthur on Tuesday of this week. There was a large attendance, and a good programme, special features of which were most interesting addresses by Mrs. Hawtin, a missionary from India, home on furlough, and Mrs. Smith, of Toronto.

Miss Margaret Watson spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Allen, in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Grainger, of Shelburne, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Marshall. Miss Ellen Marshall accompanied them.

Our Y. W. Auxilliary and Mission Band will meet in the church on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss T. E. Byers entertained a number of the junior boys and girls on Friday evening of last week.

Henry—"How sweet of you to back that horse because it had the same name as mine!"

Jane—"It had the same habits, too. It got there half an hour late!"

Crawford

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fiddes of Brant, visited with the MacDougald and Boyce families on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John White visited with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Goldsmith of Massie on Friday of last week.

Misses Lynne Fisher and Florence MacDonald attended the annual meeting of the Grey Presbyterial at Markdale on Wednesday last.

Mr. Donald McKechnie met with a painful accident one day last week. When hitching his team in the wagon the horses crushed him against the tongue and hurt the ligaments of his knee. He has been confined to his bed and suffers a great deal of pain. We hope that he may soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKechnie, of Durham, visited recently with Mr. D. McKechnie and daughter.

Mrs. W. T. Lamont and sons of Brant Township, were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald.

Mr. Wilbur Anderson and sister, Miss Mabel, R.N., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Braun, Glenelg, on Sunday.

The C.Y.P.S. met in the church last Thursday evening for their semi-monthly meeting. After the devotional and business part Mr. Geo. Hastie presided over the remainder of the programme which was of a patriotic nature. The hymns were in keeping with the theme. Mrs. Geo. Hastie gave a paper on the "Stewardship of the Youth," pointing out the great opportunities young people have to improve themselves. Mr. Eric Ashton also gave a paper on "Patriotism," showing that true patriotism didn't simply mean fighting but meant living good lives for our country. A solo by Mrs. D. J. MacDonald and a couple of selections by the quartette were much enjoyed. After the meeting an interesting contest was conducted by Mr. Ashton.

Mulock

(Our Own Correspondent)

On Sunday next, May 22, evangelistic services begin at Mulock church. The evangelists, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fraser and Mr. John Fraser are highly spoken of by the pastor here, Rev. Mr. Galloway, as he was personally acquainted with them in Scotland. Let us hope that their efforts will not be confined to Mulock, but that the entire district may benefit by their visit. One of the special methods of presenting the Gospel is by dialogue.

Mrs. W. Fulton, Mrs. (Rev.) Galloway, Janet Patterson and Robt. Galloway attended anniversary services at Flesheron Sunday evening at which Mr. Galloway took the service.

John McDonald is home from McMaster University, Hamilton, for a few weeks.

Miss Hazel Torry and Miss Willa Bailey, of Hanover, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Torry.

BIRTHS

HOPKINS.—In Bentinck, on May 17, 1932, to Mr. and Mrs. Allie Hopkins, a son.

SCHENK.—In Durham, May 11, 1932, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schenk, a daughter.

WILSON.—In Durham, May 15, 1932, to Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, a son.

IN MEMORIAM

ISAAC.—In memory of the love and kindness of husband and father, Robert H. Isaac, who entered into rest, May 17, 1928.

Memories always wander
When twilight shadows fall,
Back to days of happiness,
Days beyond recall;
And there always comes a longing,
If you only could come home;
Those who have a father,
Cherish him with care,
For you never know his value
Till you see his vacant chair.
—Ever remembered by wife, son and daughter. 519 1pd.

The Minister of Agriculture in Belgium has decided to promote the cultivation of aromatic and medicinal plants in this country. Land has been selected for the experiments, and lectures with slides will be given at Lessines and other centres. Herbs are largely used in Belgian medicine, and serious complaints are treated with such simple remedies as cherry stalks or blackberry leaves, which curiously enough are quite successful.

Advertised Goods Are Cheapest

THEY HAVE TO BE. The merchandising firm or individual which continuously advertises its business is a more careful buyer than that which takes the "chance" method of drawing trade.

Advertised Goods Are "Carefully Bought" Goods

They must satisfy the merchant who in turn knows they will satisfy you. The merchant who knows his selling price, also knows the true market price. They can't fool him—and he won't fool you. In your own interests, look over the advertising columns of the Chronicle, and

The Man who needs Life Insurance most is the man who cannot get it!

Ask any of the 400,000 men who last year were "turned down" by the life insurance companies when they wanted insurance.

An accident, or a few days of illness often convert a good risk into a rejected applicant.

The policy you can buy to-day may not be obtainable next year.

Wise men are buying all the life insurance they can while they are still insurable.

Three billions of insurance is carried by the Sun Life on the lives of men who refuse to take the chance of finding they are ineligible for insurance... when they need it most.
