May Get Bandstand
A carvass is being made of business people and other citizens to put up a bandstand. The beginning has been made in putting up a platform in the square behind the town hall which will be completed as far as the funds will go and concerts will be given there weekly during the summer—June July, August and September.—Mount Forest Confederate.

Will Try to Collect Taxes
Every possible effort will be made by the town council to collect the taxes in arrears, which now amount to almost $9,000. At a special meeting of the council Thursday last it was determined to draw up a list of lands and properties to be sold for taxes, and as a last resort, sell these should the owners default payment of taxes.—Kincardine Review-Reporter.

Bruce Deanery at Kincardine
The Anglican Deanery for the County of Bruce met in the parish hall of the Anglican church on Friday evening last for the purpose of setting a date for the annual deanery picnic. Representatives were present from Walkerton, Paisley, Bervie, Chesley and Lucknow. Port Elgin was approved by all as the location for the 1932 picnic, and the date was set for July 21.—Kincardine News.

Relief Work in Hanover
After a great deal of discussion, the relief meeting held in the town hall last Monday evening at the call of Mayor Armstrong, decided to appoint a committee to have charge of relief work in Hanover for the next few months at least. Members appointed to the committee were Miss Kirchner, Mrs. H. M. Huber and Messrs. Wm. Weigel, J. A. T. Patterson and H. L. Reinhardt.—Hanover Post.

Horses for Toronto
Horses seem to be coming back on city streets. Dr. C. L. Morgan has just completed filling an order for wagon horses for one of the larger Toronto firms. This is the third consignment of horses Dr. Morgan has filled since March of this year, with prices ranging from $120 to $160. The above prices compare favorably with prices preceding the depression and it is only an indication of the demand for the proper type of wagon horses.—Shelburne Free Press and Economist.

Odd Fellows Attend Church
The officers and members of Gordon Lodge No. 247, I. O. O. F., and Britannia Rebekah No. 215, together with the members of visiting lodges from Harriiston, Drayton, Arthur and Listowel, held their annual church service in St. Paul's Anglican church on Sunday evening, May 29, at 7 o'clock. Special pews in the front of the church had been reserved for the members of the lodges and the church was filled to capacity by members of the congregation and visitors.—Palmerston Spectator.

The Corporation of the Town of Southampton, the defendant, may enter an appeal from the judgment of Mr. Justice Garrow.—Walkerton Telescope.

Work on Highway Progressing
The work on the construction of the highway from Palmerston to Listowel is progressing rapidly. The cement is now laid south from the Palmerston turn as far as the construction camp. The work is now commencing at the northerly limits of the town of Listowel and still proceed north until the roadway is joined with the cement now laid. The contractor expects to finish this stretch of road in 5 or 6 weeks. The highway from Listowel to Palmerston is closed to traffic. A detour has been provided one side road east of Listowel.—Listowel Standard.

Hydro Meeting
Over fifty representatives of the surrounding towns were in Collingwood on Wednesday and took part in the hydro conference held in the council chambers, the object of which was to find ways and means of getting a more satisfactory explanation of the ever increasing cost of power and to discuss the troubles of the various municipalities. The outcome of the conference was the formation of the Georgian Bay Municipal Association. It was a well conducted meeting and much information was gleaned of the cost of hydro in these nearby towns.—Collingwood Enterprise.

Pickery Fry Deposited at Meaford
Tuesday afternoon two million pickery fry were sent up from the Government Hatcheries, at Collingwood. These were deposited in the Meaford fishing grounds, just outside the harbor, this being considered the best place for putting them. Mr. T. H. Randle was the sponsor of this deposit and he, with members of the executive of the Board of Trade, went out in Mr. William Braithwaite's boat to meet the Government tug. The arrangements were in charge of Mr. Edgar Brown. Pickery put in her two years ago are now beginning to be caught by hook and line in the harbor, and Meaford is to be congratulated on getting such a large consignment at this time.—Meaford Express.

Rubber Plant Has Support
That the Baldwin Rubber company has a good chance for success and that the ratepayers of this town will not be making a mistake by ratifying the proposed agreement at the polls tomorrow has been the unanimous opinion of members of the town council and the Board of Trade.

Of more than 400 ratepayers that attended the meeting this week at the Tudhope Carriage Factory here only one spoke entirely against the plan when Chairman Robert Curran asked tax-payers for opinions. The lone objection was voiced by Mr. Frank Prosser, who kept the audience amused after an evening of addresses in which the proposed agreement was explained in detail.—Orillia News-Letter.

Violating P. O. Regulations
Numerous instances of the irregular use of mail boxes on rural routes have been brought to the attention of the Post Office Department recently. These consist of the placing of circular letters and other matter in these boxes by persons other than the courier. Postmasters have therefore been instructed to warn the public of the seriousness of this offence and to instruct the public that no persons are to have access to these mail boxes except those authorized—that is couriers and the owners of the boxes. Any matter placed in rural boxes intended for the owner must first have passed through the local post office and have the proper amount of postage thereon. Couriers are instructed to collect all matter found in these mail receptacles and bring same to their post office.—Mildmay Gazette.

News in Brief
