Our pastor spoke on Sunday on Paul's conversion on the road to Damascus, and his testimony was "Old things are passed away, behold all things are become new." And that should be the testimony of every Christian. Paul, after being a zealous Pharisee, and persecuting the Christians, turned to follow the lowly Jesus and counted all things as nothing that he might win Christ, and took up his cross to follow Him. Paul suffered much persecution and died a martyr's death, and so must we follow Christ, for if we suffer with Him we shall also reign with Him.

The sad news came to this neighborhood at the close of last week of the death of Mrs. Wm. McNally at Lumsden, Sask., after a very brief illness. Mrs. McNally was most highly esteemed in this neighborhood, her husband being one of our most progressive young farmers before going West. He and the members of the family have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends and neighbors in South Grey.

On Sunday night we had a peculiar dream about Andrew Turnbull of Galt suburbs for whom we worked a month in harvest time away back in 1885. The dream was quite prolonged and most realistic. Monday when the Mail & Empire came to hand there was the announcement of his sudden death on Saturday evening, at the old spring on the farm, where he had gone for a drink. "Tis forty-six years since I last saw him and readily recall how he, his brother and your scribe followed a reaper cutting ten acres a day of heavy fall wheat—66 acres in all, followed by 34 acres of heavy barley. It wasn't for the wage you worked in those days; it was largely to show what stuff you were made of. Mr. Turnbull as a fine type of citizen.

Owing to our township being in arrears of taxes for 1931 of over $3,000 and for 1930 for $1800 we purposed saying some hot stuff about the county council going on with any further paying work this season, but the article by the editor in last week's Chronicle puts the matter so clear and forcible that we refrain. Somehow and that soon, county expenditure has to be lowered. Farmers by the score are having their telephones removed, dozens are not taking out license or permit for their cars. Hogs at 4c a lb., eggs averaging 7c a dozen, cream and butter at 16c, wheat quoted from 42c to 46c a bushel, prices like this all round are making hard sledding.

The bride was becomingly gowned in medium blue georgette and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Leathe Jackson, niece of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed in yellow crepe de chine, carrying a basket of sweet peas. A wedding dinner was served fifteen guests at the home of the bride's parents. They left on the 2.55 train for Toronto, the bride travelling in a black and eggshell silk costume.
