(Our Own Correspondent)
The Y. P. S. met in the church last Thursday with the president taking charge of the devotional and business part, Mrs. Heaney had charge of the programme which consisted of a song by Orville Calvin, Earl and Jean Opperthausen, a solo by Miss Lynne Fisher, a recitation by Miss Vera McCaslin, and an address by Mrs. Heaney on "The League of Nations," telling of its origin and the work it is carrying on. At the close of the meeting Miss Grace McCaslin put on two contests.
Mr. and Mrs. John White and Miss Georgina, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Goldsmith, of Massie.
Misses Myrtle MacDonald and Islay Lamont, visited in Owen Sound on Saturday.

Varney

(Our Own Correspondent)
The Varney Wide-awake Community Club held a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Jr. The young couple were presented with a pyrex plate in a silver stand and a pair of colored woollen blankets. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall replied suitably, and thanked the club for the gifts. The lawn was illuminated with gas lanterns and the club enjoyed numerous outside games. On gathering in the house a varied programme was given. Community singing, "There's a Long, Long Trail A-Winding," opened the programme. Humorous readings were given by Miss Florence McIlvride and Miss G. McAllister, which caused much merriment. Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson gave several numbers on guitar and violin. While lunch was being served music was supplied.
Mr. Donald McIlvride and son Norman, and Mr. James Petty, accompanied by two other gentlemen from Aytton, motored to Ottawa Friday, July 15, to attend the Imperial Conference there.
Mrs. (Rev.) Wm. Hill (nee Ella Barber) and children, Doris, Jean and Lorna, of Oak Park, Ill., and Mrs. Richard Barber, of Durham, visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barber and attended service at Knox church, Normanby, on Sunday.
We congratulate Miss Dorothy Ritchie, who has taught the past two years at S. S. No. 14, Normanby, on passing her two entrance pupils, Gladys Schenk and Lloyd Schenk, the latter with honors. Besides being a success as a teacher Miss Ritchie took a great interest in the community. She was a great help to the community club and was always willing to help at their literary meetings; helped to arrange their social evenings and played on their softball team. Her place as a teacher will be hard to fill and we wish her every success in her home school at Edge Hill where she is engaged for the coming year.
Mr. Bert Barber has engaged Mr. Joe McCulloch, of Vickers, and Mr. Gordon Grant has engaged Mr. Fidler of Holstein, to assist with the busy season.

The applications are still streaming in the vacant schools in the vicinity. The Orchardville school received as high as 87 applications in one day and the other schools are receiving similar numbers. The Varney school, although not vacant, received a number of applications.
Knox church, Normanby, are holding their anniversary services on Sunday next, July 24. Morning service is at 11 o'clock and evening service at 7.30. The annual garden party will be held on the Monday night following, July 25.
Miss Dorothy Bogle returned home Monday from a week's visit with friends in London and Woodstock.

It will pay you to advertise in The Chronicle.

Dornoch

(Our Own Correspondent)
The annual Garden Party of Dornoch Presbyterian church was held last Thursday evening on the church grounds. The weather-man was very kind as the rain held off until the programme was nearly over, with the result that there was one of the largest crowds in attendance for some years. The ball game between Durham Hockey Club and Williamsford was very exciting at times with Durham as the winners. A splendid supper was served by the ladies in the basement of the church from 6 to 8, after which the crowd listened to an excellent programme put on by the Durham Presbyterian choir, consisting of choruses, reading, solos and duets, which were enjoyed by all. The proceeds amounted to $85.
Mrs. Gordon Ross, of Lethbridge, left on Sunday to visit friends in Chatham, after spending six weeks with her brother, Wm. Smith, and family.
Mrs. Thomas Smith and daughter, of Napanee, spent the week-end with the Smith family.
Congratulations are extended to Miss Annie McGillivray, of Detroit, and Donald McArthur, who were married last week.
Rev. James Skene and his son, Rev. Bert Skene of Toronto, visited the first of the week with the former's brother and sister, Geo. and Miss Mighton.
Mrs. Bryce Dargavel and two daughters, returned home on Saturday after two weeks spent visiting friends in Rochester and Niagara Falls, N.Y.
Miss Dorothy Schafer, of Owen Sound, spent the past week at her home in Glenelg.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Mortley and family accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mortley spent Sunday evening with the Allen family in Hanover. Misses Muriel and Lavina Allen accompanied them home.
Sorry to hear that Mr. Gordon Robertson has been under the doctor's care for the past week. Hope he will soon be up and around again.

Think About Your Old Fur Coat

Your furs need attention. You can have your fur coat remodelled more reasonably this year than any year previous. Labour and materials are much cheaper. We are very well known, being established in Owen Sound for the last twelve years as furriers. Our experience has taught us to give to our customers the best of workmanship. You can turn your old fur coat into a very smart and up-to-date model at a very low cost. We can also clean your fur coat to make it look like new and have that smooth lustrous appearance of a new coat. We can reline your fur coat for as low as $12.00 with linings that give service.

A Good Investment --- A NEW FUR COAT

We carry a large assortment of fur coats. A large variety to choose from in the latest 1933 models. If you are thinking of buying a new fur coat now is the time to buy. Prices have never been lower in our history. Incidentally your savings are so great that buying a fur now is the best investment you can make. For example, a Hudson Seal coat (dyed muskrat), the most reliable fur coat on the market, has been selling two years ago for $450 to $500, but at present prices we offer an up-to-date 1933 model for $175. We take in your old coat on part payment.

Think about it now. Prices may change very shortly. Take advantage of the depression.
